Foot Ball.
The chances are that Ashland will be creditably represented in the foot ball arena this fall. In accordance with the call for a meeting a number of those interested in the game met, and the outcome was a resolve to get the team together, and get down to hard practice at once.

It doesn't matter much whether sick headache, indigestion and constipation are caused by neglect or by unavoidable circumstances, DeWitt's Little Early Risers will speedily cure them all. C. H. Hagenbuch.

Kimmed Will Shoot.
Harry Kimmed, of Centralia, will shoot a pigeon match with Weeks, of Park Place, for a purse of from $50 to any amount that Weeks wants to put up, and that he is willing to shoot off the match at the next highest point in the state, on Locust mountain, near Centralia.

Many a day's work is lost by sick headache, caused by indigestion and stomach troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the most effective pills for overcoming such difficulties. C. H. Hagenbuch.

A MINER CLOSED IN.
Was Rescued by Miners Who Drove Through a Pillar of Coal.
Patrick Buckley, a resident of Mahanoy City, had a very unpleasant experience yesterday afternoon in the Boston Run colliery, where he is employed as a starter. Some coal had become wedged in a breast and Buckley blasted a rock that caused the trouble. This brought down a fall that filled up the space below Buckley and also blocked the mainway, leaving him closed in. The leader boss gave an alarm and several miners went to the rescue. They worked until nine o'clock last night, when they succeeded in getting Buckley out unharmed, but badly scared. To accomplish the rescue the miners were obliged to drive through a pillar of coal eleven feet thick. Buckley was imprisoned about six hours.

BOROUGH COUNCIL MEETING.
Lengthy and Interesting Discussion Over First Ward Sewerage.

A regular meeting of the Borough Council was held last evening with just a sufficient number of Councilmen in attendance to make a quorum. They were Messrs. D. R. James, Engineer, Hans, Boehm, Coakley, McGuire, Reese and President T. J. James.

Immediately after the meeting was opened Messrs. Michael Graham, J. B. Monaghan, James McHugh and Michael Pribula appeared and presented the following petition, with the name of Health Officer Coary at the head of the list of signers:

"The undersigned taxpayers and property owners represent that the public sewer which crosses at the south end of Emeric street is a dangerous nuisance and a menace to the health of those residing in the neighborhood of the point where it crosses. We therefore respectfully urge that the attention of the proper officials of the borough be called at once, otherwise we shall be obliged to seek legal redress."

In speaking on the petition the gentleman brought out the fact that the petition was another edition of the complaints arising from the disturbed water courses on the street of ex-High Constable Anthony Flynn, in the First ward. They said that Flynn threatens to build a stone wall across the water way in such a manner that the sewerage will be diverted from its regular channel to or near the properties of the petitioners. Quite a discussion ensued as to the rights of private and public properties and the extent to which the borough may exercise its powers to abate nuisance and finally Borough Solicitor Pomeroy was called upon and he stated: "The stream is not a sewer, but a public and natural water way running through private properties with which the borough has nothing to do. If anyone creates a nuisance so as to affect the health of the borough we may interfere. If the gentlemen here are complaining that they are injured by reason of what Mr. Flynn has been doing by the erection of a battery, it is the result of Mr. Flynn's act and not an act of the borough. Mr. Flynn, as I understand the facts, wanted us to fix the culvert on his property and we had nothing to do with that. We are not obliged to look after the interests of individual property owners, but to keep the streets in repair and abate such nuisance as may become public. Besides that Mr. Flynn has already brought suit against the borough for trespass and it is still pending. The best way to settle this case would be to have the case tried. Why does Mr. Flynn not push it?"

The matter was finally disposed of by President T. J. James stating that Health Officer Patrick Coary headed the list of signers of the petition and no one had better backing in law to proceed in such cases than that official. He ought to enter prosecution at once if there is a public nuisance and if it arises on Mr. Flynn's lot the Health Officer should prosecute Mr. Flynn.

Chief Burgess Egan said he viewed the place and, seeing that great damage would result to other properties, warned Mr. Flynn not to build the proposed stone wall, but was told to go to the place "Bob" Ingersoll says is not in existence.

Mr. McGuire complained that the crossing at the corner of Emeric and Centre streets is in bad condition and Mr. Boehm said all crossings will be attended to before the hard weather sets in.

D. R. James complained that the last square on South West street is blocked by large stones which ought to be broken.

Mr. Reese stated that a joint meeting of the fire apparatus and finance committees to take action on the fire companies' appropriations had not been arranged, but efforts would be made to bring it about before the next meeting.

D. R. James reported that the lamp and switch committee recommended that the arc light at the west end of Centre street be transferred to the corner of Catherine street and Raspberry alley and high enough to throw light over the houses to the present location of the light. It is impossible to put on any more additional lights, as the plant hasn't sufficient power. On motion of Mr. McGuire the recommendation was adopted.

D. R. James said an arc light at the west end of Oak street should be raised to escape the shadow of trees and President James remarked it would be more effectual to raise the trees. D. R. James also stated that a pole at the corner of Main and Oak streets is in a dangerous condition and should be removed.

Owing to the absence of some samples Mr. Englert moved that the opening of bids for police overcoats be laid over until the next meeting.

Mr. Coakley complained that Martin Mullahy, who was employed as fireman at the pumping station, had not been properly treated; that owing to the death of his child Mr. Mullahy had been obliged to absent himself from duty and when he went back to work yesterday morning he found a man in his place.

Mr. Boehm said a man was put on last week in Mr. Mullahy's absence and as the latter was expected at work last Monday the substitute remained home. Mr. Mullahy did not report when expected and his engineer was obliged to do the firing. The Water Superintendent called for the substitute, who was again put at work by the chairman of the water committee, Mr. Gable.

Mr. McGuire stated that after the funeral of his child Mr. Mullahy was subpoenaed to court as a witness, and that accounted for his absence until yesterday.

As neither the Water Superintendent or chairman of the water committee was in attendance the matter was laid over.

Requests of payment of $950 from the two companies that furnished the fire hose last year were laid over until the next meeting.

The next point discussed was on collections of fines made by the Justices of the Peace, it being claimed that the borough never receives fines from the officials in cases where constables and special officers make arrests. Upon suggestion of Borough Solicitor Pomeroy and motion of Mr. Reese the secretary was instructed to communicate with the Justices of the Peace and request them to make returns of the parties arrested, names of the officers making arrests and the amount of fines collected in each case, together with details generally.

Deferred reports were taken up. That of the Chief of Police for August showed 30 arrests, 24 paying fines and 15 serving time. The fines collected amounted to $360.30. The Chief Burgess report showed $81.50 in collections.

The Water Superintendent's report embraced many details as to leaks and repairs and also recommendations, one of which was that the blow-off valve under the West Coal street bridge be taken out and three lengths of pipe be laid west of the bridge. The recommendations were adopted. Nine new connections were made during the month and the collections were $1,493.43. The total collections to date amount to $7,233.47.

THE WRECKAGE CLEARED.
The Last Vestiges of Yesterday's Disaster Have Disappeared.

MAHANOG CITY, Sept. 18.—Hundreds of people from all surrounding towns made trips here last night to view the wreckage caused by the collision on the Lehigh Valley railroad yesterday afternoon between a passenger train of that line and an engine of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad. They missed seeing the wreckage just as it was immediately after the collision took place, however, as two wrecking crews had succeeded in getting the debris pretty well cleared up shortly after dusk. The crews were from Mahanoy Plane and Delano, the former under the direction of the grandfather of all wreck clearers in this region, Anthony Berdnair, and the latter in charge of George Brill and Edward Glenn. The P. & R. engine was hoisted from its bed of soft mud on to the Lehigh Valley track and at 9:30 was hoisted away and started on its way for the repair shops at Reading.

None of the people who suffered injuries in the collision were hurt dangerously and the excitement that attended the affair has died out. To-day both tracks at the point are clear and there is little in the surroundings to recall the dreadful accident.

James Beaver, the engineer of the P. & R. engine, left a wife and five children at Frackville, the oldest child being 14 years of age. The man was very popular and many can hardly credit the statement that he was so foolishly as to try and dash across the track in front of the Lehigh Valley train. His fireman adheres to the story, however. Beaver was the regular fireman on the engine in which he met his death and served as the engineer for the first time yesterday, the regular engineer having gone to Reading to visit friends. Beaver's hand tightly grasped the lever when the body was found cold in death. The deceased was a member of the P. O. S. of A. and J. O. V. A. M. Deputy Granger Property will hold an inquest, but the time has not been fixed.
