PROTECTION AND FREE TRADE.

Twenty-seven Years of Protection (1865 to 1892) decreased our public debt $1,747,301,878.
Three Years of Free Trade (1893 to 1896) increased our public debt $202-329,630.
These are the plainest reasons why McKinley should be elected president, the sooner the better.

A MORALIST AND A PATRIOT.

Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, in response to a written request of business men of Minnesota, of his position in regard to the issues of the present campaign, and says "the platform of the Chicago convention threatens the country with destruction of social order, with lawlessness and disorder." It becomes apparent with each succeeding day that the 10 to 1 theory is merely a pretense used to disguise the real object of the Bryan and Tillman adherents.

When, some months ago, says the New York Advertiser, Cardinal Gibbons, of Baltimore, was asked for an expression of opinion on the subject of the Chicago platform, he, "smiling, put the question by" with the assurance that the chief issue was one for financial experts and not for the Church to consider.

Quite otherwise Archbishop Ireland, a prelate famous for his liberalism, the great scope of his understanding and his ardent Americanism. He sees in this extraordinary political contest issues as broad as the Devological issues of morality and religion that force him to sound a warning note to laicist men of all denominations.

It is not merely a question as to what form of currency the United States shall employ, not one of expediency or advantage: it is one of principle. Shall the American people repudiate half their obligations and become a nation of cheats? But even that question is subordinate to another. He sees in the declaration of the Chicago platform the threat of secession, "the secession of 1861, which our soldiers believed they had consigned to eternal death at Appomattox, but which demands again recognition by the American people."

Justified in this characterization instantly presents itself in the language of the platform, which declares for state rights against the interference of the President with the forcible violation of Federal laws.
In this declaration the eloquent Archbishop sees the "annulment of the Union," a notice served upon the flag of America that outside the District of Columbia it is without power of self-assertion or self-defense.

The prelate is not less outspoken on the platform as subversive of social order and a menace to liberty in its attack on the Supreme Court, which he rightly declares to be the "palladium of American liberties," and there is no mistaking his position in the present crisis. He says: "I stand by the platform and the Presidential candidate of the Republican convention of St. Louis. I am opposed to the platform and the Presidential candidate of the Democratic convention at Chicago. The days of the civil war excepted, at no time did so great a peril threaten the country as that which is invoked in the political campaign of to-day. The question of free and unlimited coinage of silver is prominent in the foreground. This question has its importance but it is of a minor importance, in presence of other questions which are brought into issue."

"The monetary question" he says, "is, indeed, a secondary issue in this campaign. I have, however, my convictions in this matter.
The free and unlimited coinage of silver dollars at a ratio of 16 to 1 by the United States independently of the other great commercial nations into dollars which shall make legal tender will disturb the whole business of the country and bring upon it a financial depression far beyond anything which we are now experiencing."

"The best that the United States is able alone to whip England and the rest of the world into the coinage of silver at 16 to 1, or to force the value of silver up to $1.25 an ounce, is more nonsense. We are a great people, indeed, but we have not yet grown to that commercial strength that our country means the commercial world. Our national pride may give us extraordinary dreams of our importance, but it will not do to build the business of the country upon those dreams."

"I am absolutely convinced that the laboring classes will suffer the most of all from free silver coinage. And yet the laboring classes are those that are most urgently appealed to in this free silver movement.

A man who talks against free silver is put down at once as an enemy of the "common people." Well, for my part, I am willing to be called an enemy of the working classes, of the "common people," if I am in reality advising them for the good and serving their true interests. Those above all others in the land who should to-day be on their guard against the silver movement are the laborers of America."

How, in the face of this authoritative declaration by an American ecclesiastic of the highest standing, a co-religionist of Archbishop Ireland can vote for Bryan and anarchy passes comprehension.

Letter From Rev. Romig.

EDITOR HERALD:—The article in last night's EVENING HERALD headed "United Evangelicals Happy" contains two misstate-ments which I, as pastor of Ebenezer Evangelical congregation, feel duty bound to correct. The trouble in the Evangelical Association was not "originally based upon a dispute between factious as to where the general conference should be held." To precipitate it to press with violence and the followers of Dubbs pressed with violence when they forcibly, in 1891, prevented Bishop Bowman from entering our church in Allentown, in which he was to hold the annual conference. That was the precipitation, rather than the dispute whether the general conference should be held in Indianapolis, or in the bounds of the East Pennsylvania Conference district. In the article of last night it is also said that here, in Shenandoah, not one member was left to stand by the old church. There was, however, one member that faithfully stood by us as the church record proves. Anybody doubting this can come to the parsonage at 110 Cherry street and satisfy himself by examining the church record and by calling next door to the parsonage, where that member lives who is still a member among us.
One member, to be sure, is a small number, but one friend is a great majority left others have been received into the congregation worshipping at South West and Cherry streets. The rest of last night's article, so far as I know, is very fair and impartial statement. I might, however, add to the statement regarding the $2,000 spent in improvements a year before the Dubbs left the old church, that they left with a $1,500 debt on the church. Subscriptions can easily be secured and expenses can easily be made, but they are not so easily paid. The trouble in the Evangelical Association was brewing for a quarter of a century or more and gradually increased until the great separation took place, through which, no doubt, many souls were and will be lost. I consider it to be best for both parties in this unhappy affair to say no more about this trouble, but to write this to enter into a discussion, but whenever incorrect statements are made intentionally, or not intentionally, which are detrimental to the church of my choice I feel duty bound to correct them.

October Marriages.

Miss Jessie Conroy, of Ashland, and James E. Burdell, a rising young attorney of New York city, were married on the 5th inst., and they now reside at the latter city.

Adrian A. Barr, proprietor of the Mt.
Carmel Star, will take into himself a wife on the 25th inst., in the person of Miss Sadie A., daughter of Rev. Light, of Annville, Pa. Brother Barr has the well wishes of the newspaper fraternity, with the hope that his Star will shine brighter than ever.

Tomorrow morning Miss Ella Faust, of Ashland, and Aiden F. Callaway, of Trenton, N. J., will be joined in wedlock at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is a daughter of Samuel A. Faust.

John Conway, of Lost Creek, and Miss Barbara Sheehan, of Ashland, will be married some time this month.

On the 12th inst. Miss Ida C. Stofferan, of Pottsville, and Joseph A. Hoover, of Mt.
Carmel, will be pronounced man and wife.
The announcement is made of the impending marriage of Patrick Dolphin and Miss Lizzie Kennedy, both of Ashland.

To-morrow morning, in the Catholic church at Lost Creek, the marriage vows of P. J. McCormick, of Honesville, and Miss Mary McLaughlin, of Lost Creek, will be pronounced by Rev. Father Daggert.

B. J. Keiper and Miss Clara M. Goodsell, both of Ashland, will be married the latter part of this month.

John A. Haas, of Girmerville, and Miss Carrie Cleaver, of Ashland, will be married on the 21st inst.

Timothy Sullivan, blacksmith at the Hammond colliery, and Miss Katie Stack, of Girmerville, will be married in St. Joseph's Catholic church to-morrow.

Bernard Sheeran and Miss Mary McCoy, both of Centerville, will be joined in wedlock some time this month.

No Respecter of Persons.
That much dreaded disease diphtheria, is no respecter of person, age or condition in life. It attacks the rich and the poor, the young and the old. But it has met its unflinching foe in Thompson's Diphtheria Cure, which is just what its name indicates. No case of diphtheria was ever known where this medicine was used according to direction and failed to cure. Croup, hoarseness, quinsey, sore throat, etc., are equally removed by it.

Bull Contract Awarded.
The County Commissioners and County Controller yesterday opened bids for the printing of the ballots for the November election, at so much per column, as follows: Evening Chronicle, $96.50; Pottsville Republican, $96.70; Ashland Record, $95.00; Ashland Local, $85.00; Berk-meyer, Keek & Co., Allentown, $78.63 and Miners' Journal, $73.00. The contract was awarded to the Miners' Journal. Taking the minimum number of columns on the ballot, eleven, the amount of the bid is $808.

POLITICAL TALK.

The official ballot for Schuylkill county will contain eleven columns. This will require a sheet approximating 30x35 inches.
The School Board of East Mahanoy township has decided to prohibit the use of the school buildings for political meetings. The Republicans and Democrats have both held meetings in these buildings in the past.
Republican meetings will be held to-night as follows: Wadesville; speakers, J. G. Smith and George H. Gisher. At New Silverbrook; speakers, John Hall, Mass., and George Dyson. At Yatesville; speakers, R. P.
Sewank, Esq.

It is claimed by Attorney W. J. Brennan, of Pittsburg, that the certificates of candidates for the Legislature, which have been filed with the secretary of the commonwealth are invalid, as the law says they must be filed with the County Commissioners.
If this be true, these candidates will have to file nomination papers.

The Democratic meetings at Forestville and Middleport last night were failures, on account of the weather.

There will be a big Republican rally in St.
Nicholas on Thursday evening when Hon.
Charles N. Brum and others will speak.
There will be a parade at 7 o'clock sharp.
The McKinley and Hobart club of that place will have 80 members in line and it will be headed by the St. Nicholas band. The parade will move to the Suffolk school house, where the meeting will be held.

Arrangements are being made for a monster meeting in Shenandoah by the Republicans before the campaign closes. A speaker of national reputation will be sent here together with several local orators.

The outlook for the Republican county ticket was never brighter. The Democrats, at least the managers, fully realize this.

Many a day's work is lost by sick headache, caused by indigestion and stomach troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Bitters are the most effectual food for overcoming such difficulties. C. H. Hagenbuch.

MAHANOY CITY.

The Funeral of Henry C. Wadlinger Took Place This Morning.

MAHANOY CITY, Oct. 12.—The funeral of the late Henry C. Wadlinger took place this morning and was largely attended. Replein high mass was celebrated in St. Fidelis German Catholic church, Rev. Deiberich, officiating. Interment was made in St.
Fidelis cemetery. The pall bearers were Casper Gintler, Jacob Grimm, John A.
Webber, Joseph Kollar, Samuel T. Kopper and Valentine Kraster. An inquest was held last night on the death of the deceased by Deputy Coroner Fogarty and a verdict was rendered to the effect that the deceased came to his death by being struck by miners' train No. 56, drawn by engine No. 119, at Mahanoy weigh scales while he was standing on a path between the tracks.

A silver rally was held in Armory hall last night, notwithstanding the unfavorable the meeting adjourned Wilber and L. Y.

Sollenberger, Esq., had a lively discussion of the body of the hall that held quite an attendance for some time.

morning with but sixteen passengers, one

Scared by Hais.
A driver for one of the produce dealers in town makes periodical visits to his fair one in Mahanoy City. He often boasts of his bravery, but it appears that when out to the test he is not as brave as he pretends to be. While enjoying the company of his lady friend, at her home in Mahanoy City, the young man in question heard a gentle tapping, and thinking it was papa, he made a hasty retreat, and insisted that he take his hat. It turned out that the tapping was the noise created by rats in their midnight glee, and all that is necessary now is to "rat" in this young man's presence, and his bravery leaves him.

BANK ROBBER'S CONFESSION.
Surviving Sherburne Desperado Guarded by Military to Prevent Escaping.

LAKE MILLS, Pa., Oct. 12.—The young man under arrest here on a charge of having been implicated in the double murder and bank robbery at Sherburne has made a confession acknowledging that he was associated in the affair. He declares that the man killed while resisting arrest near Elmore was his brother. He declares that his brother planned the robbery and killed the two men in the Sherburne bank. He will not reveal his true name or the location of his home. He will be arraigned under the name of Jim McMillen, the name he gave when arrested.

The young desperado gives as his reason for not divulging his name that he has a praying mother and sister of very high connection and repute, and he will never allow them to stand the stigma of such a crime. He is the coolest man in Fairmount, although there is great danger of his dangling at a rope's end. The county officials last night called out fifty members of a local military company, and have them stationed inside the jail inclosure. A report was received from Sherburne that a mob was forming there to march on the jail here, but officers declare they will not surrender their man.
On the street a great deal of excitement exists.

Important Meeting of Populists.
CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Senator Butler, chairman of the Populist national committee, arrived here today to attend the conference of the committee. This meeting is expected to be an important one. It probably will deal with the question of fusion between Democrats and Populists on the electoral ticket. There has been some criticism in certain quarters of the course of the Populist committee in the matter of fusion, especially in the states of Colorado and Kansas, in which states Mr.
Watson resides, no recognition. There may be an effort to secure a change in those states so as to give Watson representation.

Ex-Treasurer Michelson Convicted.
CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 12.—Frank F.
Michelson, ex-city treasurer of Camden, was yesterday afternoon convicted of malfeasance in office. The indictment was the first of thirteen to be moved against him. Those charging embezzlement will be held until the minor charges are disposed of. Sentence will not be imposed until the other indictments are tried.

If you have ever seen a little child in the arms of another, you can realize the danger of the trouble and appreciate the value of instantaneous relief always afforded by DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure. For dysentery and diarrhoea it is a reliable remedy. We could not afford to recommend this as a cure unless it were a cure. C. H.
Hagenbuch.

manufacturers, and their workmen over this season's scale of wages is now believed will be amicably settled tomorrow at a conference to be held in Pitsburg.
One of the wage committee last night stated that both parties would agree to settle on 10 per cent. off of last year's list on small ware and 6 per cent. on large ware.
