PROTECTION AND FREE TRADE.

Twenty-seven years of Protection (1869 to 1893) decreased our public debt $1,747,301,878.
Three years of Free Trade (1893 to 1896) increased our public debt $262,322,038.
These are the plainest reasons why McKinley should be elected president, the sooner the better.

ACTIVE WORK NEEDED.

Under existing conditions, the Republican party was never in better shape to record a victory in November next. This has reference to the national, state and county tickets. The advocates of the present standard have much reason to look forward to a grand victory. While this is true, nevertheless little reliance can be placed in the prophecy of the great majority of partisans, whose predictions are in the nature of "the wish father to the thought."

Those political prognosticators are biased in their opinions, and little dependence can be placed in either the Bryanite or McKinleyite. The true position to take is to regard the position as sufficiently critical to demand unflinching vigilance and determined effort until the polls close on the night of November 4. Let not your efforts in behalf of sound money be opposed to a debased currency by reason of the political prophet. Go to work as though the success of the Republican candidates depended upon your individual efforts, especially so in reference to the county ticket.

So far as the national contest is concerned, it is not only necessary that Bryan be defeated, but the majority should be such that the heresies which made his nomination possible as the candidate of a once great party, will never rise again. It is not so much the defeat of Bryan, the individual, as the extinction of the theories enunciated at Chicago, that is essential to the future prosperity of our country. In no other way can confidence be restored; without confidence, there can be no improvement in business.

Mr. Bryan is an able, well-meaning young man; eloquent and forceful in argument, yet without the lack of experience and knowledge so necessary for one aspiring to the highest gift in the hands of the American voters. There never was a time when wisdom and good sense were needed more than now. To style the Bryan movement an uprising of the criminal classes—although, perhaps, his doctrines have a tendency in that direction—is a grievous error. There are no more honest men than some of those misguided followers of Bryan, who have suffered from the mistakes of the present Democratic administration, and are unwisely looking to the man responsible for the hard times for a change.

Under these circumstances, it is necessary that the representatives of the Republican party—each individual voter thereof—constitute themselves missionaries in the cause of sound currency and good government. This is necessary in order to win a decisive victory. A temporary defeat for Bryan and his followers will only agitate the agitation of five silver; whereas, an overwhelming majority for McKinley and an honest dollar will forever place America with the enlightened nations of the world. This done, and it already seems to be done beyond recall, the Republican party can turn its attention to those other vital principles to which it is committed—a protective tariff; national defense; a just pension act, under which every hero of the late war will feel the grateful helping hand of the nation.

Four years ago the miners of Schuylkill county were appealed to to vote for free trade, and got low prices and no work. This year they are asked by the same men to vote for free silver and thus increase the prices of things they consume—the necessities of life. The people of the country at the last presidential election voted for a change, and got hard times and free soup houses, and free no work and no wages. They have had enough of Democratic rule. They want the good times of 1892 back again, and will vote for the principles that made those good times, sound money, protection and reciprocity.

—What is true of the nation is equally true of the county. The Republicans have nominated an exceedingly strong ticket—every man upon it is worthy the vote of the taxpayers of the county, from the humblest to the highest. The party is united, each candidate working for the success of the other, and all are not only worthy of, but justly entitled to the votes of every Republican; because they represent Republican principles, and being men above the average intelligence who will administer the duties of the respective offices to which they aspire in the interests of the people at large, will command the votes of hundreds of Democrats.

—From now until the polls close in November, there is work to be done. The candidates and Chairman Edwards and his committee cannot do it all. Each individual voter can and should do his share. Take no stock in the vapors of the political prophet. When they tell you that Schuylkill county is certain to record a victory for the Republican ticket, let the prophecy be a source of inspiration for still more energetic work on your part, and thus make the victory doubly sure.

—The true position for every Republican to assume is to regard the situation as sufficiently critical to demand unflinching vigilance until the polls close. Over confidence lost many battles.

A GOOD PRACTICE.

If You Want a Good Appetite and Perfect Digestion.

After each meal dissolve one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in the mouth and, minding with the food, they constitute a digestive, absolutely safe for the most sensitive stomach.

They digest the food before it has time to ferment, thus preventing the formation of gas and keeping the blood pure and free from the poisonous products of fermented, half-digested food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make the complexion clear by keeping the blood pure.

They increase flesh by digesting flesh-forming foods.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the only remedy designed especially for the cure of stomach troubles and nothing else.

One disease, one remedy, the successful physician of to-day is the specialist, the successful medicine is the medicine prepared especially for one disease.

A whole package taken at one time would not hurt you, but would simply be a waste of good material.

Over six thousand men and women in the state of Michigan alone have been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia by the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package.

Send for Free Book on stomach diseases to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Many a day's work is lost by sick headache, caused by indigestion and stomach troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the most effective pills for overcoming such difficulties. C. H. Hagenbuch.

MAHANAY CITY.

A Tramp Who Found Just What He Was Seeking.

MAHANAY CITY, Oct. 5.—Saturday night a tramp who gave the name of John O'Connor resorted to C. & I. Policeman Smith, at the corner of Main and Centre streets, and asked where he could get a night's lodging. Smith at once identified O'Connor as the man who, on the afternoon of the same day, had robbed the L. V. R. R. watches at Barry's Junction of two rubber coats and an overcoat belonging to James Becker, the watchman, who had furnished the C. & I. police with a description of the thief after giving chase that resulted in the recovery of two of the coats. O'Connor did not deny the charge when before Justice Coyne and said he committed the theft with the expectations of getting lodging for the winter.

There was a large gathering in St. Charles church this morning to witness the obsequies of the late Edward C. Dwyer. The services were of a most impressive character. Father McManamin read mass and Father McEnroe delivered the sermon. Father Prendergast, of Mahanoy Plane, was master of ceremonies. Father Nolan, of Shenandoah, deacon, and Edward O'Brien, who was a fellow student of the deceased in the Overbrook seminary, was sub-deacon. Two very impressive solos were rendered by Misses Katie Moore and Donahoe.

Edward Paul left town this morning to attend the State Firemen's convention at Jacksonville.

There will be a meeting of the Republicans at Delano to-morrow night and they will be addressed by E. S. Reinhold, of this place, and Hon. Elias Davis, of Pottsville.

cated at Marlborough school, in Wiltshire, and afterward at Exeter college, Oxford. After leaving college he studied painting and architecture. In 1855 he started in London an establishment for the designing and manufacturing of wall paper, stained glass, woven goods and household decorations.

His first public appearance as a poet was in 1858, when he came at once into prominence by the publication of a book of thirty poems entitled "The Defense of Guinevere, and Other Poems." In 1863 appeared his "Life and Death of Jason," and in 1867 "The Story of Grettir the Strong." Between the years 1868 and 1871 he published the twenty-four legendary tales, "The Earthly Paradise," recited by a company of travelers who had sailed westward from Norway to find the paradise in question.

For several years past Mr. Morris has identified himself and his acts with an organization known all over Great Britain, whose efforts are devoted, heart and soul, to the revolutionization of England.

The whole system is drained and undermined by indolent ulcers and open sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve speedily heals them. It is the best pile cure known. C. H. Hagenbuch.

CANADA PACIFIC STRIKE.

MONTREAL, Oct. 5.—The Canadian Pacific telegraphers' strike cannot last much longer, according to the officials of the road. They claim that on three divisions, the Quebec and Ontario, and from the Soo to Sudbury, everything is working in first class shape, and on other divisions matters are approaching a normal condition. Squads of special constables have gone north from this city and Toronto to the North Bay and Sudbury districts, where trouble always seems to crop up when a strike is in progress.

THE DESTRUCTION OF HESBRO, A. T.

TUCSON, A. T., Oct. 5.—A report has just been received here that the mining town of Hesbro, A. T., containing 2,500 inhabitants, has been almost washed out by a cloudburst. The telegraph wires are down and the report cannot be verified, but a serious disaster is feared, as the town is located in a narrow canyon, which offers little chance of escape from floods. Further meager reports from Benson confirm the death Thursday of Mrs. Ashburn and her children, Mrs. Zok and her two boys, and four Mexicans by the cloudburst there.

PRESIDENT KRUGER'S DEMANDS.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—President Kruger's "war budget" is causing uneasiness. He demands close to £1,000,000 for arms and ammunition and over £200,000 for "special services."
