LAST NIGHT'S GREAT RALLY

Poles and Lithuanians Hear the Issues in Their Own Language.

A BRIEF ADDRESS BY MR. BRUNN

The First Lithuanian Band Also Enlivens the Meeting—The Congressman Tells the Assemblage What a Voter Should Acquire.

The Polish and Lithuanian Republican mass meeting in Robbins' opera house last night was a complete success and met with the full expectations of the committee. The hall was filled, and even after Congressman Brunn concluding his brief address to the English speaking people and left the hall to attend a meeting at St. Nicholas, there remained a large gathering. The meeting was called to order by Hon. Joseph Wyatt.

The following were the officers of the meeting: President, Matt. P. Blazis. Vice Presidents, Charles Radziewicz, John Madala, Frank Buzekuski, John Borkanow, Joe Narow, L. Kaznusa, Peter Smanous, Frank Lisias, Andrew Machos, R. P. Kunncan, John Grabulis, Matt. Slaciskie, Andrew Miller, Stacey Astronskie, Wm. Naviskie, Charles Tomaszus, Tofie Manrusis, Andrew Carnalskie, Simon Corilla, Mike Vonzella, Valantine Cordiske, John Vandiskie, Joe Gibson, George Nounas, Leo Seborish, John Burke, Anthony Stank, Anthony Zebo, John Thomas, Joseph Augustus, Joe Stone, Mike Strates, Patrick Boriskie, Jacob Michal, George Szesanski, William Bender, Joe Retavage, John S. Moskatis, Enoch Rice, John J. Quinn, John Gudrigis, Peter White, Anthony Brailer, Frank Grable, William Neuwenter, Hon. Joseph Wyatt, Frank C. Reese, Charles Smith, Richard D. Reese, Thomas Grant, George H. Krick, John H. Reese, Secretaries, Frank Buzekuski and John Thomas.

Before the speaking commenced the First Lithuanian Band, which had previously paraded through several of the streets in the interest of the meeting, played a selection in the hall.

Congressman Brunn was the first speaker and occupied the platform but a few minutes, on account of his St. Nicholas engagement. His remarks were as follows: "Every citizen of every tongue, or language, ought to be able to get all the information he can on the issues of this campaign. It is immaterial from what clime you come, or what tongue you speak, unless you understand the issues that are involved you cannot vote an intelligent ticket. You must first know why you vote and what the result of your vote is, and what question is involved, that you may vote and know whether you are voting in favor or against an issue. It seems to me that following the history of the Polish and Lithuanian people, in the broad and comprehensive sense I mean, without distinction as to dialects within them, that if there are a people in the world who have suffered in behalf of liberty—for Republicans they are the Polish, Lithuanian and Hungarian people. Each country struggled with tyrannical power and fought with a record for heavy, gallant, heroic, and sacrifice not exceeded by any other people. Your history proves you want liberty. You are a liberty-loving people and, of all people, there are none more interested in the questions of this campaign than you are. As workingmen you will feel more keenly either good times or bad times. All miners and laborers, who are the brain and sinew of this country, will feel bad times quicker than men who have better employment. When times are good you get the benefit of it slower than others. You all know what the times were under Republican rule. There are many of you who voted for Cleveland four years ago. They told you then that if you would do that your wages would be better. You were told that free trade would give you good times; that you would have full working time—six days every week and better wages. Well, the time has passed. You know whether you have got better wages. You know whether you have got more work. The result is their promises were not fulfilled. They said they didn't want protection, but free trade. They find times have been getting worse. Now they have got something else and they call that free silver. They are introducing that as another fraud or trick to catch the votes of the people who don't understand the issue. I declare that ever since this country has been created there never was so bad, so sinful, so damnable a trick perpetrated upon the American people as that now under the head of what they call free coinage of silver. By that system they would take it out of the hands of the government and put it in the hands of men who own and control silver, and there is no limit to the power of these people, and in that way they will make the dollar worse every day of the year. Wheat and pork are going up and your free silver men started out with a lie when they stated that silver and wheat ran together throughout the markets of the world. The quotation of the last couple weeks prove the fallacy of this claim. While wheat and pork and other products have been going up, the silver is worth less to-day than ever. The silver dollar to-day is actually worth but 49 cents."

At this point Mr. Brunn produced a gold and silver dollar and held them side by side. "This one (the gold) is worth one dollar in itself, this one (the silver) is worth 49 cents; and this one (producing a nickel fac-simile of a dollar under free coinage) is what they propose to lead you with. How do you like it?" The fascinate was about the size, in circumference, of the bottom of a tin quart measure and roars of laughter burst forth as it was produced. Mr. Brunn concluded his remarks by stating that every man who votes for Bryan, Shepley and the Democratic ticket votes to say that the civil war was a failure in its results and that state rights are paramount to the authority of the United States government.

Dr. Julian Chapka, L. D., late of Philadelphia, followed with an address in the Polish language and his remarks brought forth frequent outbreaks of hearty applause. The doctor was eminently qualified to address his countrymen. He is a native of Austria-Poland and a graduate of the Lemberg University, Austria, where he made a special study of political economy. He has resided in this country 15 years. Adam Tabor, the butcher, tried to argue with the doctor at the close of the meeting, but was unable to hold his ground, despite the hope of P. W. Bernstein, who encouraged the movement in behalf of the silverites, and who did not have the courage to tackle the doctor himself.

Roman Dauksia, of Shamokin, spoke to the Lithuanian portion of the assembly, and his remarks were enthusiastically applauded.

Both speakers were questioned by Tabor and when they answered him and knocked off the coating of information he had received before attending the meeting he resorted to taunting the speakers that they had been hired to speak to their countrymen.

Pretty nearly everybody is going to Ferguson's theatre to-night to see James Young play "David Garrick."

Many special attractions will be introduced during the continuance of the fair, and everything will be done to make it pleasant for the friends of the company who attend. Monaghan, Sr., and James Morrissey were appointed a committee to attend the Borough Council meeting to-night and set forth the complaints of the property owners.

The woman had all the money sewed in her dress and gave it up. The couple returned to Brownsville and, unless the program changes, the woman will be sent to her parents in Poland. She is but 23 years of age and has only been in this country a year.

The indications are that James Young will be greeted with a large audience to-night. He is a favorite in Shenandoah, and his "David Garrick" is a great hit.

THE TROLLEY CAR WRECKED

Run Down by an Engine While Crossing the Tracks.

THREE KILLED, SCORE INJURED.

Of Those Wounded Two Will Probably Die. One of the Dead Was Ground to Pieces and the Others Lived But a Few Minutes.

HAZLETON, Pa., Oct. 15.—Three persons were killed, two fatally and a score of others more or less seriously injured in a trolley accident last night at the Hazleton crossing of the Delaware, Susquehanna and Schuylkill railroad and the Lehigh Traction line.

The dead are: Jefferson Kirschner of Hazleton, telegraph operator, William Stapleton of Milton, telegraph operator; David John Williams of Plymouth.

Among those injured are the following: Patrick Dond, conductor, fractured skull and three ribs broken; Morris Ferry, a boy, skull fractured and internal injuries; Sister Rose of Semanton, face cut and body bruised; Charles Mary Beles of Onondia, body bruised; Charles Hammes of Jonsville, face cut; John Hammes of Jonsville, body cut and bruised; Samuel Cunnifer, motor-man, head and hand cut; William Davis of Plymouth, leg broken. Eight others were seriously injured.

Of the injured Dond and Ferry are at the hospital, unconscious, and are not expected to live. Kirschner was ground to a shapeless mass beneath the railroad engine, and Stapleton and Williams lived but a few minutes after being taken from the wreck.

The accident occurred about 9 o'clock. Darkness had settled over the valley, and a heavy mist added to its intensity. The trolley car, piloted by Motorman Cunnifer had stopped just this side of the crossing, and the conductor had gone into the trolley station to deposit the mail pouch. The station is between two tracks of the railroad, which are thirty feet apart. The first of those had been crossed in safety, and the conductor, returning from the station, had given the signal to go ahead.

Just as the car reached the second track engine No. 2 was seen coming down the track. By that time Cunnifer had the car half way across the track, and the engine was almost upon him. The engine was in charge of Daniel Gallagher and was coming along tank first. The trolley was filled with passengers, and the motorman, seeing his only chance was to get across the track first, speeded his car. But the time was too short. The engine caught the rear end of the car, and tore it from the main portion, which was thrown over an embankment into a swamp.

Kirschner, who was standing or sitting near the rear end of the car, was caught by the engine and was dragged over a hundred yards down the track before the engine could be stopped and his almost unrecognizable remains taken from beneath it, leaving a trail of blood behind.

Farewell Reception to Cardinal Sattoli.

New York, Oct. 15.—The reception and dinner given by the Catholic club of New York to Cardinal Sattoli on the eve of his departure for Rome was held at the club house last evening. Large numbers of prominent Catholic clergymen and laymen, both from this diocese and from distant points, were present. In reply to the farewell address Cardinal Sattoli said: "Were I to endeavor to carry away with me in a magical way my affection for America, the high esteem and kindly feelings that I entertain for American institutions, the admiration I feel for the Catholic church of this country, I am sure that I would have to press into service another steamer larger than the Kaiser Wilhelm, which is to bear me away."

Prisoner Suicides in His Cell.

CAMBRIDGE, Md., Oct. 15.—Frank L. Thomas, in jail here charged with the murder on June 20 of Ambrose Wilson, at Linkwood, was found dead in his cell yesterday morning. He had ended his life by taking strychnine, which he had secreted in his cell. Thomas is said to have left property valued at $20,000. He was a sewing machine dealer, widely known in the Maryland and Delaware peninsula. Wilson was a school teacher, and well connected in Dorchester and Caroline counties. There appears to have been no provocation for the murder beyond an old quarrel between the men about politics.

New York's Monster Hotel.

New York, Oct. 15.—The fine new hotel Manhattan was opened yesterday. It is situated on the corner of Madison avenue and Forty-second street, having a frontage of 120 feet on each thoroughfare. The foundations of the building are laid upon solid rock twenty-five feet below the street level. The structure is fourteen stories high, and from its foundations to the highest point is 250 feet. A special court in the center of the hotel admits air and sunlight into the heart of the building. The grand hall is decorated in Italian Renaissance style, and the floors and walls are of marble.

Sensational Murder and Suicide.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 15.—A sensational murder and suicide occurred last night at the house of Nellie Reutz on George street. The circumstances indicate that the two victims agreed to tragically end their troubles and their lives together. The suicides were D. Harry Sollars, of Cripple Creek, Colo., and Cleo Russell, an inmate of the house, only 19 years old. Sollars left a check for $500 "for one funeral expense." The girl is alive, but cannot survive.

Breckinridge a Republican Nominee.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 15.—The seventh district Republican committee met here yesterday and resolved itself into a convention and nominated W. C. P. Breckinridge as that party's candidate for congress.
