THE CONSPIRATORS FOILED.

Superintendent Bogart Secures His Release at Pittsburg.

WILL RETURN TO TOWN TO-MORROW

The indignation here over the railroading outrage still runs high and leading reputable citizens will publicly welcome the Superintendent upon his return.

Special to EVENING HERALD.
PITTSBURG, Sept. 8, 3 p. m.—All right. I will return to Shenandoah to-morrow. I will visit Knoxville this afternoon.

Special to "EVENING HERALD" by Telephone.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 8, 4 p. m.—Prof. C. D. Bogart, Superintendent of Public Schools of Shenandoah, was brought here by Detective John J. Toole, of Shenandoah, on "information received," with assault with intent to rape upon Clara Vates, a girl of Knoxville, Penna., whose Professor Bogart was formerly superintendent of schools. Upon being taken before Alderman McMaster, Prof. Bogart waived a hearing. Bail was fixed in the sum of $2,500 and promptly furnished. Prof. Bogart said he would not waste time before the Alderman and would be ready to meet his accusers at any time in court.

The sentiment in Knoxville is strongly in favor of Prof. Bogart. The people here can clearly see that there is a conspiracy against him. James Smith, of Shenandoah, is looked upon as the instigator of the trouble. He was here yesterday at noon and seen in company with the father of Clara Vates. It is believed that Smith has undertaken to push the case as prosecutor upon information received and will induce the father of the girl to appear in court. There is no doubt that strong pressure is being brought to bear upon the father of the girl to take a hand in the case. Prof. Bogart has come out of the matter all right thus far and there can be no doubt that he will completely defeat his enemies in court.

Special to EVENING HERALD.
PITTSBURG, Sept. 8, 4 p. m.—Price and I are at Seventh Avenue Hotel. We go up on the hill (Knoxville) this afternoon.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 8, 3:45 p. m.—All O. K. Will leave Pittsburg on the late train to-night for Shenandoah.

J. J. PRICE.

The indignation over the dastardly treatment Superintendent of Schools Bogart received yesterday is undiminished and the best citizens of the town are still engaged in condemning the affair in the severest terms. In all quarters can be heard evidence of the strongest kind against the instigators and perpetrators of one of the most glaring acts against personal liberty ever recorded in this county and the effect of the outrage is not likely to wear off very soon.

At all the street corners, hotel lobbies and almost every other public place crowds gathered last night and to-day to discuss the matter and Detective Toole and others engaged in the outrage were condemned in unqualified terms for their action in the matter. In these discussions the question as to whether Superintendent Bogart could enter bail here was freely discussed and at times this brought out quotations of law which left no doubt that the prosecuted man's rights of liberty as a citizen have been shamefully abused. In the first place the charge against the Superintendent is that of assault with intent to rape, and that is classified, by the law as a misdemeanor. Bin's Justice, page 417, Section 1, says, "All prisoners shall be bailed to by sufficient sureties, unless for capital offences."

In addition to this the same work (page 218) says, "To refuse or delay to bail any person bailable is an offense against the liberty of the subject, in any magistrate, by the common law." On page 381 of the same work is found this law: "And in case the offense for which such offender shall be so apprehended, shall be bailable in law by an alderman or justice of the peace, and such offender shall be willing and ready to give bail for his appearance at the next court of general jail delivery or quarter sessions, to be held in and for the city and county where the offense was committed, such alderman, justice or justices SHALL and may take such bail for his appearance, in the same manner as the alderman or justice of the peace of the proper city or county might have done; * * * and such recognizance and other proceeding shall be as good and effectual in law as if the same had been entered into, taken or acknowledged in the proper county where the offense was committed."

One of the best lawyers in the state was consulted since the arrest was made and he has stated positively, after inspecting the warrant, that it is illegal and that Justice Lawlor, who backed the warrant, is also open to prosecution by Superintendent Bogart.

Rumors of all kinds have been about since yesterday to the effect that "Jack" Toole has been arrested, but they are based upon supposition. That Superintendent Bogart will have his day in court there is no doubt, but his friends say that before he moves he will prepare his cases so thoroughly that when arrests are made they will not be so prone to laugh as they were yesterday.

Many citizens who stand high in the community have come to the front with liberal financial pledges in order that Superintendent Bogart may not lack funds to either defend himself or prosecute cases in court to obtain justice and stamp out what they term one of the most vicious conspiracies ever perpetrated on any citizen of this county.

A MERCANTILE CHANGE.

The Business of Max Schmidt Sold to His Brother.

An important change in the mercantile circles of town took place to-day by the sale of the business of Mr. Max Schmidt to his brother, Mr. W. Frank Schmidt. The latter took charge this morning and has taken steps to make changes that will put the house foremost in the department line of trade. Mr. Max Schmidt conducted a dry goods department, but his successor will close out that part and conduct the establishment purely on the general department line, much the same as the leading department stores of the large cities are conducted. Mr. Frank Schmidt has had many years experience in business in this town and will undoubtedly make his new venture a success, as he is energetic, enterprising and progressive and none know better what the people of the place want than he does. Much of his attention will be devoted to novelties and in this respect he expects to eclipse anything ever offered in this county. His store is excellently adapted for the business.

Mr. Max Schmidt retires from business here to look after his interests in the Eagle Brewery, at Shamokin, in which he became interested several months ago, but he still retains his property here. He will move to Shamokin about the first of October. In leaving town Mr. Schmidt takes with him an enviable record. During the many years of his business career in town he has always ranked among the foremost and socially he has always been esteemed, so that Shamokin will have added to her residents one to whom she may extend a cordial hand.

Result of a Fight.

A grudge of long standing which has existed between John Rock and Lincoln Richardson, both of North Market street, came to a close last night. Richardson, who was under the influence of liquor, hit a boy named Ellis, with whom Rock is boarding. Rock became enraged at this and struck Richardson in the face with his fist, who ran into the street and picked up a piece of glass to protect himself. His opponent again attacked him, and after the conflict was over, Richardson was suffering from two bad cuts, one under the lower lip about an inch and a half in length, and the other under the chin about the same length. Richardson does not know whether he was stabbed or not, but several of the neighbors, who witnessed the affray, say that the wounds were inflicted by a shoemaker's knife. The victim's face is terribly swollen. He is under the treatment of Dr. G. M. Hamilton. Rock has disappeared.

Baker's Cafe.

Nicholas Huber, who conducts a furniture and undertaking business adjoining the theatre building, was arrested this morning. Workmen are engaged in putting on the roof of the theatre building, and Huber appeared on the top of his own building adjoining and threatened the workmen. He remained there for two hours. Mr. Huber claims that the water from Hersker's building will injure his own. He was arrested and brought before Squire Brennan, and entered bail for his appearance at court.

WATSON AND SEWALL TALK.

The Populist Candidate Addresses a Mass Meeting in Texas.

SAYS SEWALL SHOULD WITHDRAW.

He Declares That if Bryan is Elected It Will be by the Votes of Populists—Declares That Sewall "Can't Carry His Own Family."

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 8.—Thomas E. Watson, of Georgia, vice presidential nominee of the Populist party, addressed a Labor Day audience of 5,000 people at the fair grounds yesterday. He arrived Sunday night direct from Georgia, accompanied by National Committeeman Reed, who is managing his tour. Watson speaks at Benham, Tex., today, and goes from there to Kansas.

Watson pledged to the people to stand by the contract between laborers and farmers in St. Louis in 1890 and the People's party, who represent that contract.

"McKinley and Hobart represent the enemies of labor and Sewall represents the same thing," he said. "Sewall is just the opposite of Bryan in everything."

At the state convention of Texas Populists it was currently reported that a deal was made whereby the state offices should be delivered to Populists and the state carried for McKinley. Without making direct reference to this Watson assailed it by saying: "Have no McKinley; his election will add to the burden now resting on labor."

"You feel insulted because Bryan did not accept your nomination. Bryan is in a peculiar position, and he acts as he thinks necessary to do. The Populist nomination committee has not done its duty, but I have the word of Senator Butler that it will before Sept. 15, and I will pledge you my word that Bryan will speak out, and he will accept. Bryan can't throw away 1,800,000 votes. He will accept me as a running mate. If he does not the ticket will never be elected. Sewall brings the party no votes; he drives them away."

"Mr. Sewall represents that element in the Democratic party which is exerting itself to the utmost to tie Bryan's hands so that he cannot carry out his contract. It cannot be done with Bryan and Sewall, because you can't have Bryan and Sewall. Mr. Sewall cannot carry his own family. Whenever my own son takes the stump and begins to make speeches against me, like Mr. Sewall's son is doing against him, I will get off the ticket and crawl under the bed and hide myself. He cannot carry the town in which he lives. He cannot carry the state in which he lives. He is a wart on the party. He is a knot on the log. He is a dead weight to the ticket."

"Every man ought to know that if Mr. Bryan is to be elected he will be elected by the votes which the People's party give him. If he carries Nebraska, where he lives, it will be the Tam Watson Populists who carry it for him. If he carries Iowa it will be the Populists who carry it for him. If he carries the great state of Texas it will be the Populists who give it to him. And I put it to you, Democrats, if you want our votes, don't you think you ought to 'be fair' with us? You say: 'Let's go into copartnership,' but you want to be both partners."

"Why, even in that kind of a copartnership they should remember that there is a rule of law which says that man and wife are one, but it takes two to make the bargain, and yet you Democrats, who cannot get along without our 1,800,000 votes, say that our partnership ought to consist of the same two partners, and you want to be both. Well, we want to fuse with you. We don't want to swallow you, and we don't intend that you shall swallow us. You ask us to take Watson off the ticket. Why? Would you be so blind as to defend Mr. Bryan by taking Watson off his ticket? 'If I should get off the ticket instead of Sewall, I would kill the People's party and I would stamp myself as a coward and a traitor. I won't get off. My party has put me on guard, and you may run over me, but you will have to fight first.'

"Mr. Bryan said in New York in a public speech that a candidate running upon a platform should not only indorse every plank in that platform, but should indorse every sentence and every word of it. Apply that rule to Mr. Sewall and Mr. Sewall would get off while I stepped on. Mr. Bryan must have meant that. Let him deny it if he did not. That construction has been put on it by Democrats. It is the only construction that can be put on it. Mr. Sewall does not stand squarely on the platform. Let Sewall seek and Watson arrive."

Another Suit Against Magowan.

THREXTON, Sept. 8.—Another chapter in the Magowan-Barnes case has been opened. In addition to the several suits pending J. Albert Barnes, husband of Mrs. Barnes, whose name has been associated with that of the former mayor, has begun an action for $20,000 damages on a charge of false arrest a year ago, when the two men were engaged in a series of police court actions. The suit against the former mayor for $100,000 damages on a charge of alienating the affections of Mrs. Barnes will be ready for trial at the October term. Mrs. Barnes is in Indianapolis.

Withdraw from the Democratic Ticket.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 8.—James Denton Hancock, of Franklin, a Democratic elector-at-large, and John M. Braden, nominee for congress-at-large, filed in the state department yesterday their withdrawal from the ticket. The vacancies will be filled at the state convention on Thursday. Chairman Garman has asked William M. Stigler and other candidates not in sympathy with the Chicago ticket, and platform to withdraw before the state convention in order that all vacancies may be filled by that body.

The truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. That's our motto; and we add leather, solid leather and nothing but leather. That's the way our shoes are built.

COAL STREET RIOT RECALLED.

The Italians who Participated in it on Trial Again.

The bloody riot which took place on West Coal street last February in which one man was killed and a man and woman were badly injured was recalled yesterday by the opening of a trial at the Pottsville court before Judge Bechtel. The case is one in which five Italians who participated in the riot are charged with assault and battery with intent to kill. They are Mike Minella, Pietro Mico, Pietro Magone, Frank Minella and Joseph Magnella. At the June term of court three of them were tried on a charge of murder, but were acquitted. The accused are represented by M. M. Burke, Esq., of town, and H. O. Bechtel, Esq., of Pottsville. They represented the accused on the murder trial. Among the witnesses examined for the Commonwealth yesterday were Detective Richard Amour, Chief of Police Toth, Policeman Thomas Lee and George Rupert. The testimony was similar in character to that adduced at the coroner's inquest and the murder trial, and which was fully reported in the HERALD columns. The Commonwealth claims that the Italians provoked the fight that resulted in the riot, while the accused claim that the deceased was the instigator and the other victims aided him.
