EVENING HERALD

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1896.

The Coal Trade.

Market for anthracite has not been very active this week; there was a little spurt given to it by the advance in wholesale prices, but the trade does not respond to the piping of the producer, pipe he ever so blandly. The trouble is, as heretofore stated, the dealer has a lot of coal on hand and until this is gotten rid of there can be no activity in the trade. It is not a good year for advancing prices of any commodity, but the coal producer seems to think he can act entirely independently of other business conditions. It is unwise to take the opinion of financial writers upon the condition of the coal trade; they view this from its effect upon the shares of the companies and take for fact the action that is felt to them. The tonnage of hard coal this year has not been consumed, the consumer is content to let the producer carry the burden until such time as fuel is actually wanted for heating purposes, and then the quantities purchased are not likely to be a moiety of former amounts, for the reason that no advantage in price is likely to occur.

Criminal Court on Monday.

Next Monday morning will open one of the busiest, or rather largest, terms of criminal courts ever held in Shenandoah county. The number of cases to be tried will aggregate between 400 and 500, and Judges Pershing, Bechtel and Savidge, the latter from Northumberland county, will have sufficient work to keep them busy the entire two weeks of the term. Up to noon yesterday 433 cases had been returned to District Attorney Bechtel, and over four hundred subpoenas have already been sent out. Quite a number of Justices of the Peace are yet to be heard from so that the list of cases will number close to five hundred. The cases to be tried are for every crime upon the criminal calendar with the exception of murder, the number of assault and battery cases being larger than ever known. Besides the Orphans' court will be in session on Monday, and the contest court will also sit during the week.

Township Schools.

The schools of East Mahanoy township will open for the term on Tuesday. Many improvements to buildings have been made, notably that at Jacksons where an additional room has been added. Superintendent Noonan yesterday assigned the teachers as follows: the first named being the principal: Cole—Daniel F. Guinan, advanced school, Mary S. Corcoran, assistant. Morea—Margaret Thomas, John O. Adamson, John J. Kelly; New Boston—Laura A. Swartz, Bella Friel; Valley—Mary Boyce; Buck Mountain—William F. Brennan, Maud Tansy; Park Place—Mary E. Whalen, Mary J. Terrill; Robinsons—Margaret Coughlin; Estlin; Broughall; Shoemakers—Mary L. Downey; Glendon—Julia A. Dolphin; Hills—Lizzie Hardman; Jacksons—Rose Dowling, John Downey, Kate Dowling, Kate Jennings; Fowlers—Lizzie C. Neary, Minnie Knapp; Landmans—Agnes Stein, Theresa Conkley; Fishers—Mary C. Talman; Sudick—Norman Germain, Thomas Whitaker; St. Nicholas—Mary Corbin, William Winter; Wiggins—Michael A. Ryan, Lizzie Donahue.

Obituary.

Major E. C. Hamilton, one of Shenandoah's most popular and widely known men, died on Thursday from a complication of diseases. Mrs. Michael Manning, of Beaverdale, died Thursday night and the funeral will take place on Monday. Mrs. Manning was born in Port Carbon in the year 1824. She had lived in Beaverdale for 20 years. Her first husband was Dennis Slattery, of whom she had two children, James Slattery, of Shenandoah, and Mrs. Leonard, Mahanoy City. Six children survive Mrs. Manning from her union with Michael Manning.

William Fausset Dead.

CHEKAITIS HEARD FROM AGAIN.

This Time He is Heard From at Mt. Carmel.

The Mt. Carmel newspapers yesterday devoted considerable space to a story told by one Joe Chekaitis, who represented himself as a business man of this town. Chekaitis says he fell asleep in a saloon at Mt. Carmel and when he awoke his gold watch was missing. He had over $100 in his pockets, but it was not disturbed.

People here do not take much stock in the story. Chekaitis is looked upon as a man who seeks notoriety. He is not a business man of town, but is employed by Bradley, the East Centre street butcher. He is the man who some time ago claimed that, when driving home from Lost Creek after making his collections, he shot one of a crowd of men who tried to hold him up. The man alleged to have been shot could never be found and no one residing down the valley could recall a occurrence of the kind Chekaitis recited. Chekaitis is also the man who wanted to marry Miss Sockalosky and it was charged that it was on his account that the father caused the scene when the girl was getting married in the Lithuanian church. He also figured in a case with a married woman residing down the valley. In that case he paid the costs.

MAHANAY CITY MELANGE.

A Wagon Wheel Passes Over a Boy's Neck Without Fatal Injury.

MAHANAY CITY, Sept. 5.—Frank Oswald, 18-year-old son of Henry Oswald, of West Mahanoy avenue, was thrown from one of Kaiser's brewery wagons this morning and a wheel of the wagon passed over his neck, but he escaped fatal injury. His neck was badly bruised and he received two large cuts on the back of the head.

An inquest was held last night on the remains of John Davidson, of St. Nicholas, who was killed by a Schuykill Traction car Thursday night. The jury exonerated Motorman Fred H. Hopkins and Conductor Filer from blame and rendered a verdict of accidental death.

About eighty wheelmen paraded in town last night to advertise the races at Lakeside today. Portz Bros., of Shenandoah, were in line on a tandem and many Shenandoah people witnessed the parade, among them Mrs. Eleanor and Miss Meriam Hart, Frank Hart, Mrs. W. J. Morgan and Miss Idaho P. Kolb.

PITHY POINTS.

Happenings Throughout the Region Chronicled for Hasty Perusal.

Apple trees are in bloom at Mt. Carmel. Homesdale has a social club called after Li Hung Chang.

Michael Elliott, a prominent resident of Ashland, died at his home yesterday. Rev. Joseph Hunter has refused to accept the pastorate of the Presbyterian church, at Tannock, which was offered.

The fifth annual convention of the Central Penn. Conference Epworth League will be held in Sunbury, Pa., Oct. 7, 8, and 9th.

Orders were issued to all leading collieries yesterday morning to suspend shipments last evening, and to resume work again on Monday morning.

District Attorney Edgar W. Bechtel is again confined to his bed. His leg has swollen to enormous proportions and he has an abscess upon his hip. This is due to the driving accident which befell him several weeks ago.

Thomas Mullahey, who is engaged in business at Shenandoah, will remove his family, which has made our town their home for several years, Monday next. As a consequence we will miss Mr. Mullahey's smiling countenance, to which we have been weekly treated.—Mt. Carmel Star.

The foreign element continues to leave Centralia.

Miners' Hospital Patients.

Three more patients were admitted to the Miners' hospital at Fountain Springs yesterday, and the following were treated at the dispensary department: Patrick Gaughlin, 23, Wm. Penn, laborer Wm. Penn colliery, abscess left arm and neck, due to an old injury; Elijah Filer, 23, Mahanoy City, laborer, club foot due to an injury received several years ago; James Collier, 35, Big Mine Run, miner, Hammond colliery, paralysis right arm, result of a blow received some time ago; Donaldick Giesler, 56, Backs town, laborer, Spring colliery, severe sprains muscles of the shoulders; Jacob Brecker, 44, Girardville, laborer Hammond colliery, laceration ring finger left hand, caused by coal; George Wonn, 44, Gilberton, miner at Draper, indolent ulcer left thumb. Wonn allowed a piece of coal to remain imbedded in his thumb until it warned him to give it proper treatment.

Cases Settled.

Last June William Griffiths, then a resident of North Jardin street, had some litigation in which he was charged with ill treating his wife. Griffiths was sued for assault and battery upon his wife by his brother-in-law, William Harris, and he retaliated by making a similar charge against Harris. The cases were settled this week by Edmund Harris, Griffiths' father-in-law, paying the costs in both to Justice Lawlor. Mr. Griffiths wishes the settlement to be given the same publicity that the cases were originally given.

A Big Fire.

The east end of the town of Quakake Junction, was threatened with devastation as noon yesterday, caused by a strip of woodland having become ignited by a spark from a passing locomotive. The wind fanned the flames and they soon spread to all parts of the thicket, which bordered several buildings. Every kind of labor was interrupted by the blaze, and no one turned away until all possibilities of a conflagration were defeated.

Locust Gap is Growing.

Locust Gap has grown wonderfully during this summer. A large number of fine houses were erected, and if permission could be had from the P. & R. C. & I. Co. a larger number could be erected before the winter sets in.

Our Corps Entertained.

The Patriotic Drum Corps, of town, to the number of eighteen, were the guests of the Fourth Regiment Corps, at Pottsville, last evening. The banquet was given in the latter's cosy quarters, and the reception tendered the boys from town was one of which they speak very highly. Dancing was indulged in and refreshments and cigars served in abundance. On the third floor of the building the banquet table, filled with everything tempting to the inner man, was spread at which the guests enjoyed themselves until midnight.

Held for Assault.

Martin Fahney, the sprinter, was arrested on a charge of assault and battery proffered by John Karaitis. He waived a hearing and entered $200 bail for trial. The men had a dispute over bull dogs and Fahney, it is alleged, struck Karaitis in the mouth.

Cars Delayed.

Last evening a Lakeside car was delayed 15 minutes by jumping the track at Bowers street. To-day another car was delayed 10 minutes by a wagon standing on the track on which a number of men were loading a safe at William Snyder's, on East Centre street.
