Government Vessels Are Keeping a Clos-

Watch on Suspects at Jacksonville.

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 7.—The government has put a strict watch upon Jacksonville, to prevent any fillbustering expedition from leaving port. The cynters Newark is now anchored off the St. John's bar, where a commanding view of the entrance to the river is to be had. The revenue cut-ters Boutwell and Merrill are anchored in the stream at the foot of Liberty street, within 200 yards of the fill bustering steamers Three Friends and Commodore, which are tied at the same wharves. Captain Kilgore, of the Boutwell, said that both cutters would remain here to prevent a su spected expedition from getting aw suspected expedition from getting away. The inference was also drawn from his remarks that the stay of the Newark at the mouth of the river will be indefinite. Captain Kilgore has positive instructions not to allow any of the alleged fill-bustering vessels to leave part without permission of the collector of customs, who live to the collector of customs, who live the collector of customs. who in turn communicates with the treas-ury department. With such permission the Dauntless left for Brunswick, Ga., on Monday to engage in towing. The Com-modore was to have left port yesterday to do some towing on the coast, and it was given permission to go providing an officer from the Boutwell could be placed on board. The boat did not go, but remains tied up at the wharf watched by the two cuttors

Besides all this deputy marshals are stationed on the Three Friends and the Commodore, and there is not even a pos-sibility that the anticipated expedition can leave port.

An Innocent Man Pardoned,
