AN APPEAL TO THE POOR.

"Whoever Attempts Under Whatever Popular Cry to Shake the Stability of the Public Currency, Bring on Distress in Money Matters and Drive the Country Into the Use of Depreciated Money, Stabs Your Interest and Your Happiness to the Heart."

If any farmer thinks that he is going to do all sulling and no buying, or that he is going to sell more than he buys, and thus get ahead of the world by the use of a depreciated and fluctuating currency, we commend to him the following words of Daniel Webster:

"Sir, I pronounce the author of such sentiments to be guilty of attempting a detestable fraud on the community; a double fraud: a fraud which is to cheat man out of their property and out of the carnings of their labor by first cheating them out of their misunderstanding.

". The natural haired of the poor to the rich.' Sir, it shall not be till the last moment of my existence; it shall only be when I am drawn to the verge of oblivion. when I shall cease to have respect or affection for anything on earth, that I will believe the people of the United States capable of being effectually deluded, cajoled and driven about in herds by such abominable fronds as this. If they shall sink to that point, if they so far conse to be man as to yield to such pretenses and such clamor, they will be slaves already; slaves to their own passions, slaves to the fraud
