A VERITABLE HURRICANE!

The Storm That for Two Days Swept the Atlantic Coast.

PIERCE VELOCITY OF THE WIND!

At Sandy Hook it Swept by at the Rate of Seventy-five Miles an Hour—Great Damage at Several Watering Places Along the Coast.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—A veritable hurricane has swept over this section of the country. Sunday and yesterday the wind blew with terrific force, reaching at Sandy Hook, a velocity of seventy-five miles an hour Sunday night. The tides rose to a height many feet greater than has been seen for years, and the waves all along the Atlantic coast swept in with a force that carried everything before them and did damage to the amount of hundreds of thousands of dollars. Sandy Hook and points along the Jersey coast felt the fury of the storm most of all, but Coney Island experienced, so far as has yet been learned, the most direful results. The beaches were swept clean, pavilions overturned and carried seaward, bathing houses and boardwalks, everything not far inland on the famous island was torn up and piled high beyond the coast line or carried out to sea.

At Brighton Beach the stone walks in front of the big hotel were under water, and the famous Solli concert hall was inundated and partially carried away. The well kept lawns in front of the Oriental hotel and Manhattan Beach hotel were laid waste and the lower portions of the hotels flooded. Innumerable smaller buildings were simply plucked up bodily and carried away by wind or waves.

Along the Jersey coast most of the damage done was to piers and to breakwaters. Preparations had been made, as forewarnings of the storm had been given some days before. As yet very little damage to shipping has been reported, for on account of warning many crafts delayed sailing, and others that had cleared returned for a safe anchorage.

Far Rockaway experienced yesterday the worst wind and wave storm in its existence. The water, pounded up with terrific force by the great waves, poured through the streets, flooded cellars, washed over lawns and carried away small buildings. The hotels and summer houses were surrounded and threatened with destruction. Hog Island added another big section to that portion that had previously gone to sea, and another such storm would wipe it and several other adjoining districts out of existence altogether.

The ferryhouse dock, boardwalk and pavilion of the Far Rockaway Improvement company were totally wrecked. The Casino, the United States hotel, the Tackapusha House and the Dolphin hotel were among those buildings with at least two feet of water on their ground floors. At Wave Crest the damage will amount to about $50,000. Nearly all the improvements made by the Lancaster Improvement company near this place within the last two years are washed away, piled up in broken masses or buried under tons of sand.

A great deal of damage was done at Edgewater, and the tide has risen so high as to threaten to undermine the Edgewater hotel. This huge structure was thought to occupy a place of safety, but nothing seemed to be safe in yesterday's rush of the waves. At Avenne several summer cottages were lifted from their foundations and completely wrecked.

In New Jersey all the lowlands were under water, and the usual washouts of railroads lying along the coast are reported. In this particular the electric roads suffered most. At Sandy Hook it was a fearful night for the observer, and for all who had reason to venture within sight of the sea. The waves broke higher than ever before, and at one time the old tower, which incoming and outgoing ships signal, shook and tottered as though it would be blown over.

The storm was the most devastating that has visited Sea Isle City since the great storm of 1889, which was accompanied by a tidal wave. The streets were flooded and many hotels and cottages along the narrow strip of sand between Townsend's and Corson's inlets were wrecked or badly damaged. The Brunswick hotel, the finest structure on that portion of the coast, fell in a mass of ruins.

North of Sea Isle City the fronts of many of the cottages have been undermined. Some of the cottages have already fallen, and others are ready to fall. Sea Isle City has been entirely cut off from train connection since Saturday. The branch of the South Jersey railroad, which was in the course of construction to Ocean City, is washed away for fully half a mile.

Long Branch was treated to one of the grandest sights ever witnessed there. Great rollers came in from the sea and dashed themselves with terrific force against the bulkheading, with a sound like a bombardment of heavy guns. Some of the rollers crossed the piers and poured into ocean avenue.

At Asbury Park thousands of people lined the shore and watched the fury of the waves and the destruction that came with every breaker. Hour after hour the pounding continued and every movable thing within the reach of the waves was used as a battering ram to break down the structures on the beach. The great boardwalk was pounded to pieces in many places. The marble monument, which marks the spot where the New Era went down in the early days of Asbury Park, was undermined by the waves and toppled over into the sea. In Egg Harbor City many houses were unroofed, and many people were forced into the streets.

Atlantic City Isolated.
ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 12.—The city is cut off from the outside world, both the Reading and Pennsylvania Railroad companies posting notices that trains could not be run in or out of the city because of the damage done to the roadbeds. There is no sign of the storm abating. Yesterday afternoon Charles Mason and his family were driven out of their home on the meadows by the water inundating the first floor. The husband put his family in a cart and pulled them to a road connecting with the city. At Chelsea Mr. and Mrs. Whitakers were taken to a boat from their home on hammocks, the water flooding the first story. The Brigantine steambent wharf, 300 feet in length, was washed away, and a frame building adjoining the ill fated Casino was torn down by the waves.

Three Killed by a Falling Rock.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 12.—Three men were instantly killed yesterday by a fall of rock in the Ladin mine. They are: Thomas Mitchell, of Mill Creek, aged 40, married and several children; George Puchowski, of Ladin, aged 24, unmarried, and John Patrus, of Mill Creek, aged 25, unmarried. The men were opening the gangway at the foot of the shaft, and, after firing a blast, had gone back and found a large piece of rock loose, but still hanging to the roof. While trying to force it from such a dangerous position the rock suddenly fell and crushed them beneath it. Their bodies were badly crushed.

Rector Keane's Probable Successor.
CLEVELAND, Oct. 12.—It is generally believed among the leading Catholic clergy of this city that Bishop Horstmann, of the Cleveland diocese, will be tendered the appointment of rector of the Catholic university at Washington, made vacant by the resignation of Bishop Keane. The bishop, who is at present in the east, has as yet given out nothing concerning his appointment, but it is said that he has been privately notified that he is the choice of the pope, and that his visit in the east is for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements for beginning his new duties.

Ex-Governor Waite's Attitude.
DENVER, Oct. 12.—In an open letter to the people of Colorado ex-Governor David H. Waite, who is a candidate for governor on the "middle of the road" Populist ticket, declares that the regular Populist convention in this state betrayed the party by its failure to recognize the candidacy of Thomas E. Watson for the vice presidency. Mr. Waite proposes to remain in the field as a candidate until election and work for the defeat of the Bryan and Sewall electoral ticket.

Pierce Mine Fire at Mt. Carmel.
SHAMOKIN, Pa., Oct. 12.—A fierce fire is raging in the coal ridge workings of Righer & Co.'s Mt. Carmel mine, and a line of pipe was laid to the burning mine yesterday in order to extinguish the flames by diverting the creek into that portion of the workings. The fire has been burning since Saturday, and the vein is thirty-five feet in thickness, so considerable apprehension is entertained by the officials and workmen as to the outcome.

Dan Lynch, on behalf of Sharkey, has accepted the proposition and awaits word from Corbett.

THE ARCHBISHOP'S VISIT.

Confirmation in the German Catholic Church Last Night.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES HELD TO-DAY

Nearly Six Hundred Children Confirmed in the Annunciation Church This Morning and Nearly Five Hundred in the Polish Church This Afternoon

Most Reverend P. J. Ryan, Archbishop of the Philadelphia diocese, arrived in town last night and is engaged in conducting confirmation services in the several Catholic churches. The arrival was unattended by any formal ceremony. After completing confirmation services in St. Mary Magdalene church, in East Creek, the Archbishop, escorted by several priests, came to town on a car of the Schuylkill Traction line, alighted at Chestnut street, and proceeded to the parsonage of the German Catholic church, where there was an informal reception.

At seven o'clock in the evening confirmation services were opened in the Church of the Holy Family (German Roman Catholic), the rite being conferred on sixty-five boys and girls. After singing by the choir the Archbishop delivered an impressive sermon setting forth examples for the children to use as guides. Upon the conclusion of the sermon His Grace asked the children to the altar railing to receive the sacrament. During the service and benediction the choir rendered "Ave Maria," "O Salutaris" and "Tantum Ergo." The singing of the choir was very effective.

The Archbishop was assisted in the ceremony by Rev. A. T. Schuttelhofer, pastor of the church; Rev. Diostorich, of Mahanoy City; Rev. Natch, of Ashland; Rev. Dugget, of East Creek; and Rev. Masson, of Mifflinville.

Upon the conclusion of the service the Archbishop and his escort retired to the parsonage, where a brief rest was taken, after which His Grace proceeded by carriage to the Annunciation church, where vespers were in progress. The Archbishop made a short address to the children present who were candidates for confirmation at this morning's service and then retired to the parsonage to be the guest of Rev. H. F. O'Reilly, the pastor, for the night.

At nine o'clock this morning confirmation services were opened in the Annunciation church. The edifice was crowded to the entrances and many people were unable to gain admission. The service was a very impressive one, and was made particularly so when nearly 600 children marched through the aisles of the church to receive the rite of confirmation. The boys proceeded to the girls, who were arranged in white and wore wreaths upon their heads. The stately figure of the Archbishop was clad in robes of purple and he also wore the beretta. During the march the children sang "Come, Holy Ghost." When the procession terminated at the altar railing the Archbishop delivered a sermon of instruction to the children, after which he administered his blessing and conferred the rite of confirmation. According to the faith this sacrament is that by which the Christian already baptized is fortified by the grace of the Holy Ghost to confess his or her faith freely and regulate life accordingly. As the rite is administered the hand is laid upon the head of the candidate and the forehead anointed with the holy chrism, while the sacramental words are pronounced.

During the service the children sang "Hail Sing a Hymn to Mary" and the choir rendered "Rose of the Cross." In the singing of "O Salutaris," Miss Maggie Lantry and Mr. William Hill rendered a solo and the choir rendered "Tantum Ergo." The service closed with the benediction and the blessed sacrament.

In these services the Archbishop was assisted by Rev. McManamin, of Mahanoy City; Rev. John McLoughlin, of Mahanoy Place; Rev. William McLoughlin, of Summit Hill; Rev. H. F. O'Reilly, the pastor, and Rev. Henry Naylon, the assistant pastor of the church.

At three o'clock this afternoon confirmation services were held in St. Casimir's Polish Roman Catholic church, when the holy rite was conferred upon nearly 500 children and the members of the church choir. After the service the Archbishop remained the guest of the pastor, Rev. J. A. Lenarkiewicz. At seven o'clock this evening the Archbishop will officiate at confirmation services in St. George's Lithuanian Catholic church. His Grace will be escorted to the church from the Polish parsonage by the Lithuanian band.

James Young has the reputation of producing first-class plays only. His "David Garrick" which will be presented at the theatre Thursday night, is no exception. It is a brilliant and powerful comedy.
