ELECTED ON THE FIRST BALLOT.

His Opponents Withdrew and General Walker's Successor Was Chosen by Acclamating One of the Grand Army's Most Successful Meetings.

ST PAUL Minn. Sept 5.—The thirtieth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Bepatilic earns to an end yesterday after one of the most successful meetings since the organization was established in Blinols a few months after the close of the war. On the largest day the number of out of town visitors reached almost, if not fully, 200,000, nearly 50,000 of whom, however, came over from Minneapolis to see the Grand Army parade.

acclamation. When nominations were in order-the following candidates, were presouthed to the encommencer's Major Thad-dens S. Clarkson of Nebraska, John C. Linchan of New Hampshire, D. R. Ballou of Rhode Island, Rear Admiral Richard W. Mende and Senior Vice Commander-In-Chief Habson of Kentucky.

Chief Hobson of Kentucky.

The election of Clarkson was forecast by the outburst of applianse which gracted his nomination. The friends of the other candidates realized the hopelessness of the shuation, and accepting it with the grace of good comradeship, Ballou, Linchan, Meade and Hobson withdrew in favor of the winner before a ballot was taken. The election was then made by accumulation.

General Walker appointed Comrades Meade, Ballou and Linchan a committee to excert his successor to the platform, which was done amid demonstrative applianse. Major Clarkson, in accepting the

The vicercy was seated upon a carved divat clevated at the end of the room, and the other guests were sented at small ma-hogany tables, in regal mahogany chairs uphelstered in red and gold satin, and decorated with the Chinese standard em-broidered with remarkable perfection. Opposition with remarkathe perfection. Op-position and concealed by a screen, were several music boxes, and during the luncheon well known airs were played in harmonious succession. The luncheon party was composed entirely of the gen-tlemen of the higher rank in the party of Li Hung Chang and the Chinese Jegation at Washington.

Apparently the vicercy enjoyed his visit to the legation, and Minister Yang Yu must have made it very agreeable for him, for it was nearly 2 o'clock before Li Hung Chang returned to the hotel. He was tired and was permitted to take a slesta without Interruption, notwithstanding the fact that many persons had gathered in the salon anxious to greet him. It was intended that he should visit the Washington monument in the afternoon, but when he arose a call was made upon Sec-retary and Mrs. Carlisle, and at their home the ambassador remained so long that there was barely time to hurriedly drive around and leave cards at the home of the cabinet officers who are now in Washington before the official day had
