INVASION OF CANTON

By Enthusiastic Admirers of Candidate McKinley.

SEVENTY-FIVE LOADED TRAINS

They Came from All Points of Ohio to Take Part in the Pormal Opening of the Campaign-Fully Sixty Thousand Visitors to the City.

CANTON, O., Sept. 19.-The formal open ing of the campaign in Canton yests gives Ohio a new mark in political dem-onstrations. Future comparisons will be made with Sept. 18, 1896, in Canton in the future. That is the concensus of opinior expressed here last night. And the opin-ions come from old timbers in political warfare, from men accustomed to big crowds and familiar with the history of ampalga work

The little city since early morning has been literally jammed with visitors from distant cities and hearby towns. The parade this afternoon was an hour and three minutes in passing a given point and it was a well organized and compact parade, too; the men marching eight and sixteen abreast. But the marchers were only a fraction of the crowd, and when in response to bugle calls, they assembled at points assigned, there was scarcely any appreciable diminution in the crowds which lined the streets along the proposed order of march. Railroad men claimed at noon they had hauled 50,000 people into Canton. Seventy-five train loads came. State Republican Chairman Charles

State Republican Chairman Charles Kurtz estimated the crowds present on the streets in the afternoon parade, at the big tent meeting and about the Mc-Kinley home at 100,000, and far ahead of anything in Ohio's history. Congressman Stephen A. Northway, of Garfield's old district, said the meeting was three times as large as the memorable Western Heserve's Garfield meeting that was addressed by Grant and Conkling. Hon. Sylvester T. Everett, of Claveland, said the memorable Grant-Conkling meeting at Warron could not compare with it.

Special excursions from Cleveland and a dozen other points added to the crowd a dozen other points added to the crowd after the afternoon program had finished. Sixty thousand may be considered a conservative estimate of the people who came by rall outside of Stark county. Of the #5,000 people in the county probably half were at the Canton meeting. The delegation from Union township, Columbiana county, marched to the McKinley home during the day, and in response to their greetings Major McKinley spoke at length on the issues of the day. on the issues of the day

Some of the organizations left on the early evening trains, but many others arrived after the first parade, and to size and general appearance the parade tonight which prefaced the second tent meeting was a reproduction of the one in the after-noon. There was a score or more of bands in the line, and the number of uniformed organizations has never been equaled in the state. Last night the parade was made through streets brightly illuminated with Japanese lanterus, transparencies, colored fires and pyrotechnics.

The enermous tent, large as it is, fell far short of the demands made upon it during the speaking. Many more than were admitted turned back disappointed. Be sides those a crowd, never less than 6,000, and often double that size, surged around the McKinley home from early in the foremon till late at night. Many of the vis-tiors came to call on Major McKiniey with their spokesmen to offer their con-gratulations, and to them he made brief

Major McKinley rode in a carriage with some of the speakers during the first parade. When his home was reached, he parade. When his home was reached, he, wish State Republican Chairman Charles E. Kurta, left the carringes, and with Gov-ernor Hastings, Judge Baldwin, Mrs. Mc-Kinley and Mrs. Heisland, from a temporary stand in the door yard, reviewed the long line of marchers interspersed with music by quartets, gies clubs and bands. The regular program in the afternoon included Governor Bushnell' introductory address and speeches by Sena-tors Cullon and Thurston. In the even-ing Governor Bushnell spoke briefly and Governor Hastings of Pennsylvania and Congressman McCleary of Minnesota
