The Republican Candidate Addresses Three Delegations. ADVICE TO YOUNG VOTERS.

M'KINLEY'S VISITOR

The Priceless Boon of Citizenship Should Never be Employed for Any Base Use,

but Should be Exercised With Courage, Wisdom and Patriotiam.

CASTON, O., Sept. 24.—Major McKinley stoke to three delegations yesterday. There was a large body of Republicans from Muncie. Ind. and other towns in the natural gas belt. There were also delega-tions from Wood county, O., one of which included the First Votors' club of Bowling Green. The delegations all arrived on the haldmose and Ohio, salivered. hat was Baltimore and Ohio railroad, between 12:50 and 1:50 o'elock. They occupied thirty coaches. In his address to the Wood county dele ration Major McKinley spoke in part a-

"The presence of this body of young men, who are to vote for the first time next November, is to me an inspiring dight, and that you are so soon to enjoy the priceless privilege of citizenship must be to all of you an inspiring thought. For twentyyou an inspiring thought, on works of the second se bear your share of duty and responsibility I wonder, as I look into your faces, whether you fully appreciate the privilege and honor which you are so soon to have. I fear sometimes that few of us estimate suffrage at its true worth. It clothes us with sovereignty. It is a guaranty to our liberties and institutions, and is our surest rafety. It is indeed a priceless inheritance, and should be valued as such by every and should be valued as such by every young man. "With the privilege comes grave re-sponsibilities in its use. It should express the intelligence and judgment and con-science of the voter. It should never be employed for any base use. It should never exercised with coursige, wisdom and pa-triotism. It should never be thrown searbat the coursige, which are protriotism. It should never be thrown against the country, and should never rep-resent public diskonor. "I neeall, young men, my first vote. With what a thrill of pride I exercised for the first time the full precontive of clit-zenship. I have not realized greater pride since. I felt that I had some part in the government. The period and circum-stances when I cast my first vote may have stances when I cast my first vote may have made a deeper impression upon me than it otherwise would, but I recall it now, after thirty-two years, with sensations of joy and satisfaction. In the crisis of war, ou the very field of conflict, my first vote was cast for Abraham Lincoln. Priceless memory to us that I could wate for the the memory to me that I could vote for the martyr to liberty, the emancipator of a race and the savior of the only free gov-ernment among men.

'You gentlemen did not have that priv-Too generation and not neve toot pro-liege, but it having been denied you there will be some satisfaction to you to vote for the party of Lincoln, which rallied the young men of the contry around the young men of the country around the hanner of liberty, union and multional honor, between 1800 and 1805, and now summons you under the same glorious banner. I cannot omit have to make a cuotation from Mr. Linooln, written to the young men of Illinois on June 27, 1848. Mr. Lineoln said Mr. Lincoln said :

'Now as to the young men. You must not walt to be brought forward by the alder men. You young men get together: form a 'rough and ready' club, and have regular meetings and speeches. Let every one play the part be can play best. Some speak, some sing and all holler.' ''I commend these homely words of Mr, Lincoln to the young men of the country. Such organizations as he advises will have a powerful influence in the political contest which is now upon us. They will not only inspire the young men, but will cheer the bearts of the old guards of the Republican party. It is seldom given to the first voters of this country to start in so important a national contest. It is a year, too, when old party divisions count for little; when men of all parties are united in the common object to save the country from dishonor and its currency the building announced the arrival of the Bryan party. The noise grew louder, grad-ually developing into a muffled rour, eventually bursting into a torrent of sound, the volume of which shook the building to the center as the candidate walked down the stage. The noise continued unabated for six minutes, at the end of which time Mr. Bryan's raised kands finally brought about order. Without delay he stepped to the front of the stage and delivered his address, which was frequently interrupted by enthusia-tic applicase. A large portion of his speech was devoted to answering the attacks on the planks of the Chicago platform criticising the supreme court and federal interference.
