Prominent local Populists, manordinarily in the con-fidence of the vice presidential candidate, have called, only to find that their leader barred to be served. have called, only to find that their leader begged to be excused. . Mr. Watson received the representative of the Associated Press at 10 o'clock last night. He politely, but firmly refused to be interviewed or say anything regarding the political situation or his letter of ac-ceptance. When asked to give out his letter he replied: "It will not be given out tonight. I have nothing whatever to say. Neither have nothing whatever to say. Neither have Mr. Roed or Mr. Washburn. They will leave for Atlanta sariy in the morn-ing, and if there is anything of interest to the public in our conference they will give it out tomorrow.

Mr. Watson makes no secret of the fact that his letter is in the hands of Chairman that his letter is in the hands of Chairman Butler and has been for several days. He is going to Atlanta tomorrow and there, it is balaved, he will meet Senator Jones, of the Denoeratic National committee. The state committees of both the Demo-crats and Populists will meet in Atlanta on the same day and the question of fusion on the electoral discer will be dis-cussed.

cussed. It is generally accepted as a fact here that the Democrats will make some sorr of fusion proposition. The Democratic leaders say there is no necessity for it, and expect streamons opposition inside the parts. Watson's close publicual friends in Thomson are firm in the belief that unless the electoral tickets are revised to suit him that his letter, now in the possession of Chairman Butler, will go to the public in its original form. They are also con-vinced that in this letter the nominec has expressed his opinion in his own vigorum expressed his opinion in his own vigorous and peculiar English of the fusion arrangements new obtaining in Kansas, Colorado and North Carolina.

GUTHER, O. T., Oct. 19.-Particulars were received here yesterday of a raid of the little town of Carney, about twenty miles east of here. Saturday night About 0 clock six masked and heaving armed outlaws, supposed to have been headed by the notorious "Pynamite Dick," one of the associates of the Dations and Bill Doulin, rode into the place and literally

Donin, role into the place and hitstany 'held up' the town. Carney is a town of about 800 people. The robbers entered the north with a great show of firstarms. Two of the out-laws entered the general store of B. Fouts, and compelled him and his son to open the safe. After scouring about $800 from them they bound both the father and son, threw them upon horses and carried them about two miles out of town, where they tied them to a trees

In the meantime the rest of the gaug had entered the pestollice, but failing to secure say thing of value they redded the both competing the peopletter and sev-eral traveling men who were stopping there to turn over their maney, watches and jewelry. Several sum for stores were also raided. Before entering Carney the outlaws had taken the precation to cut the telephone wires leading to Chandler, so that there might be no choice of a failine. During the raid the handlits kept up a fusillate of buillets in all directions retrorizing the inhabitants so that very little effort was made to redst the raiders. It was some time after the bandits had left before order could be veryed and at organized pursuit began. Finally, after In the meantime the rest of the gaug
