A BRILLIANT WEDDING!

Wealth and Splendor at the Wasley Mansion To-day.

MISS MARY H. WASLEY A BRIDE

Wedded This Afternoon to Mr. Enos Ball, of Mahanoy City—The Arrangements For the Ceremony and Reception Were on a Gorgeous Scale.

The Wasley mansion, on South White street, was the scene of a brilliant wedding at one o'clock this afternoon. The contracting parties were Miss Mary H. Wasley, daughter of Sarah and the late Jonathan Wasley, and Mr. Enos Ball, of Mahanoy City. Rev. J. B. Boyle, D. D., of Trouton, N. J., an intimate friend of the family for many years, officiated at the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Alfred Heebner, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. The bride was dressed in ivory white satin with pearl trimming and muslin de soie, en train. She also wore a veil with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Emma Wasley, sister of the bride, and Miss Rose Steelman, of Clayton, N. J. Miss Wasley was attired in white tulle with organdy overdress and tulle ribbons. Miss Steelman's dress was of pink silk. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of La France roses. Mr. Elmer Ball, of Mahanoy City, a brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. E. J. Wasley. The ushers were Messrs. George H. Krick, Harry Wasley, George H. Ketter and Zeph Robbins. Mrs. W. N. Ehrhart played the Lohengrin wedding march as the bridal couple entered the parlor, which was elaborately decorated with amylas, ferns and palms. The decorations were very artistic and the parlor presented a beautiful appearance. The main hall of the mansion was given up to the Schoppe orchestra of ten pieces, which rendered selections from 1 to 4. The program was a special one and the renditions were of a superior order. The ceremony was followed by a sumptuous dinner served by Schoppe, the Reading caterer.

The bride and bridegroom left town this afternoon on the 4:10 Pennsylvania R. R. train for a tour which will embrace visits to Philadelphia, New York, Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands and Watkins Glen. Upon their return they will occupy a handsome home at Mahanoy City which the bridegroom recently purchased and furnished elaborately. The bride was one of the most prominent and highly esteemed young ladies of the town and for several years was a teacher in the public schools. She was teacher and supervisor of vocal music in the schools up to the close of the last term. The bridegroom is a prominent and highly respected resident of Mahanoy City. He has been very successful in business circles and is credited with having accumulated a comfortable fortune. He is the Health Officer of Mahanoy City. When in front of Baird's stable, Williams' wheel struck an obstacle in the road and he was thrown to the ground. Morris Hughes, driver for the Rescue Hook & Ladder Company, picked the young cyclist up and carried him into Hughes' house, where consciousness was restored and the injuries temporarily dressed. GIGANTIC AUCTION SALE!

The Reading Railroad Property Sold Under the Hammer.

FOR TWENTY AND A HALF MILLIONS

Bought by the Banking House of J. P. Morgan & Co., For the Reading Re-organization Committee—A Protest Filed on Behalf of Hetty Green.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—The most extensive auction sale that ever took place in this country was held yesterday in the train shed of the old Philadelphia and Reading Railroad company at Thirteenth and Callowhill streets. There passed under the hammer property of the estimated value of $25,000,000, owned or held by the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad and the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company.

The entire property of the two corporations was bid in by Charles H. Coster, of the New York banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., representing the reorganization committee, into whose hands the property will pass upon confirmation of the sale by court. The total bid was $20,500,000, of which $16,000,000 was offered for all real estate and securities under the foreclosure proceedings, and $4,500,000 for all other securities not subject to the lien of the general mortgage.

Under the orders of the federal court two sales were necessary, one at 10 o'clock and the other at noon. The orderly sale was of all assets of every nature and description in the hands of the receivers and not subject to the lien of the general mortgage. These assets consisted entirely of stocks and bonds.

The latter sale was of all property, consisting of real estate wherever held by the two companies, bonds, stocks and all other assets subject to the general mortgage of $44,500,000, on which there is due about $6,000,000 interest. Default in the payment of this interest caused the foreclosure and brought about the sale. Every asset of the two corporations was thus put under the hammer at the two sales.

A protest was entered by Robert U. Luce, a New York lawyer, on behalf of Mrs. Hetty Green, one of the stockholders, on the ground that the sale was illegal. Notice of a legal contest was given.

Sherman Answers His Critics.
CINCINNATI, Sept. 24.—A local paper publishes a signed article from Senator John Sherman, dated at Mansfield, in which he replies to Mr. Bryan and others who refer to the "crime of '73." Senator Sherman says that many pages of the Congressional Record show indisputable proofs that the clause in the act of 1873 stopping the coinage of the silver dollar was not surreptitiously and clandestinely passed through congress. The senator reviews the history of that legislation, showing that there was an unusually long agitation, not only in both branches of congress, but also in the committees of both houses and in the treasury department before the bill was prepared.

Dervishes in Full Retreat.
DONGOLA, Sept. 24.—The Egyptian flag was hoisted over Dongola yesterday. The dervishes are in full flight, and are pursued by the gubatoos on the river and by the cavalry on the west bank of the Nile. The advance was ordered at an early hour, and the Anglo-Egyptian forces were close upon the dervishes before the latter were called to arms. The dervishes were thrown into confusion and fled southward. They were pursued by the gubatoos, cavalry and camel corps. Several units of importance surrendered and a number of dervish troops announced their willingness to serve under the Egyptian flag.

To Select Senator Blackburn's Successor.
FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 24.—There is now little doubt that an extra session of the Kentucky legislature will be called following the November election, and that the senatorial race will be revived, and a successor to Joe Blackburn elected who will be either a Republican or John G. Carlisle. The point as to whether the election could be made in an extra session is not now disputed, as it has been settled by Acting Governor Worthington's examination of authorities on the subject.

Pugilist Corbett Arrested.
ASBURY PARK, N. J., Sept. 24.—James J. Corbett, the professional pugilist, was arrested here yesterday on a requisition issued by the governor of New York. The charge is agreeing to engage in a prize fight, the indictment having been found at the same time as the one on which Fitzsimmons was arrested in this city last week. Corbett agreed to come to New York next Saturday to plead to the indictment and was released under $1,000 bonds.

Leadville Under Martial Law.
LEADVILLE, Colo., Sept. 24.—General Beseks, in command of the Colorado National Guard, declared martial law in this city at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He has ordered a military court to meet today to investigate the assaults of armed forces upon the Colorado and Kaiser mines last Monday morning.

Teacher Assaulted by a Tramp.
LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 24.—Miss Lizzie Keen, of Providence township, a teacher in the public schools, was assaulted Tuesday afternoon. She was on the road to her home from school shortly after 4 o'clock in the afternoon. While walking on a lonely road she was attacked by a tramp. He rendered her unconscious by the use of chloroform, and then dragged her 150 yards to a strip of woods. There he assaulted her and then ran away. There are threats of lynching if the miscreant is caught.

HORSE AND WAGON STOLEN.
A Long and Fruitless Chase Made by the Owner.
In another column of this issue is a formal notice in which John Vajnicki sets forth that his horse and wagon have been stolen by one Joe Terlecki. A description of the latter and the horse, together with an offer of reward are also furnished.

According to additional statements of Vajnicki the horse was stolen from his stable on East Apple alley on Tuesday morning, last. Vajnicki and Terlecki were until recently partners in a grocery business on East Centre street. They quarreled over profits and a dissolution followed. Vajnicki says he has proof that his former partner threatened to run away with the horse and wagon. The former followed clues to Yatesville, Mahanoy City, Trouton and Morea yesterday, but was unable to get trace of Terlecki, or the horse and wagon. Terlecki's wife says she does not know where her husband has gone.
