Postmaster Connelly Dead.
 Edward Connelly, the well-known young business man and postmaster, of Broadhead, died Monday night, at his home. Mr. Connelly had been in delicate health for several years, his malady being a peculiar form of stomach trouble. This summer in search of health he went to Long Branch. The change did not benefit him and he was brought back home last Wednesday. He immediately took to his bed and never got out of it, sinking rapidly until the end came. He was 35 years old and unmarried. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning, interment at Minersville.

The whole system is drained and undermined by indolent ulcers and open sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve speedily heals them. It is the best pile cure known. C. H. Hagenbuch.

AN OFFICIAL VISIT.
 Local Knights of Pythias Greet Their Grand Chancellor Commander.

Last evening was an eventful one for General Harrison Lodge No. 251, Knights of Pythias, of town, the proceedings of the regular meeting being augmented in importance and pleasure by an official visit from Dr. H. H. Dummell, of Stanton, Grand Chancellor of the Pythians of Pennsylvania. The visit was not unexpected and the lodge received the visit with all the honors due his station. The Grand Chancellor spent about two hours in addressing the lodge on the history, progress and future of their organization and outlined his policy for the ensuing year. The Order now has 7,000 lodges and a membership of almost 200,000 in the United States and last year made a gain in membership of 20,000. Before the session closed the Grand Chancellor conferred the grand lodge honors upon several past officers. After the meeting Dr. Dummell became the guest of the Dramatic Order of Knights Kottusan, K. of P., and participated in the banquet of the Order at the Ferguson House. Mr. Elmer E. Opp took charge of the honored guest and extended to him royal hospitality. Seats were taken in the dining room of the hotel shortly after eleven o'clock and Miss Host Hutchinson treated the Pythians to a most excellent supper accompanied by excellent service. Both were very highly praised and Mr. Hutchinson was highly complimented. The menu embraced oysters in two styles, soup, chicken, all the vegetables of the season, fruits, ice cream and less, assorted cakes, coffee and other beverages. After the banquet there was a short social session in the hotel parlor. Among those who participated in the reception and banquet were Messrs. Al. Nimmoek, Lost Creek, Chancellor Commander of the local Pythian lodge; H. C. Wood, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Frank Keck, Allentown; A. J. Ross, Birmingham, Alabama; Elmer Opp, Philip H. Jones, Wm. Penn; John W. Weeks, Zeb. Robbins, W. J. Watkins, Daniel Knolly, F. E. Magargle, Frank Schmidt, Paul Honek, Daniel S. Owens, R. D. Reese, P. P. D. Kirlin and Thomas Bellis.

Working Church People.
 A long, lean stranger has been circulating through the region on the pretense of collecting for the construction of a costly Evangelical church at Mt. Carmel, and his appearance would impress one that he tells the truth. In some towns he realized a nest egg from the good Christian people, who will no doubt feel like kicking themselves when they learn that they contributed to one of the slickest and most polished swindlers that ever gilded a beer glass. The latter is actually his vocation, and he has prospered so satisfactorily that honesty is an unknown quality in him at the present time.

A Catholic Congress.
 September 22d all the Polish Catholic priests will meet in a four days session, to be held at Buffalo, N. Y., to deliberate on matters pertaining to the welfare of their charges in the United States and attend to such other new business as the sense of the delegates may dictate. The congress will be attended by four hundred priests and lay delegates from all parts of the union, and several American Bishops will also be present to aid in the work.

Revival Services.
 The revival services being held nightly in the M. E. church are attended by large audiences. Excellent congregational singing. Rev. J. J. Reitz, of the United Evangelical church, preaches this evening. Services open promptly at 7:30; evening services at 7:15. People of different denominations in attendance. Everybody invited.

The Rogers Funeral.
 The funeral of the late Jonathan Rogers, Sr., took place this afternoon. The remains arrived here from Mt. Carmel at noon escorted by the members of the family and a large number of friends. Services were held in the Welsh Baptist church, corner of Oak and West streets, Rev. D. L. Evans officiating. The remains were interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

The Gise Case.
 Walter E. Hall, of the Pense Piano Company, Buffalo, N. Y., and M. J. O'Neill, of town, left town this morning on subpoena served by Detective Amour to appear before the Grand Jury at Pottsville against D. W. Gise, charged by the piano company with embezzlement. Gise is a fugitive.

May Resume To-morrow.
 The broken shaft crank, which caused the illness of Indian Ridge colliery for two days, arrived from Pottsville this morning where it had been sent for repairs. It is being placed in position this afternoon, and it is likely that the colliery will resume work to-morrow morning.

Full and Winter Underwear.
 Full and complete line of ladies', gents', misses' and children's underwear in white and mixed merino, natural wool and scarlets. Also a big line of ladies' and gents' fleece lined underwear ranging from 25 cents to $1.25 a piece.

Schaal Acquitted.
 G. Schaal, the Pottsville butcher who was on trial before Judge Sevier on a charge of having killed and put on sale unwholesome meats, was acquitted by the jury yesterday afternoon. The case was brought by the Pottsville Board of Health and the chief witness was one of Schaal's discharged employees. Immediately after the verdict was received a second case against Schaal was opened. This case was also instituted by the Pottsville Board of Health on oath of the Health Officer and another witness who claim that Schaal maintained a nuisance by having a great mass of decaying meat thrown into a sewer. The case is still on.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
 Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25 cents.

New Bond Issue.
 In our advertising columns to-day will be found the notice showing that the County Commissioners have decided to issue bonds in the sum of $75,000, repayable not sooner than ten years and not later than twenty years at a rate of interest not exceeding four per cent., payable semi-annually and to be free of state tax. The bonds will be issued in $100 and $500 denominations. The purpose of the issue is to carry on the almshouse improvements. Controller Severn will receive bids up to the 28th inst. and they will be sold to the highest bidder.

Many a day's work is lost by sick headache, caused by indigestion and stomach troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the most effective pill for overcoming such difficulties. C. H. Hagenbuch.

Policeman Goodman Exonerated.
 The grand jury at Pottsville yesterday ignored the bill on oath of John Danoski, charging Policeman Henry Goodman with extortion. This was one of the kind of cases that are trumped up against the police to secure revenge against them when they make arrests.

Pay only your own bills. In dealing here the cash customer is not taxed to help support the credit customers who do not pay. Here all are one level. All are cash. 7-18-1f

Paid Their Own Fare.
 The constables of the county were compelled to pay their own fare to Pottsville, in making their returns to court, owing to the new fee bill going into effect. They complain bitterly of the new condition of affairs. Some of them, it is said, were compelled to borrow money to make the trip.

PITTY POINTS.
 Happenings Throughout the Region Chronicled for Hasty Perusal.

Mrs. Thomas Baird, of Girardville, died on Sunday evening, after a lingering illness. Milton Fegley, aged 25 years, was killed on the Reading road near Trouton Monday evening.

Richard Cleary, of Mahanoy City, wants to ride down Mahanoy Plane on a bicycle in one minute and five seconds on a $25 wager. He challenges Howard Burchill to equal the feat.

The Washington Hook and Ladder Company, of Mahanoy City, will hold their postponed picnic at High Point park on Saturday.
