

A COLD DAY

Would be unexpected in August, but in current stage "it's a cold day" when we don't have something new for our trade. Just now it is.

AFTER DINNER CUPS AND SAUCERS.

See them in our upper window. They were made to sell at 10 and 20 cents each, but they are yours for 15 and 25 cents.

Obituary.

Edward Shry, one of Gordon's oldest and most respected citizens, died at his home there at an early hour yesterday morning. Mr. Shry was born in Ireland, and came to this country fifty years ago. He had been an invalid for some time, and his death was not unexpected.

"Boys will be boys," but you can't afford to lose any of them. Be ready for the green apple season by having DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure in the house. C. H. Hagenbach.

Change of Employment. Thomas Laid had resigned from his position under the Singer Manufacturing Company to become a coal inspector at one of the Packer collieries, succeeding his brother, John, who has been made an assistant foreman.

THE CLOAK AND DRESS GOODS RECEPTION.

The new Cloaks, Wraps, Ladies' Suits and separate Skirts are coming daily. We intend to make this department more attractive than ever, and in a few days we will formally invite our thousands of patrons to come and see the grandest display of rich stylish garments ever offered by any store outside of Philadelphia.

These Cool Evenings

Remind you of warmer underwear—not the cheap common kind—but good fleecy cotton or fine merino or wool; we have an extra good line in all grades at popular low prices.

Blankets are Seasonable.

Get our prices on blankets before buying; we have them all cotton, partly cotton and strictly all wool; we handle only the best makes and have good big blankets that we sell for very little prices, 39c to $10 per pair.

White Bed Spreads and Down Comfortables.

Another lot just received; no matter what your wants are in this line we can suit you; Spreads 29c, 39c, 58c, $1.25 and up to $5.00. All our comforts are filled with pure white cotton or feather down.

The McCall Bazar Patterns.

Scores of buyers already attest their appreciation of this department; we receive new patterns daily, and sell the latest and best patterns in the world for 10 or 15c.—positively no higher; we will match any 25 or 50c. pattern sold for 10 or 15c., why pay more?

One Item at the Dress Goods Counter.

The third shipment of those famous dollar Bonicle dress goods at 75c. per yard, not a thread of cotton in them; only the finest silk and wool, ten new choice colors of this popular goods now on sale.

MAHANAY CITY.
Bicyclists Ready For the Century Run to Philadelphia.
MAHANAY CITY, Sept. 26.—The century run of bicyclists of this place is the leading topic among the wheelmen here today. The start will be made at 4:30 to-morrow morning by C. C. Sunday, Thomas P. Flanagan, Edward Gorman, Jesse Webb, P. J. Hyland, John Smalwood, James Clifford, John W. Lagan and Harry Gerhart. They expect to make the run in twelve hours.

S. Walter Bricker, of Philadelphia and formerly of town, was married on Wednesday last to Miss F. Eugenie Court, of Philadelphia, at the latter place and will arrive here this evening to visit the bridegroom's mother.

Twenty-eight members of Proto of Mahanay City Council No. 152, Daughters of Liberty, went to Quakake last night and acquitted star of Quakake Council No. 175 with 25 members.

The rooms of the Y. M. C. A. will be opened on October 1st, when a permanent organization will be effected. Mr. Shipp, of Harrisburg, will be here then to assist Mr. Peshman, the local manager.

Justice Neil Brennan, of Park Place, was awakened at a late hour last night by a Lithuanian who thought he had discovered an unexploded dynamite. He was advertised in a Lithuanian newspaper as being wanted at Waterbury, Conn., for having run away with another man's wife, a gold watch and $548. The suspect was taken into the justice's house and proceeded to be a Lithuanian. He answered the description advertised with the very important exception that he was not hunchbacked. When told of the charge upon which he had been taken on suspicion he laughed ironically and said he was in the heat with the other fellow. He explained that while he was in a hospital in Brooklyn some time ago a man ran away with his wife and three children, and he is tramping about the country trying to get trace of them.

Big Wreck on The Lehigh.
An extensive wreck occurred at 4:30 yesterday afternoon near Houshondale, on the Lehigh Valley railroad, by the breaking of a car wheel. Twenty-one empty coal cars were thrown in a heap. A wreck crew succeeded in getting one of the tracks clear for traffic today and the balance of the debris will be cleared away to-morrow.

"Gus" Both Dead.
Augustus Roth, the owner of nearly all the land at East Mahanay Junction, died at his home in Farmerville at 4 o'clock this morning from stomach trouble. He was 72 years of age and is survived by his wife and a daughter, Mrs. Daniel Depew, of Delano. The funeral will take place on Tuesday.

Funeral.
The funeral of Charles T. son of Charles T. Straught, business manager of the HERRALD, took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the family residence on North Jardin street, where the services were held. The pall bearers were Missie Wasley, Emily Llewellyn, Gertrude Newcenter, Mary Rowe. Interment was made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

No Parochial Schools.
The Polish Roman Catholic Congress is in session at Buffalo, N. Y. There are 327 delegates present. A message was received from the Pope promulgating a benediction. At the meeting of the Independent Polish Catholics 191 delegates answered the roll call. Two motions of great interest were up for discussion, namely: To cut out the word "Roman" from the name of the Independent church and to abolish parochial schools. These two motions took up the entire time of the meeting, and the discussion was extremely warm at times. It was finally decided to retain the word "Roman," calling the church the Polish Roman Catholic Church of America. The motion favoring the abolition of parochial schools was carried. A protest was adopted against the "Tyrannous rule of the Bishops of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States."

I. O. O. F. at Nuremberg.
The degree team of Shenandoah Lodge No. 591, I. O. O. F., left town this afternoon in four carriages for Nuremberg, where it will to-night confer degrees upon several initiates of the lodge at that place. The degree team is composed of twenty-one members who are experts in the work and provided with complete costumes and scenery, so that they make the ceremony very impressive.

Program.
The following program will be rendered at the regular meeting of the "Y" this evening: Singing, scripture reading, George Jones, recitation, Thomas Miller, select reading, Mr. Gable, singing, George H. Raper and party; notes of interest, John T. Lawson; duet, Moses Lamb and Hares; question box, Ralph Matter; impromptu speeches by members; critic's report.

Defective Bridge.
While Daniel Houser was crossing the bridge at Dunlaps, in Wm. Penn, last evening his horse broke through the bridge. The driver, by the sudden jarring, was thrown out, falling between the shaft and the horse, receiving bruises about his body. The horse had the two front legs lacerated and also bled from wounds about the nose and mouth. The owner of the team will try to recover damages.

A Batch of Arrests.
Yesterday was pay day at the Maple Hill colliery and there were a number of drunks in town last night as one of the results. Five Lithuanians named John Miller, Matt, Strazinski, Joe Botchinski, Joe Uadell and Andrew Roskitis were arrested in a batch in the first ward for being drunk and engaging in a fight. Justice Lawlor sent them over to the lockup.

Pay Your Taxes.
The last day for paying taxes, to enable one to vote at the November election, is on Saturday next, October 3rd. If you fail to pay your taxes by that time you will be deprived of the right of suffrage.

Communion Services.
The Holy Communion will be celebrated in the Trinity Reformed church to-morrow morning and evening.

Monument Erected.
A handsome monument enclosed by a suitable fence has been erected on the plot in the Odd Fellows' cemetery in which the remains of Thomas L. Williams rest.

Only One Diphtheria Case.
Katie Lawson, 4 years old, East Line street, was last night reported to the Board of Health as suffering from diphtheria. It is the only remaining case of the disease in the town.

Buy Keystone flour. Be sure that the name LESCO & BARR, Ashland, Pa., is printed on every sack.

PERSONAL.

Rev. J. J. Bolts visited friends at Mt. Carmel to-day.

John L. Williams, of Mt. Carmel, was a town visitor to-day.

Mrs. John Goyer, who was the guest of town friends, returned to Reading to-day.

Mrs. John Fealy, of South Jardin street, spent yesterday with friends at Pottsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin James went to Hazleton to-day to spend Sunday with friends.

Miss Lulu Waters, who was a guest of town friends, was yesterday called to her home at Eureka, Bucks county, on account of the serious illness of her mother.

His Head Cut Off.

John Jones, aged 19 years and residing at Ashland, met a terrible fate at the Merriam colliery. He was employed as a driver in the slope gangway, and was just making his first trip to the bottom, when he met his death. The first to suspect that something was wrong was the door boy, who had become suspicious through long delay of the trips coming. When the door boy came to the turn out he discovered that a collar had fallen and under it laid the unfortunate driver, cold in death. As soon as possible the mangled body was taken from under the collar and brought to the bottom where it was put in a wagon and hoisted to the surface. An examination revealed the fact that the head was crushed flat. Deceased was a son of Thomas Jones, who is a victim of rheumatism and disabilities brought about by severe injuries received at the mines some years ago, and in the death of his son has lost his main dependence.

To Benefit Temperance.

Led by a desire to benefit the great cause of temperance and to spur his friends and supporters to a new and increased zeal in this movement, the publisher of the Diocesan Record, Scranton, has determined to offer three prizes for the three best articles on the subject. "The best means to increase the membership of total abstinence societies, and to attract members to remain in such societies after they have joined." This contest will be open till the evening of October 3th.

Jefferson's Carriage Broken.

The American says James Jefferson, of town, had a rather sudden drop from his carriage while in Mahanay City yesterday. Jefferson's team was standing on the street when it was run into by another vehicle, breaking the axle and dropping the occupant to the ground, at the rate of 16 to 1.

A Pottsville Boy Lost.

A little boy, who said his name was Fowler and his age 12 years, was detained at the bureau of information in the Reading terminal at Philadelphia last evening. There was a tag tied to his little jacket on which it was stated that he was going to Pottsville. The little fellow said his brother was to have met him at the terminal and take him home. As the brother did not put in an appearance the boy was handed over to the care of the police department. It is believed he is a son of W. J. Fowler, of Pottsville. He was a fine, manly little fellow, and the crowd of traveling people took great interest in him.—Pottsville Chronicle.

Allen Dare Didn't Win.

A number of townsmen attended the Allentown fair yesterday to see John A. Titman's gray gelding, Allen Dare, trot in the 214 class for a prize of $300. The horse won the first heat in 2:15 and in the three succeeding heats he passed under the wire 2nd, 3rd and 4th. In the fifth heat Smith, driven by Harry Barry, of Passaic, N. J., collided with Allen Dare and a wheel of the latter's sulky was torn off. Allen Dare will be brought to town to-night and probably go into winter quarters.

Resolutions of Condolence.
At a regular meeting of the St. Mary Magdalen T. A. B. Society, of Lost Creek, held September 21, 1896, the following resolutions and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, Great, in his infinite goodness, has seen fit to call from our midst brother Patrick J. Dunlavey; and

Whereas, Brother Dunlavey was recognized among us as a true temperance advocate, covering in his devotion to the temperance cause, a model Catholic, and in every respect setting an example worthy of following; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Lost Creek T. A. B. Society, acknowledging with humility to our great Creator, regret sincerely the absence of our respected brother, who only leaves us to receive his reward for fighting the good fight which we must continue. Be it

Resolved, That we extend our sympathy to his sorrowing parents, who have lost a dutiful son, and who like us, grieve over our unbecoming bereavement.

Resolved, That this society attend the funeral in a body and that our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days; that a copy of these resolutions be printed in the Herald and Press and Times, and a copy spread on the minutes of this society.

Drew-Tyler Nuptials.

On Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock Mr. William Tyler, the genial hotel-keeper at the corner of Main and Mahanay streets, led Mrs. Martha Drew, of Shenandoah, to the altar. The ceremony making them man and wife was performed by Rev. Metcalf, pastor of the English Baptist church, of Wilkesbarre. The ceremony was strictly private. Not even Mr. Tyler's most intimate friends in town knew of his intentions, and the fact that he has been absent from home the past several days was deemed a vacation. Last evening when he returned with his bride and introduced her to his many friends the reason of his vacation dawned upon them. During the week Wilkesbarre, Plymouth and Nanticoke were visited, where both the bride and groom have many friends.—Mahanay City Record.

The Largest Stock of Dry Goods in Schuylkill County.

Never before in the history of this store has there been such a magnificent display of fancy dry goods. It is hard to find so many beautiful designs chosen from the dainty creations of the weavers' art in this and other countries, as you will find here. This is the store of the people and their appreciation of fair and square dealing is shown by the liberal patronage they extend it. We are much gratified at the admiration our selections receive and will endeavor to always keep this large and popular dry goods house up to the high standard it has so successfully maintained since its establishment twenty-one years ago.

Novelty dress goods were never so attractive and, quality considered, never so cheap. We have them in many designs, most of which we have exclusive control of for this market, and would be pleased to have you inspect them. The prices are 25c, 40c, 50c, 70c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50 and $1.75 per yard.

We are enabled to show you a larger line of all kinds of fine dress goods than any other house in the county. 38 inch serges, all wool, extra quality, 25c per yard; 50 inch serges, 40c; better quality, 50c to 75c per yard.

The fashion sheet of Butterick patterns, free of charge. The Delinicator and Metropolitan catalogues are now ready and show many beautiful designs particularly well adapted for making up the many choice fabrics we have to show you. The Delinicator, in addition to its superb new colored lithograph plates of dress modes and millinery, contains a great deal of information, and is full of all sorts of good things. Subscribe for it. You won't miss the dollar it costs you for a year, but you will miss much, very much, if you are unfortunate enough to let one number escape you. A full line of Butterick patterns, the recognized standard of the world, always in stock.
