Murderer Orosz Hanged.

Pitrishum, Sept. 2.—Joseph Orosz was anged in the county fall yard yesterday, Death was due to strangulation. The inur-derer walked to the gallows without flinching. The crime for which Orosz was hanged was the murder of his sweethears, Teresa Bobak, who had reject i him, after promising to be his wife. The killing ster promising to be his wife. The killing took place on Jan. 8 last, in a Greenfield boarding house. After the signing of his death warrant Orosz became reconciled to his down, and said be preferred death on the gallows rather than a commutation of noe to life imprisonment, or even a term of twenty years.

Youthful Murderer Hanged

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Sept. 2.—Frank Mer-ris, aged 18 years, was hanned here yester-day for the murder two years ago of Ber-nard Loker, a farmer of Chestnut Ridge, just above Connellsville. The object was robbery. Morris was a neighbor, and be-lieved to have money secretal about his house. While Loker was at work alone on his farm, Morris stepped up behind him and shot him in the head. He then ransacked the house, but received only $18 He was arrested the next day. The mur-derer was a cheap novel flend, and at no time showed any particular concern about Family Poisoned by Canned Corn Beef. Bailboards, N. J., Sept. 2.—The family of Edward Seeley, consisting of Edward Seeley, his wife, William, aged 19, and Susan, aged II years, were all poisoned by eating canned corned beef for their sup-per. About an hour after eating the beef they were all selzed with terrible pains and voulting. The entire family were prostrated, Mr. Seeley being the worst. A prosection, and Science acting the worst. A physician was summoned, and his prompt arrival saved their lives. Mr. Sceley is a well known grocer of this city. He is still suffering from severe injuries received in the Atlantic City railroad wreek.
