CORNER STONE LAID.

At St. Ignace' Parochial School and Hall, at Centralia.

CENTRALIA, Oct. 5.—The corner stone of the new building, erected for the parochial school connected with St. Ignace's church, was laid with appropriate ceremonies here yesterday afternoon. The new building is situated on the plot north of the church, and will be a handsome, convenient and commodious structure. The work of construction will be pushed as rapidly as possible, and it is expected to be completed by the end of the present year.

To Rev. Father Hayes and his able curate, Rev. Father Costigan, is due the success of yesterday's demonstration, and the erection of the building. Special trains brought in hundreds from Shenandoah, East Creek, Girardville, Ashland, Shamokin and other places.

The parade formed at about 2 o'clock, in which twenty odd societies participated. The parade was a very creditable one.

Bishop McGovern was present and delivered an able sermon at the dedication. Visar General Koch, of Shamokin, was also present and participated in the exercises.

Mr. Friedland Entertains.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Friedland, of North Market street, entertained a large number of their friends at their residence last evening, in honor of the former's election as president of the Ketchikan Israel congregation. The event was a very happy one and greatly enjoyed by all present, among whom were the following: Mr. and Mrs. S. Block, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Duell, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gleditsky, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Orkin, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Goldstein, Mr. and Mrs. J. Shapiro, Mr. and Mrs. Max Babnowitz, Rev. and Mrs. Mitnick, Mr. and Mrs. S. Babnowitz, and Messrs. Louis Goldin, Moses Simmons, of New York; Abe Levine, H. and Moses Rubinsky, Philip Yarowsky, Morris Miller, Leon Rabinowitz, Harry Feinberg and Jacob Levit. Speeches were made by Moses Simmons, of New York, and Rev. Mitnick, the rabbi of the congregation.

Major George Brunum Dead.

Word has been received of the death of Major George W. Brunum, only brother of Congressman C. N. Brunum. Major Brunum died on Saturday night at his home in Boise City, Idaho, aged about 60 years. He served during the war with distinction, and proved his bravery in a number of battles. After the close of the war Major Brunum returned to Minersville and pursued the business of jeweler. He was married twice. His first wife was Hannah, daughter of William Kautner. They had two children, Ellwood, who continues a jewelry store on East Centre street, and Salome, who is now Mrs. Harry Saylor. After his first wife's death Major Brunum went west and married again. He was a member of the Lutheran church, and also connected with the Masonic and Odd Fellows' fraternities.

Room at Shepton.

It seems destined that Shepton is to make itself known among the other fast growing towns of the coal region. New stores are springing up, the post office is beginning to assume a city like air, with new furniture and lock-boxes, while the town itself has been the scene of many improvements this summer. Since January 1st to date over 75 lots have been sold, and by actual count twenty-eight houses have been erected, among them several business blocks. The streets have been put in good condition, and a number of property owners have put down sidewalks and curbing. The question as to whether or not Shepton will become a borough seems to be settled beyond a doubt, and it is probable that the property owners will have the matter brought before the courts at an early date. Many Shenandoah capitalists have invested in property there.

Syrian Badly Beaten.

Peter Chokrokus, Frank Wasloski and Alex. Rapowitz were arrested Saturday night by Constable Bolin and Policeman Goodman for unmercifully beating a Syrian named Davis Hallal at a house on East Centre street. The victim had all his teeth loosened and his head is badly swollen. Hallal says the men called him into a house and asked him to change a five dollar bill. He gave them the change, but when he insisted upon getting the bill the men set upon and beat him. Four of the men are in the lockup. Chokrokus gave $500 bail for trial.

To be Arbitrated.

M. M. Burke, Esq., as counsel for Mrs. Michael Brindenavage, who seeks to recover $200 insurance on the death of her husband, on Saturday made a motion before the Pottsville court for the appointment of arbitrators. The husband was killed on the Lehigh Valley railroad in a cut near Mahanoy City about three months ago. The widow admits it was a case of suicide, but alleges that her husband was insane at the time.

ARGUMENT HEARD.

The Case of Ousting the Borough Justices Heard on Saturday.

Judge Pershing on Saturday heard argument in the case of the ousted Justices in Shenandoah and Mahanoy City. The argument was on the rule to show cause why a decree should not be entered for want of sufficient answer.

Messrs. Schalk and Wadlinger represented the ousted Justices. In their argument they dwelt at considerable length upon the manner in which the Borough Justices secured their election, claiming that they were not the choice of the voters of either town; that the office was not provided for on the official ballot; no proclamation was issued by the constable setting forth that but two Justices were to be voted for; Mr. Schalk detailed how their election was obtained by the use of stickers, and said they sneaked into offices which they were not legally entitled to.

In arguing for the Borough Justices, W. A. Marr quoted a number of authorities and made a strong plea in behalf of Messrs. Carlin and Lawlor, of town, and Coyle and Jones, of Mahanoy City, claiming that a proclamation by constables was not mandatory. Judge Pershing reserved his decision. If the decision is favorable to the old Justices, an injunction will probably be asked for restraining the Borough Justices from exercising the duties of the office. On the other hand, if the court considers the reasons sufficient, testimony will be taken in the case.

The Firemen's Convention.

Councilman R. D. Reese, George W. Broome, Benjamin Beecher, Sr., and son, Benjamin, and William Tempest, members of the Rescue H. & L. Company, left town this morning to attend the annual state firemen's parade and convention at Johnstown. They will be absent about ten days. Mr. Reese is the regular delegate from the Rescue company. The Phoenix and Columbia companies sent no regular delegates to the convention, but the latter company will be represented at the gathering by William Taylor, Thomas Tempest, James Williams and John McCabe, who also left town this morning.

Battle of Beer Glasses.

At about ten o'clock Saturday night a crowd was attracted to the saloon of A. Zakrzewski, on South Main street, by beer glasses flying out of the place to the street while a fierce battle was in progress in the saloon. Shortly after a Pole whose name could not be learned emerged from the place with the back of his head gashed, several front teeth missing, the left side of his face puffed and his coat, vest and shirt torn into shreds. The police arrived after the battle and could find no one willing to make charges.

Pigeon Shooting Match.

There was a local live pigeon shooting match Saturday afternoon between two teams composed of Hon. Joseph Wyatt and Charles Leitzel on the one side and Lance Parker and Fred Hart on the other. The contest was for $5 a side, nine birds for each team. The first named won by killing five, the others killing three.

Serving Time.

Joseph Broski and James Grant, of West Coal street, were arrested on Saturday by Policeman Faltz on a charge of drunkenness and nuisance and are serving time in the lockup.

At Centralia.

Among the people noticed at the corner stone laying of the new parochial school connected with St. Ignace church, Centralia, yesterday, were the following town folks: Misses Nora Murry, Bridget Burns, Annie Coogan, Mary McHugh, Mary Ready and Miss Monaghan, and Messrs. P. H. Coory, Bernard Keogh, F. J. Coory, Anthony Cuff, John and Martin Coory, and Edward Reese.

"Boys will be boys," but you can't afford to lose any of those. Be ready for the green apple season by having DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure in the house. C. H. Hagenbuch.

Iron and Starch Outing.

Yesterday the proprietors and employes of Hennessy & Gunter's steam laundry enjoyed a day's outing throughout the Mahanoy valley. Trips were made to Locust Gap and Lakeside, where the greater part of the day was spent. The merry party left here at early morn and returned at dusk highly elated over the trip.

Introducing Gas.

Gas is to be introduced in the Annunciation church, on West Cherry street, to succeed coal oil lamps and the new brackets and chandeliers are to be donated by members of the congregation and societies connected with the church. Some of the donations will be elaborate and expensive.

Theories of cure may be discussed at length by physicians, but the sufferers want quick relief; and One Minute Cough Cure will give it to them. A safe cure for children. It is "the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results." C. H. Hagenbuch.

THE COMING LABOR PAPER.

Messrs. Van Wert and Hart to Launch the New Publication.

"The Miners' Advocate" is the name of the new weekly paper that is to be published shortly, by Messrs. W. E. VanWert, late of Mahanoy City Record, and Frank Hart, accountant for the Columbia Brewing Company. Mr. VanWert will be the editor and business manager and will be assisted by an able staff of writers. James O'Connor, for two years city editor of the Mahanoy City American, will look after the outside interests of the paper. The first issue will appear on the 17th inst. It was intended to have an earlier issue, but it was found impossible to perfect arrangements for an issue before the 17th. The paper will be a four-page issue of six columns each and will be devoted exclusively to the interests of the working people through this county and region, something for which there has long been a demand and there is every reason to believe that the Advocate will find a large field and fill it satisfactorily. Rumors have been afloat that a third party was interested in the publication, but in an interview this morning Mr. VanWert stated distinctly that only himself and Mr. Hart are interested. The offices of "The Miners' Advocate" have been opened at 27 West Lloyd street, next door to the Shenandoah Water Company's offices, and make very suitable headquarters. They are handsomely furnished in antique oak. Photographs of Washington, Lincoln, Grant and Garfield attest the patriotic spirit of the firm.

Shenandoah Won.

The foot ball game at the Trotting park on Saturday between the Shenandoah and Mahanoy City teams resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 22 to 9. The Shenandoah team was weak in the first half and the score stood 6 to 6. Coughlin was umpire, Gorman referee and O'Donnell lineaman. McCormick started the game by kicking the ball out. Robinson made the first touchdown for Mahanoy City by a fine run of 100 yards around the left end. Farrell kicked the goal. McCormick made the first touchdown for Shenandoah by kicking the line and kicked the goal. McDonald made the great touchdown by a good run and Fahy missed the goal. Frost scored the next touchdown by sprinting 33 yards and Fahy again missed the goal. Wertz made a touchdown by kicking through the line and this time Fahy kicked the goal. This was soon followed by two more touchdowns by Fahy and he also kicked two goals and concluded the game. The Shenandoah team is in great trim and Mahanoy City is evidently too weak for it.

No More Hippodroming.

Doolin, the sprinter of Ashland, and Owen McNally, of Girardville, spent several hours in town Saturday trying to get Charles Kirlin to make another match, but the latter and his backers were so disgusted with the actions of McNally in the last match that they refused to have any more dealings with him and the visit was a fruitless one.

An Informal Reception.

The congregation of the First Presbyterian church will tender their pastor, Rev. T. Maxwell Morrison, an informal reception upon his return to town. The reception will be held in the lecture room of the church on Wednesday evening next, at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Morrison is held in high esteem by the members of his congregation and the welcome he will receive upon his return will be a cordial one.
