CANTON, O., Oct. 16.—The first train lond of callers to see Major McKinley yes, torday arrived in a special train of six ears over the Cleveland, Canton and Southern railroad. The party was com-posed of farmers and business men from northern Evic county, Pa., and were in charge of W. J. Sell. This delegation was held ten or fifteen minutes for a second train of eight coaches filled with business men, farmers and other officers of Corry, D. Pa, and the two parties were combined and marched to the McKinley home, where one address sufficed for both. S. A. Smith spoke for the Corry party and W. S. Sell much disordered the McKinley suid: "You are here because you love your homes, your families and your country, and because you would have expression given on the third day of November of your highest hopes, your best thoughts and your loftiest aspirations for this great, free country. If the people of this coun-try want to put into public administra-tion and haw any settled policy, they must have both the executive office and the con-gress of the United States. You ennot gress of the United States. You cannot embedy your purposes into law by having the one or the other—you must have loth: and I trust that the people of Pennsyl-vania and the people of all the states of the Union will see to it that the national house and the senate of the United States are not neglected at the polls next No-vember.

"In this contest we have the aid and as-sistance of tens of thousands of Demo-erats, in every part of the country, who think more offlia honor of the government than they do of their old political associa-tion. We bid them welcome – welcome allies in this great conflict for the main-tenance of the public honor. Some people say we have not enough money. The trouble is, my fellow eithers, we have not enough confidence to put in circulation the money we now have. We have just as much money as we ever had in all our history, and it is as good as it ever was, but the trouble is those who have it are distrustful of the future and they won't invest it in influstries and give employ-"In this contest we have the aid and asinvest it in influstries and give employ-ment to labor. CHICAGO, Oct. 10 -A new turn of af-fairs was given to the Raddy-Maekin $2,000,000 will contest yesterday. Attor-neys for Mrs. Ruddy appeared in the su-preme court and had her appeal dismissed. On the death of Thomas Mackin, the wealthy contractor, his wildow, who has since become Mrs. Watson Roddy, entered into an agreement as to the property with the two children of Mr. Mackin by a former marrage. Subsequently it was claimed that Mrs. Huddy had violated this agree ment, and in the lawsuit which followed Mrs. Ruddy was defeated. She carried the case to the supreme court, a the dis-missed of the ense was entirely inexpected.
