GREAT DAY FOR CANTON

Forty Carloads of Voters Visit Candidate McKinley.

PENNSYLVANIA WOMEN IN LINE.

They Were from Jefferson County, and Marched in Proper Order-The Republican Leader's Speeches to Pittsburg Italians and to the Indiana Delegation.

CANTON, O., Oct. 0 .- Canton's stre were crowded all day yesterday. Fårty carloads of finely uniformed and decidedly musical visitors growded about the Mo-Kinley home. Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana sent delegations. Pittsburg Ital-ians waved old giory as they marched from the Pennsylvania depot at noon. In-diana shortly afterward tried to outdo them in music cheers and fine drills of handsome uniformed clubs. Women marched in good line from Jefferson

By the middle of the afternoon Market street, leading to the McKinley home, was filled with marchers. The Cleveland First Voters, who came last, kept the crowds on the sidewalks cheering. When Major McKinley returned to his home from his drive to his registration place yesterday morning he found Lieutenant Governor Haille, of Massachusetts, among his callers. Mrs. J. Ellen Foster and daughter, of Iowa, came shortly afterwards from Chicago and took lunch at the McKinley home. county, Pa.

Major McKinley made brief addresses to all of the visiting delegations. In his speech to the visiting Italians from Pluts-burg he spoke in substance as follows:

"I am indeed glad to meet my fellow countrymen of Italian birth and descent who have honored me with this visit here who have honored me with this visit here today. I appreciate this visit because it means that you have an interest in com-mon with all your fellow citizens in the welfare of the country of your adoption, and because you feel that in the compaign and occases you real that in the campaign now upon us there is much involved in the rightful settlement of the questions which are presented. We are a nation of working people; we recognize no caste and will tolerate none beneath our diag. The voice of one citizen is as potent as the voice of another, and the united voice, when constitutionally expressed, is the law of the land.
"The issues of this campaign cannot be overstated in their importance. Shall we sustain law and order and uphold the tribunals of justice which in all the trying times of the past have been our greatest safety and our pride? Men of Italian birth and descent, shall we continue a financial policy which is safe and sound, and gives polley which is safe and sound, and gives to us a money with which to do a business that is stable in value and which com-mands respect, not only at home, but in every commercial nation of the world? Shall we restore the industrial policy by which this nation has become mighter-than all the other great commercial, manu-facturing, mining and farming nations of the world?

"On these questions there should be no two opinions, and I believe this year the people of this country, of overy nationality, of every race and clan, loyal as they are to this government of their adoption, will anitedly ensemble the authority of law and the constitution, continue an honest financial system which will share work and wages and employment and comforts for labor and good markets for the farmers, in which all the people will participate.

in which all the people will participate. No. 2
"I am especially gratified to be assured No. 8 that our Italian fellow citizens are enthat our Italian fellow citizens are enrolled this year in the ranks of the great Republican party, and that they are enlisted in a particule effort to win a victory for themselves, for their labor, for their occupations and for their country.

In the course of his address to the Indiana delegation Mr. McKinley said:

"If the financial plan advocated by our allied opponents be practical and sound, then we don't need any tariff laws in this country, any tax laws, any custom houses country, any tax laws, any custom houses No. 18 Cur-or any tax collectors anywhere; because if No. 16 " or any tax collectors anywhere; because if you can make money out of nothing, by the mere breath of congress, then it is idle to im pose taxes upon the people to bear the burden and expense of conducting the government. If, by mere flat, whother it be flat to the extent of fifty cents or to the extent of a hundred cents, if the government by a mere act of congress can make money, then all the work gress can make money, then all the work of Washington and Jefferson. Hamilton and Clay, and all of the financiers and statesmen of this country was mere idleness and folly. "But the government of the United States cannot create something out of states without create something out in nothing, and the man or the party that teaches that doctrine teaches a false doc-trine. Why? That which costs a man nothing is not worth much, is it? The point I make is this, my fellow citizens, that we must get over the idea in this country that the government makes money. The government gets its money just as the citizen gets his money, by giving something for it. We do not believe that the government should make money by setting its printing presses and its mints to work, but that the best thing it can do for its revenues is to put a tariff on foreign products of every kind that compete with American products, and make that tariff high enough to protect the American producer.

"Not only do we want a good tariff, but we want good money. We want that money to be worth one hundred reads to the dollar, and we do not want it to be worth a penny less than one hundred cents. We want it to be as hourst as the government itself. We want it to be cur-rent everywhere in the world. We want It respected everywhere, just as our flag is respected everywhere."

SUICIDE OF A BANKER.

Took His Life to Escape Punishment for His Misdeeds.

FOR YEARS A TRUSTED TREASURER.

He Had Been Robbing Corporations of Which He Was Trustee-"If Any One Thinks This Is a Cowardly Act Let Him

yesterday a notice was posted on the doors of the Cape Ann Savings bank stating that the institution had been closed. Immediately came the shocking news that George J. Marsh, for more than a quarter of a century the trusted treasurer of the bank, as well as treasurer and trustee for numerous large corporations and estates, had shot himself at his summer home at Annisquem.

The bank officials state that after a hurried examination no shortage could be found in Mr. Marsh's accounts with the institution, although the securities of the bank in Boston have not been examined. The trustees of the Gilbert hospital corporation, however, have a different story to tell. In appears from their statement that three months ago the trustees dis-covered Mr. Marsh was insolvent, had been speculating heavily and had lost considerable money. They called on him to produce the securities of the corporation and restorday was set as the time when they should be turned over.

The trustees of the surporation are also directors of the bank, and the first intimation they had of any wrong was a note which Vice President Cunningham received from Mr. Marsh, which stated that his (Marsh's) dead, body would be found in the cellar of his summer home at An-nisquam.

Two messengers were at once disparched to Annisquam, six miles distant, and when they arrived at the house, Mr. Marsh was beard walking about a room in an upper story. The captain of his yacht, who is also janitor of the bank, was in the house, and on being informed of the centemplated suicide of his employer went upstairs to prevent it. For some reason he came down again immediately and sent a messenger to thoucester, but when he returned he found Marsh lying on the floor with a carbine in on-hand and a revolver in the other. The top of his head was completely blown off, while on a table near was a note reading: "If any one thinks this is a cowardly set let him try it."

"If any one thinks this is a cowardly not let him try it."

Marsh, who was a bachelor, fived the life of a reciuse for many years. His home is on the extreme point of rocks, almost inaccessible except by a narrow path, while there are no living rooms on the ground floor. It is known that he was year intercept and distinct the recovery of the property of the proper very intemperate, and during the past years had lost large sums in speculation, nevertheless having full run of the bank, attending to all investments, as well as those of numerous corporations and es-tates with which he was councered. He was treasurer of the Cape Ann Savings bank, of the Gilbert Home corporation, of the Gilbert Hospital corporation and trus-tee of the Gilbert charity fund, the Gilbert estate, the Hough estale, the George H Rogers estate, the Fuller-Davis estate, the estate of Samh M. Johnson and the Hil-

One of his bondsmen state I today that Marsh's bond to the Gilbert hospital would probably cover the shortage but it is rumored that his peculations from the other estates will be more than $100,000, the Hildrech estate being the principal suiferer.

It is surprising to many that foot ball players and other athletes regard a sprain or bruise of so little consequence. One reason of this is, they know how to treat such injuries so as to recover from them in a few days, while others would be laid up for two or three weeks, if not longer. Writing from Central State Normal School, Lock Haven, Pa., Mr. W. H. Losch, captain of Whooping Cough the base ball cinh and gymnasium says: "I Kidney Diseases, take pleasure instating, that members of our base ball club and myself have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm with most excellent results. I unhesitatingly recommend it as the Sold by Druggists, or sent prepaid on feet remedy for sprains, swellings, cuts and bruises, of any that I know." For sale by Grahler Bros., druggists.

The Czar at Versafiles.

Panis, Oct. 9.—President Faure arrived at the Russian embassy this morning in an open carriage drawn by four superb percherons, ridden by postillions. The czar and czarina, who had been awaiting his arrival, immediately entered the vehicle and drove off for Versailles, es-corted by a strong detachment of cutrasders. There was cheering from the crowds which lined the route, and the imperial visitors lowed repentedly to the people on tours addes of the avenue.
