AN ENGINEER'S NEGLECT!

Results in the Loss of at Least Seven Lives.

LOCOMOTIVE BOILER EXPLODED!

The Engineer Neglected to Stop for Water, and He and His Fireman Are Among the Dead—One Terror Stricken Passenger Commits Suicide.

OSAGO CITY, Kan., Oct. 5.—A frightful railroad wreck, attended by serious loss of life and made more terrible by the self murder of one of the terrified passengers, occurred at 5 o'clock yesterday morning on the Santa Fe road, two miles north of this station. Seven dead bodies have been recovered from the wreck, and it is feared other victims are buried beneath the debris.

The wrecked train was the east bound passenger No. 2, the same that had such a thrilling experience with bandits in New Mexico on Friday night last. The wreck was caused by the explosion of the boiler of the locomotive. The engineer should have stopped for water at Osago City, but being behind time, he endeavored to run to the next tank. The engineer and fireman both met death in the wreck. The train had proceeded but two miles beyond this place when two terrific explosions were heard, one following close after the other. The locomotive was completely shattered. The express, baggage and passenger coaches came crashing upon the wrecked engine, and the coaches that were ahead were piled up in one heap of wreckage. The coaches in the rear were all derailed, but the passengers riding in the rear escaped serious injury.

The wreck was marked by scenes of the wildest confusion among the terrified passengers. The nervous of many were at a high pitch as a result of their experience with the road agents in New Mexico, and when the crash came the first impression of nearly all was that the train had been attacked again by robbers. One passenger, William Beckler, of Los Angeles, Cal., en route to Chicago, seemed to lose his reason entirely. When the crash came he drew a pistol from his pocket, and, in the presence of a car full of terrified passengers, took his own life. Beckler had been drinking heavily.

The dead are: William Beckler, Los Angeles; Engineer Strump, Topeka, Kan.; Fireman Harry Hollister, Topeka, Kan.; William McAdams, tramp, riding on baggage car, and supposed to be from Chillicothe, Ia.; three tramps, names unknown, all of whom were riding on the baggage car.

Among those injured are: Mrs. Emma Maxwell, an editor on The Evening Telegram, Colorado Springs, Colo., hands and arms cut and bruised; Wilford Burns, tramp, legs and arms cut and bruised; James Coleman, tramp, cut and badly bruised.

Tynan is Still in Prison. BOULOGNE-SUR-MER, Oct. 5.—A report called here from New York that P. J. Tynan had been released from prison here, which was conveyed to New York in a private cablegram, is denied by the prison officials. They state that Tynan is still in prison, and that the local authorities have received no orders to release him. The police of Rotterdam refuse absolutely to say whether Kearney and Haines arrested here on suspicion of implication in a dynamite plot, were conducted. They were taken to the frontier and released, but the police have been ordered to maintain secrecy as to their whereabouts.

Fearful Powder Magazine Explosion. BULWAZO, South Africa, Oct. 5.—A powder magazine exploded here with disastrous results. Five white men were killed, as were also scores of Kafirs, who were camping near the magazine. Most of the Kafirs were killed by falling rocks that had formed the walls of the powder house. A large number of persons were injured, many of them having their arms and legs torn from their bodies. A large proportion of the injured are natives, who will die.

Evidence of Wholesale Murder. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 5.—Since ten days ago, when Mrs. Bud Chaffin and her husband's hired man, John King, were seen driving away from Devall's Bluff, Prairie county, nothing has been seen of Bud Chaffin and his five children. When a visit was made to the Chaffin home blood was spattered over the floor and evidences of a terrible butchery were apparent. It is believed that King murdered the family and eloped with Mrs. Chaffin.

A Babe in a Barroom Scuffle. WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Oct. 5.—An 18-month-old child of Thomas Boon, colored, died from the effects of injuries received in a barroom scuffle. The father carried the babe into the saloon on his shoulder, and soon became involved in a playful bout with the bartender. Boon slipped and fell, and the child's head struck the stove, causing concussion of the brain.

Cut in Two by a Circular Saw. CAMBRIDGE, Md., Oct. 5.—Joseph Warren was nearly cut in two by a saw, in Banes' mill, near Vienna, Dorchester county. He was sawing timber, when a log rolled from the saw carriage, striking a lever. The lever struck Warren and knocked him against the saw, which was running at a rapid rate. Death followed in a few minutes. He was a mill man all his life.

MAJOR M. KINLEY'S SPEECHES.

He Delivered Sixteen on Saturday—Many Delegations This Week.

CANTON, O., Oct. 5.—Thirty thousand men, who came from the mills, furnaces, farms, colleges, workshops, mines and counting rooms of New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and Indiana, visited Major McKinley on Saturday. Among the visiting delegations were 3,000 bicyclists. The candidate made sixteen speeches to the thirty delegations.

Engagements with delegations are now booked as late as Oct. 24, with but two open dates between now and then. The schedule made out for this week shows more delegations than announced at the beginning of any previous week. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5.—Mr. Bryan on Saturday gave out his letter accepting the Populists' nomination for the presidency. It is addressed to Chairman Allen and others of the notification committee. In his letter Mr. Bryan says: "In a time like this, when a great political party is attempting to surrender the right to legislate for ourselves upon the financial question, and is seeking to bind the American people to a foreign monetary system, it behoves us as lovers of our country and friends of American institutions to lay aside for the present such differences as may exist among us on minor questions."

Cardinal Satolli's Farewell.

William O'Brien, Pardon, provincial of the province of Maryland and New York, made an address at the reception and preached the sermon at the mass in the morning. The high pontifical mass at St. Aloysius' was one of the most impressive that has ever taken place in a church here.

OFFICER AND WOMAN SHOT.

Constable Dando Fired Four Shots While Being Beaten.

THE WOMAN WAS A SPECTATOR.

Neither of the Victims are Dangerously Injured, Although the Woman Was Shot in the Abdomen—Dando Shot Through the Leg—Self-Inflicted Wound.

Constable Jack Dando lies at his home on West Cherry street with a bullet wound in his left leg and his head and face badly battered, and Mrs. Maggie Putasawicz, a Polish woman, is at her home in Miller's row, near the Shenandoah City colliery, with a bullet wound in her abdomen. Neither is dangerously injured, although the condition of both is the result of a fracas that almost ended in a double murder. The bullet wounds are supposed to have been inflicted by the constable while defending his own life after he had been rendered partly unconscious.

The origin of the affray was a fight in which several Poles were involved and from the statements made to Justice Cardin it appears that a Pole named John Flomema, who is a stalwart fellow enjoying the reputation of a bully, on Saturday night entered the home of Valentine Musock and asked that the "growler" be sent out for beer. There was an exchange of words which culminated in Flomema attacking Musock. A man named Mike Shimo went to the rescue and knocked Flomema down. Shimo then disappeared and hurried to Justice Cardin's office. Flomema, in the meantime, attacked Musock and his wife and drew nearly all the clothes from her body. It was at about this stage of the affray that Constable Dando appeared to arrest the aggressor. He met Flomema in the yard and arrested him. The bully turned upon the constable, who knocked Flomema down twice in efforts to subdue him. Flomema, however, is a powerful man and far too great a match for the constable. He seized a large piece of wood, such as is used in making fire in bake ovens, and opened an attack on the officer. One of the blows paralyzed the right arm and another sent him to the ground in a half unconscious state. Flomema kept up the assault and, fearing he would be killed while prostrate on the ground, Dando drew his revolver with his left hand and fired four shots. Two of the shots were spent and, as there is no evidence that other revolvers were used in the fracas, it is believed that Dando shot himself and also the woman, who was a spectator to the affray.

Upon the firing of the shots Flomema disappeared. Dando recovered his senses and walked to Justice Cardin's office, where he was attended by Dr. W. N. Stein. Dando did not know at the time that he had been shot in the leg. The doctor found that the officer's head, face and right arm were badly cut and bruised and advised the officer to go home. It was after reaching there that Dando had discovered that he had been shot. Dr. Stein was again called and an examination showed that the bullet had passed clean through the fleshy part of the leg near the knee. Dando is confined to his bed.

Meanwhile Policeman Foltz, accompanied by G. G. Clauser, a citizen, went down to hunt up Flomema. They found him like a raging lion. Flomema suddenly seized a piece of pole from the hands of a young man in the crowd and struck Clauser a blow across the face, inflicting a painful, but not serious injury. Foltz saw that he could not take the bully single handed and went to seek assistance. During his absence Constable Bolin and Policeman Goodman arrived and took Flomema out of an outdoor at the point of revolvers. Justice Cardin committed Flomema in default of $1,000 bail and this morning he was taken to the Pottsville jail.

Drs. G. F. Matter and J. Pierce Roberts are attending Mrs. Putasawicz and say her condition is not serious. The bullet is supposed to have entered the left side of the abdomen and passed around to the back, but probing has failed to locate it. The woman goes about her home in spite of the injury. Dr. Matter failed to find any bullet hole in the woman's clothing and he says there is a possibility that the bullet is not in her body. He has known many cases where bullets have forced clothing with them sufficient to make a wound and yet not pierce the clothing and drop to the ground when the clothing is removed.

If you want a fine wedding cake, let Otto make it for you.

Revival Services.

The revival meetings which are being held in the M. E. church are very successful. The services to-night will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Alfred Heebner, who will use as his subject, "Ruth's Choice," in which he will give illustrations on the blackboard, to bring the subject more fully before the people. Miss Edith Morgan will sing by special request, "Is It Nothing to You?"

Umbrellas recovered while you wait at Brennan's.

A horse belonging to Little, the baker, ran away on East Centre street this afternoon with a delivery wagon loaded with freshly baked bread. Mr. Little's son, Daniel, was in charge of the horse and remained in the wagon, which was thrown against the building at the northeast corner of White and Centre streets and upset. Mike Kane stopped the horse. Many people expected to find the boy dead, but he was pulled out of the wreck without an injury, although badly scared. The wagon will require considerable repairing. The horse was started by the breaking of a trace. The excitement caused somebody to sound the fire alarm and the firemen had a useless run.

FELL OVER FORTY FEET.

A Boy Tumbles From the Pennsylvania Railroad Trestle.

John Lynch, aged 16 years and residing at Boston Run, had an almost miraculous escape from death yesterday morning in falling from the high trestle of the Pennsylvania Railroad at the south end of Main street. The boy was on his way home after attending services in the Annunciation church, on West Cherry street, and in hurrying over the trestle to catch up with several boys who preceded him lost his balance and tumbled over the side. He fell to the creek forty-one feet below and was picked up unconscious by Edward Flemming, the section boss of the railroad, and Frank Dougherty, of South Main street. Fortunately the water in the creek was not deep enough to drown the boy while he lay unconscious in the creek and before Flemming could go to the rescue. Lynch was removed to the home of Mrs. John Dougherty, and is still there. His condition is such that it is not considered safe to remove him to his home. Dr. W. N. Stein, of town, and Dr. W. F. Horn, of Mahanoy City, are in attendance. Both stated to-day that the boy is in a critical condition and they cannot make any statements as to the chances of recovery. The boy's scalp is lacerated. It is believed that his skull is fractured and he may have suffered internal injuries, but the doctors are not positive that such are the nature of the injuries. They will be able to determine this by to-morrow. At present the boy suffers from terrible shock.
