LAST NIGHT'S GREAT RALLY

Unfortunately Muddy Streets and Roads Interfered Somewhat.

FERGUSON'S THEATRE CROWDED.

Speeches Made by Congressman Stone, of Allegheny City, and D. C. Henning, of Pottsville—The Congressman Made an Excellent Address.

The first parade and general Republican demonstration of the campaign in town last night was a great success, in spite of disappointment from some sources from which the committee of arrangements expected substantial aid. The disappointments, however, were not due to lack of interest, but to weather conditions. The St. Nicholas McKinley and Hobart Marching Club, hoped almost to the last hour to take part in the demonstration, but finding that the condition of the roads left in such a bad condition by the recent rains did not improve, it sent a delegation to town by train to express regrets and say that with more favorable conditions the club will take part in the next demonstration. Mahanoy City sent a delegation with a similar message. Ashland was on hand with nearly a hundred men in attractive campaign uniforms and torches with flames that seemed to vie with the enthusiasm of the bearers. The marchers passed along the route of parade on the pavements, setting as escort with the Grand Band and the mounted guard under command of Chief Marshal James S. Williams and Edward Kester and M. P. Blazis, his aides, to the carriage containing the speakers and several prominent Republicans of the county. Tableau lights and fireworks made the route of parade brilliant and the cheers and other expressions of enthusiasm of the people as the marchers passed through the streets showed plainly that the campaign of education has caused as big a drop in the Bryan sentiment as the white metal has taken in the markets.

Upon arrival at Ferguson's theatre the Grand Band took a position on the elaborately decorated stage and rendered one of its favorite selections as the people poured into the theatre and filled all the available seats. The assemblage was a large one and the speakers were listened to with great attention.

The meeting was called to order by County Chairman S. Burd Edwards, of Pottsville, at about eight o'clock.

The following were the officers of the meeting: Chairman, Thomas Baird; Secretaries, William Beeve, W. G. Hess and W. J. Morgan; Vice Presidents, Edwin H. Williams, J. J. Price, John Boehm, A. D. Catholic University Rechartering.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The board of directors of the Catholic university adjourned yesterday, after having selected the names of three priests to submit to the pope, from which list Leo will select the successor to Bishop Keane as rector of the university. The names chosen are Father Conaty, president of the Summer school at Plattsburg, N. Y.; Father Jordan, of St. Elizabeth's church, Chicago, and Father Mooney, vicar general of New York. One of these will be designated by the pope as rector of the university. The vacancy on the board of directors of the university caused by the death of Bishop Marty, was filled by the election of Archbishop Jordan, of San Francisco. The board refused to accept the resignation of Bishop Keane as a director of the university, and he will continue to serve in that capacity.

A Father's Awful Crime.

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 22.—James Yellets has been committed to jail for causing the death of his child by cruelty. The testimony is strong against him. On several occasions he became greatly enraged at the child and seized it and held its feet over a stove until the skin was burned from them. The child died suddenly Saturday, and an examination of the body showed that it was covered with bruises from head to feet.

Dempster Jailed Again.

William Dempster, Jr., who was released from jail only a week ago, was arrested last night by Policemen Foltz and Stanton, at his home on West Centre street. The charge this time is assault and battery preferred by Dempster's father. While passing out of the alley ahead of the police on leaving his home Dempster used a dash for liberty, but was recaptured after a hot chase. One of the officers fired a shot after the fugitive, but did not hit him. Justice Cardin committed Dempster in default of $200 bail and he was taken back to jail this morning.

To-morrow evening closes the seventh week of this revival movement. Everybody welcome. The good bynans of the church are sung heartily.

Guarantee Wanted.

Manager Fahey, of the Shenandoah foot ball team, says he can engage the Temperance team of South Bethlehem for a game here on Thanksgiving Day, providing the people of the town will guarantee expenses. It will be necessary to raise the guarantee before the visitors can be brought here.

GEN. HARRISON HOME AGAIN

He Returns to Indianapolis From His Stumping Tour.

CANDIDATE BRYAN CRITICIZED!

General Harrison Attacks the Democratic Candidate's Reference to "Those People Who Save the Country Every Year at So Much Per Save."

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 22.—General Harrison arrived at his home in Indianapolis last night at 7:40. Leaving New Albany at 10 o'clock in the morning, he made eleven speeches before reaching Indianapolis. There were notable gatherings at Salem, Orleans, Bedford and Bloomington. At Salem he said in part: "Mr. Bryan proposes to abandon the money system we have now and to introduce the free coinage of silver. When a change is proposed the first thing you want to do is to ascertain what the present conditions are and then how they are to be changed. The present conditions are that we are a bimetallic country. We are mining both gold and silver as money—about $100,000,000 of silver and about $500,000,000 of gold and paper money, based on and redeemable in coin. Every silver dollar and every paper dollar is maintained on an equality with gold. You don't stop to look at it; you don't consult a bank director further than to see whether it is genuine. If it is not counterfeit it goes, and it goes for 100 cents on the dollar, paper money, gold money or silver money. "The Democrats say that this is practically the gold standard, and so it is, and they say they want a double standard. A standard is a measure. You have a standard bushel, a standard peck, a standard yardstick. They are measures, and just so the standard dollar is a measure. The others are measures of quantity or length; this measure is a measure of value. I want to know how you can maintain two standards if they are not of the same size or length. Can you have two standard bushels when one is only half as much as the other? Can you have two standard yardsticks when one is only half as long as the other? You cannot maintain a double standard of weight or measure or value unless each one of them is the equivalent of the other. "We are using silver now, but the government is buying the silver at the market price; it is coining it on its own account; it is making whatever profit there is in it for the people; it is putting behind this silver dollar the pledge of this government that it will maintain its equality with the gold dollar. We limit the amount that we coin, and by limiting the amount, by putting this government's pledge behind it, we can maintain a certain amount of silver at parity with gold, and we are doing it now. Their proposition is that we shall turn this all over to the mine owners; that this government shall build its costly mints, equip them with costly machinery, pay high salaries to their assessors and minters and coiners, and that we shall put all this freely at the service of the man who owns these silver mines. A dollar like that, unsupported by the government, unlimited as to the amount of coinage, cannot be maintained at par. "It is proposed that this great government, with its bonds outstanding, held by trust companies, held by savings banks as security and investment for the small earnings of the widow and the orphan and the workman who has made his deposit, shall, instead of paying in one hundred cent dollars, as promised, discharge all those public obligations in fifty-cent dollars. "The people of this country love it; they love its honor. If they had not loved it, if they had not held its honor in priceless esteem, they would not have sent out those great armies in the civil war. They loved it so that men died for it with the light of glory in their faces as the light of life went out. They loved its honor commercially, and they will not have this government put in a position of repudiating one half of its just obligations. "Mr. Bryan has spoken with some contempt of those people who he says have been for thirty years saving this country every year at so much a save. Whom did he allude to? These veterans who escorted me to this stand? That band of Union veterans which has recently been traveling over the country speaking to the people and especially to their comrades, on these great issues? Did he mean that gallant man, that heroic patriot, that man of god, General Howard, who gave an arm to this country in the war? Did he mean brilliant old General Scott, who gave a leg to his country in the war or did he mean Corporal Tanner, who gave both legs to his country in the war. "I spent some time this summer in the east, and I bring you the assurance that there will be no Democratic stand east of the Allegheny mountains. The great campaign state will roll up a majority for McKinley that will take them into Christendom to count. Connection that has almost invariably been Democratic, will have a majority for McKinley. Now Jersey, always Democratic, will give 30,000 majority for McKinley. I don't know, unless they introduce some short-handled method of computation, how they are going to count the majority in Pennsylvania. "Bryan has hopes of Indiana, but the people of Indiana love the flag and the constitution. They sent out as many brave men in proportion to their numbers as any state to maintain Lincoln's view of the constitution, and they are not going to surrender to the boy orator of the Platte. Indiana has paid her debts honestly and insists that the United States shall."

MISS CAROL AGNES CLAVER, of Ashland, and John F. Haas, a prominent merchant of Girardville, were married yesterday at the former place, in the Methodist church. They are now on an extended wedding tour.

The wedding of Miss Kate Bryan and Barney Purcell, both of Mahanoy City, is announced to take place shortly.

Miss Ida C. Stoffman, of Pottsville, and J. H. Hoover, coal inspector for the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, at Mt. Carmel, were married yesterday at the bride's home. They will reside at the latter place.

Frank N. Bolly, son of Hon. James B. Bolly, was married to Miss Charlotte Tyson, at Pottsville, yesterday in St. Patrick's Catholic church. The groom is well and favorably known here.

If you want a fine wedding cake, let Otto make it for you.

Enfounded Report. A report has been circulated that Thomas Butts, formerly of this place, was killed in the mines at Mt. Carmel on Tuesday. An investigation shows that the report is unfounded and in all probability arose from an accident in the mines at Mt. Carmel in which Jonathan Butts, also a former resident of this town, was injured, but not dangerously.

Not the Right Man. Yesterday afternoon word was received in town that a third man supposed to be one of the Cambridge colliery bushed robbers had been arrested at Mt. Carmel. C. & I. Police-man Bedea went to Mt. Carmel this morning, but returned at noon without a prisoner. He said the arrest was a mistake and that the man taken into custody was not one of the men wanted.
