A Suit for Bignany.

Several months ago Joseph Kline, of Mahanoy City, moved to Shamokin and subsequently married Miss Emma Straub, of that place. He deserted a former wife at Mahanoy City, and she brought suit for non-support. When the case came up for trial Mrs. Kline No. 1 refused to appear against him. In view of her consideration Joseph went and lived with his lawful wife, who went to Shamokin last week and wanted number two to compromise her injury, but instead of compromising Miss Straub assure out a warrant for the arrest of Joseph. On Monday a constable arrested Kline at Mahanoy City, and when brought before a Shamokin Justice on Tuesday he pleaded guilty to the charge of adultery and bigamy, and was committed to jail in default of $1,000 bail.

Colliers to be Sold.

Unless the present operators of the Patterson colliery, at Natolie, pay John Mullen & Son, the well known proprietors of the Shamokin foundry and machine shops, a bill of $1200 which they owe them, that colliery will be sold by Sheriff Pagley on Wednesday, September 23rd. The Sheriff has levied upon the property of the company.

CONVENTION CLOSED.

Two Interesting Programs in the Primitive Methodist Church.

The closing sessions of the Primitive Methodist Sunday school convention of the Schuylkill District were held in the Primitive Methodist church, corner of Jardin and Oak streets, yesterday afternoon and last evening and proved very interesting.

The afternoon session was opened by devotional exercises conducted by Rev. W. J. Richards, of St. Clair, after which the secretary's report was read, showing the following statistics: Number of schools, 11; number of scholars, 1847; number of officers and teachers, 234; number of officers and teachers church members, 108; number of officers and teachers church members, 194; number of books in libraries, 1788; value of school properties, $2,075; average amount of collections per Sabbath, $13.35.

The reading of reports was followed by singing by the convention, after which Mr. Frederick Blacker, of St. Clair, read an essay on the relation of the Sunday schools to the question of intemperance. Discussion on the subject was opened by Rev. W. J. Richards, who also gave songs with guitar accompaniment. Miss Savage read an interesting essay on "How the Sabbath School may become more useful," and the discussion on the subject was opened by Rev. H. V. Sharp, of Wadesville. Rev. James Moore, of town, closed the exercises.

The evening session was opened at 7 o'clock and conducted by Rev. T. M. Eaton, D. D., of Girardville. Singing by the congregation, anthem by the choir and an essay on "The relation of the Sunday school to our Missionary Society" by Mr. Albert Miles, of Mt. Carmel, formed the features of the program, and Rev. W. P. Nichols, of Tananqua, closed the session with benediction.

The delegates in attendance at the convention were Miss Emma L. Swoyer and William J. Cooper, Tananqua; Miss Clara Griffith and Mrs. Fannie Doble, Girardville; Mrs. A. E. Miller and Mrs. S. E. Johnson, Mt. Carmel; Mr. J. Cole, Mrs. T. Seymour and Mrs. L. Hilbert, Mahanoy City; Miss Sadie Baugh and Miss M. Parrish, Shenandoah; Mr. Solomon Bittner, Freshand; Rev. H. V. Sharp, Wadesville; Mr. F. W. Blacker, St. Clair.

MEETING OF TEACHERS.

Superintendent Bogart Throws Out Numerous Suggestions to Teachers.

A teachers' business meeting was held in the High school room at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Superintendent Bogart presided and made several suggestions to the teachers. He said catechisms should be substituted for the marches in the schools. Hereafter bi-monthly instead of monthly reports will be sent to parents. Meetings of the different grades will be held next Thursday, at 4:30 p. m., to arrange for work closing the October month. In reference to professional work, the Superintendent told the teachers to ask themselves what they are reading and doing in the line of progress professionally—what have they done to show progress? He called attention to the fact that there are too many cases of lateness on the part of the teachers and the rule requiring that such tardiness be reported to the Superintendent is being violated. He also said that in doing class work many pupils who need assistance are not reached and this means a necessity for more individual work for those who are naturally slow and for whom especially the schools are intended. And in this connection it was also stated that large classes are too cumbersome to handle effectively. The same number of pupils can be handled in the same time by having the class divided and not oblige so many pupils to stand on the floor more or less idle. It was thought best, also, that each grammar grade consist of two years' work. General ideas were advanced on how to conduct classes and class work and the Superintendent stated that in the conduct of recitations and test questions the class tests should be real tests, so that the teachers may know by results to what extent they have succeeded or failed in developing the ideas and principles contained in the lessons.

COYLE IN THE TOILS.

Constable Peters Wins Up a Chase at McAdoo.

On July 3rd a warrant was issued by Justice Green, of Wm. Penn, for the arrest of Michael Coyle, of Lost Creek, on a charge of malicious mischief, but the accused could not be found. Two days later a second warrant was issued charging Coyle with assault with intent to rape on oath of a little Polish girl. Constable Peters a few days ago learned that the fugitive was at Wilkesbarre, but upon going there learned that the man had slipped. He kept up the chase and yesterday arrested Coyle in a saloon at McAdoo. The accused furnished $500 bail before Justice Dalby, at McAdoo, for trial at the Pottsville court.

Our regular fall display will be an event unusual in this locality—more stylish goods at lower prices than ever offered before; we state only plain facts when we say we offer more for your money than any house in the county.

Dress Goods First.

Visit our dress goods counters. There's lots of bargains in this department; we devote seventy-five feet of shelf and counter space to our rich lines of silks and dress stuffs. If our prices and styles were not right we couldn't do the dress goods trade of the county.

PERSONAL.

Messrs. James Sinsley, of Nuremberg, and George Sinsley, of Wilkesbarre, were greeting friends here to-day.

Mrs. Goodhead returned home last evening from a pleasant sojourn among New York City acquaintances.

Harry Powell, of West Cherry street, is visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

James E. Doogan, of Ashland, discussed politics with J. B. Monaghan last evening.

Hon. Elias Davis, Republican candidate for Treasurer, was in town yesterday. The warm reception he received bodes no good to his Democratic opponent.

John H. Martin, the efficient and obliging local agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, is spending a two-weeks' vacation at his former home, in Sunbury.

M. J. Malone, the bustling agent for the Columbia Brewing Company, transacted business at the county seat yesterday.

Mrs. Martin Lambert, of Wilkesbarre, who was the guest of town acquaintances for several weeks, returned to her home to-day.

Miss Mattie Jones spent to-day at Pottsville.

Mrs. Tony Ross, of Trenton, N. J., returned to her home to-day, after a pleasant visit here among friends.

Miss Lizbie Brennan, of Mearsville, is visiting the Stanton family, on North Chestnut street.

Mrs. Charles New and Miss Maudie Schooner left this morning for Livonia, N. Y., where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Boxby, formerly of town.

Rev. Alfred Heebner, accompanied by Rev. E. E. Johnson, of Bird-in-Hand, Pa., were Mahanoy City visitors to-day.

THE COAL TRADE.

The anthracite coal trade, says the Philadelphia Ledger, while not active and doing little new business at the September circular prices, is moving a fair volume of tonnage at the old quotations, an orders booked previously to the last advance. The markets continue to absorb nearly all of the newly mined coal, and there is reported a scarcity of egg and stove sizes of the most desirable brands, but the small steam sizes are dull and accumulating; these will find a ready market later in the season. The collieries throughout all of the anthracite fields continue working on short time and only three or four days per week. The Reading Coal and Iron Company is reported to have ordered some of its collieries to run nine hours per day instead of eight hours, to keep pace with the increasing demand for its coals. The local retail trade is quiet and the buying is only from "hand-to-mouth." A number of institutions which have delayed ordering their winter supplies of fuel are now receiving bids.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Making Their Wants Known.

Kaiser's Judicious Advertising.

Kaiser's opera house was opened with one of the popular successes of the season well presented to a crowded house. Ferguson's theatre opened last night with "Clopatras" presented to a very small house, because people didn't know about it. Moral—it pays to advertise in the paper people read.
