The general election in all the wards, townships, districts and boroughs of the county is to be opened between the hours of six and seven o'clock in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clock in the evening, when all the polls shall be closed.

Every person, excepting justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the Government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also that every member of Congress, and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common councils of any city or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector or Clerk, of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector, Judge, or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for, except that of an election officer.

The Inspectors and Judges of the Elections shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district in which they respectively belong before seven o'clock in the morning, and each of said Inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of said district.

In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge at the next preceding election shall act as inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place; and in case the person elected judge shall not attend, the inspector who received the highest number of votes for judge at the said election next after the said inspector who received the highest number of votes for inspector, or in case no inspector or judge shall attend at the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward or district for which such officers shall have been elected present at such election, shall elect one of the number to fill such vacancy.

It shall be the duty of the several assessors of each district to attend at the place of holding every general special or township election during the whole time said election is kept open for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judges when called on in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such an election, or such other matter in relation to the assessment of voters as the said inspectors or either of them, shall from time to time require.

SUFFRAGE QUALIFICATIONS.

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections.

First—He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second—He shall have resided in the State one year (or if having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the State he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months immediately preceding the election.
