THE FALL OF DONGOLA.

Complete Success of the British-Egyptian Expedition.

DERVISHES FLEE IN THE NIGHT.

Their Commander, the Young Emir of Dongola, Seriously Wounded in Saturday's Fight by the Bursting of a Shell In His Tent-Dervishes' Brave Defense.

KERMA-ON-THE-NILE, Sept. 21.-Dongola Kerma-on-the-Nile, Sept. 21.—Dongola has fallen, and the nominal objective point of the British-Egyptian expedition has been reached. The river forces of the expedition, pushing up the Nile from El-Hafit, landed a force at Dongola and oc-cupied that place before the dervish forces, retreating from El-Hafir, reached that point. El-Hafir and Dongola are, there-fore, both in the hands of the expedition, while the dervish forces are somewhere.

while the dervish forces are somewhere between, seeking a refuge.

On Saturday afterneon the long range firing continued between the dervishes on the west bank of the Nils and the expeditionary force on this side. The Maxim guns, with their sweeping hall of fire, did great execution in the dervish ranks, while the field and horse batteries never allowed the enemy to do anything with their batteries.

Darkness put an end to the artillery duel across the Nile water, and stillness fell upon both camps. The night was one of waiting, though the silence of the desof waiting, though the silence of the des-ert was once broken by the discharge of the Maxim guns on the other side of the river. Early yesterday morning there was no sign of life in the dervish works, but soon a commotion was perceived among the boats along the bank, and a native in one of them was discovered in the act of waving something, as though for a signal to this side of the styer.

to this side of the river.

The steamer Dal, of the expeditionary The steamer Dal, of the expeditionary force, thereupon proceeded to the west bank of the river, where it was found that El Hafir had been evacuated by the enemy under cover of the night, and that not a dervish fighting man was left in sight. The detachment on the Dal sent back to the camp on this side of the river twenty-seven boats, which had been manned by the native residents of El Hafir and leaded with a great quantity of grain.

seven boats, which had been manned by the native residents of El Hafir and loaded with a great quantity of grain.

The natives announced that the enemy had departed and that Wad Bishara, the young emir of Dongols, who commanded the dervishes, was wounded in Saturday's fight. A shell from an Egyptian battery burst in his tent, inflicting wounds in his breast and head, the former being severe.

After the gunboats of the expedition had forced their way through past the forts at El Hafir and had proceeded southward toward Dongola the dervishes apparently perceived that El Hafir was no longer the place for them, and they prepared to depart. They buried as many of their dead as they had time for. The rest were prepared with a stone around the neck and thrown into the Nile.

Yesterday afternoon the news arrived herp that the steamers and gunboats of the expedition had reached Dongola and had landed a force, which immediately occupied the treasury and the grain store, the principal stronghold of the town. This occupied the trensury and the grain store, the principal stronghold of the town. This news was received, here with delight, as it the supposed that the enemy is now marching between here and Do ngola in a much hampered and thon, by the reason of the number of their wounded and their retreat along the river bank threatened by the steamers, which can destroy at any moment the food supplies stored at Don-gola if they cannot hold that place against the retreating forces of dervishes until land forces of the expedition have advanced to co-operate with them.

Saturday's engagement at El Hafir seems to have altogether dismayed the seems to have altogether dismayed the dervishes, who placed great reliance upon the fort at that place. They believed that that fort would be able to prevent the passage of any of the steamers of the expedition up the Nile. The artillery fire from this side of the river seems to have entirely disconcerted them, their batteries being destroyed as soon as the smoke from them indicated a target for the British and Egyptian gunners.

As soon as the news of the evacuation of El Hafir was received the correspondent of the Associated Press proceeded to cross he river and nu late position. It was found that their de the position. It was found that their de-fenses had been built with great care, but the rifle trenches only permitted the men a very short and straight front for protec-tion. Mats were still strewn along and within the trenches and in the straw shelters were the remains of the carcasses of sheep which had been killed to supply food to the defenders. The dead had been buried or thrown into the river.

Further south on the river bank was found their biggest battery. This work contained five embrasures for guns, three in front and two at the side. This battery had been terribly knocked about by the artillery fire from the east bank and from

Still further south was a big entrenchment facing towards the north and onto the Nile. There was noticed the same system of piercing the wall in such a way as to allow firing only in one direction. In this entrenchment it was apparent that the riflemen had made a plucky resistance, staying in the trenches all day and cating where they lay. The native residents of El Hadir have

The native residents of its lastic have welcomed the appearance of the English and Egyptian expedition, and seem to regard their advance as assurance of deliverance from the rule of the khalifa and the Baggaras, the khalifa's native tribe, who have exercised a gruel dominion over the Nila attest. the Nile tribes.

Wail Bishara, the dervish commander, was wounded at about noon, and was im-mediately carried out of range of the fire, repeatedly exclaiming to those who sur-rounded him: "Allah is against me!"

Wad Bishara decided to evacuate his po-sition during the night. He was able to sition during the night. He was able to remove his guna, but he was forced to leave behind a great quantity of ammuni-tion for both the artillery and the ritles. The dervish steamer which was sunk by the expedition's horse battery was said to have also been loaded with ammunition and gune.

and guns. The losses of the expedition up to Saturday evening were only five wounded, despite the enemy's hot fire. The field horse battery and the men who handled the Maxim guns had an especially warm

It is the general impression here that the dervishes will not make any further stand. It is evident that Wad Bishara had brought up all his effective force from Dongola, intending to make a stand at El Hafir. Even if he is able to recover Dongola from the river force of the expedition, which has occupied it, it is not considered possible that he could make a stand there against the advance of the combined land and river forces. It is the general impression here that

A TRUNK FULL OF DYNAMITE.

It Was Left in Chicago Three Years Ago by an Anarchist Named Bestman, and There Is Enough of It to Destroy an Acre of Property.

Cincaco, Sept. 21.—Joseph Bestman, said by the police to be an unarchist, left at No. 18 Sedgwick court three years ago this full a trunk containing sufficient dynamite to have destroyed an acre of property in Chicago and to have taken the lives of hundreds of citizens. The discovery was made by accident. Bestman was not found, but the police received information that he is living in Dallas, Tex. and wired the chief of police there to are and wired the chief of police there to ar rest him at once.

The discovery of this enormous quantity of explosive matter and the story of Best-man himself, so far as now known to the man himself, so far as now known to the pellee, brings to light a tale of anarchistle plotting such as Chieago has not had re-vealed since the dark days of 1885, when the existence of the city was threatened and spies and his comrades swung on the gallows for the bomb thrown at the Hay-market massacre. Much correspondence with the condemned anarchists was also Whitman Granted a New Trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The suprema court has ordered a new trial for Alonzo J. Whitman, who was convicted of for garyand sentenced to nine years' imprison-ment. Whitman was formerly very wealthy. He was elected mayor of Daluth Minn., and also served a term as state sen-ator in the Minnesota legislature. Whit-man met with business reverses and came man met with business reverses and came west to San Francisco about two years ago. He cashed at the Bank of California a check drawn by Arthur Bixon for $500. The bank people later declared that the check was a forgery, and that a Bixon was a night. Whitman was arrested in New York and was brought here for trial. Whitman says he will now be able to prove his improving and allows that there prove his innocence, and alleges that there has been a conspiracy to send him to prison on a trumped up charge.

The Sultan Answers the Powers.

Constantinorth, Sept. 21.—The sultan has issued a long reply to the collective note of the powers in the matter of the massacres at Constantinople. He declares that these massacres were provoked by Armenian revolutionists. He denies finite that these massacres were provoked by Armenian revolutionists. that the rioters were known to and directed by government agents, and asserts that the Armenians assumed Mussulman costumes in order to perpetrate their crimes. The fury of the Mussulmans, he asserts, was directly due to threats on the part of the Arhenhaus. Concerning the attitude of the police and soldiers who were asserted to have aided the riotre the sultan announces that an inquiry will be made, and that if guilty these officials will se punished

Big Factories Destroyed by Fire.

Oswetto, N. Y., Sept. 21.—The factories of the Oswego Silver Metal and the Seliger-tonthill Novelty companies were totally destroyed by fire early yesterday meening. The Columbian hetel and two adjoining dwellings were also consumed. A florce wind was blowing when the flames were discovered, and the fire department was unable to cope with the fire. The loss on the factories, including stocks, is fully $100,000, and on the adjoining property $50,-000. The factories employed 250 persons, including many skilled mechanics. Last Monday a hundred employes of the nov-olty works struck against a reduction in wages of 15 per cent., and the trouble was still unsettled.
