SHERIB-EL-MA, on the Nile, Sept. 19 .-

The Nile expedition under command of the sirilar. Sir Harbert Kitchener, left Barja, the camping place, at daybreak yesterday morning, and after a hard murch of four hours arrived here. Part of the way was over very difficult, rocky ground and the rest was through deep and. With the intense heat added, it was a trying time. After the midday pause here it is in-tended to push on six miles further, which

Yesterday afternoon Nicholas Folmar re-leased from a trap on West Lloyd street four large rats and a crowd of about a hundred people assembled "to see the fun." Several people assembled "to see the fin." Several nervously impatient dogs awaited the open-ing of the trap and a grand rish was made as the first rodent escaped from captivity. A large built dog captured the prize. It was a case of snap and shake, and then all was over with the rats. They were released one at a time and in his engerness between acts the built dog tried to chew the trap, to the great amusement of the spectators.
