STIRRING RESOLUTIONS PASSED!

By a Mass Meeting Held in New York Under the Auspices of the Irish National Amnesty Association—The Condition of Dr. Gallagher and Whitehead.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Under the auspices of the Irish National Amnesties association of this city, which is affiliated with the organization of the same name in the United Kingdom, a mass meeting was held last night at the Grand Opera House to protest against the treatment extended to Irish and Irish-American political prisoners in English prisons. The meeting was presided over by the Hon. Morgan J.
O'Brien, judge of the supreme court.

The following resolutions were read and adopted:

"Whereas, England has been cruel to her political prisoners to such an inhuman extent that at least six men have been driven mad, twice as many hurled to the grave, and others so shattered, mentally and physically, as to be rendered incapable of taking their places again among men to fight the battle of life.

"Resolved, That we, American citizens, in public meeting assembled, denounce the treatment to which these prisoners have been subjected, as unworthy of even a nation of the lowest barbarians, and protest against its continuance in the case of the political prisoners who are still held in England's dungeons.

Whereas, We have seen Dr. Thomas Gallagher and George Albert Whitehead, two most worthy citizens of our country, the former a physician of eminence, the latter a clever mechanic, and both physically and mentally without a blemish when they left these shores, returned to us after thirteen years mental and physical torments, fit only to be detained until death relieve them, in an asylum for lunatics; and

Whereas, Their condition is due, in the opinion of specialists, to the brutalities which were inflicted on them by the English government, brutalities shocking beyond conception, according to eye witnesses.

Resolved, That we, the fellow citizens of these sufferers, hereby record our horror at the cruelties, had as ever imagined by Turk or Neapolitan, practiced upon them, and declare that England in the face of the world, in instead of posing about atrocities in Armenia, should hide herself in seclusion and ashes for her own atrocious misdoings in the guise of civilization, and Resolved, That we hereby respectfully call upon our government to make such protest without delay that these barbari-ties must cease, and the world stand against at England's barbarism and hypocrisy, as will insure the cessation of such barbarities, and the release of these men, all of whom were convicted on unknown and unproven testimony and under a law hurriedly elected by parliament to secure their imprisonment.

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be sent to President Cleveland, Secretary of State Olney and other members of the cabinet and to the representatives in both houses of congress.

The secretary read the report of the committee which recently visited Dr. Gallagher and Whitehead at Amityville. The report was as follows:

"Your committee appointed to take charge of the released prisoners and see that they are properly cared for would respectfully report that we visited them at the Long Island Home, Amityville, and found them in about the same condition as they were when they arrived in this country as far as their mental condition is concerned, but their physical condition is much improved. From Dr. Gallagher you cannot get any connected conversation, only that he considers himself ill treated, inasmuch as he has no money in his pockets to be a gentleman. He is continually writing letters to friends to send him money from some ranging from $50 to $2,500. Of course those letters are not sent out. In the case of Whitehead all he seems to want is work, in order that he can take care of a wife and large family who believes are depending upon him for support. We, of course, are aware of the fact that he has no wife or family."

Speeches were made by Judge John H.
McCarthy, Assistant District Attorney John F. McIntyre, Hon. John E. Fitzgerald, of Boston, and Rev. Dr. McGlynn.
Dr. McGlynn said that the movement was an orderly one. It was an appeal for mercy for men whose only fault was that they loved their country well. They were no ordinary common criminals. The highest of authority had declared that they were not murderous dynamiters. They had not been convicted upon sufficient evidence. Dr. McGlynn urged that there should be no feeling of hatred manifested on the part of Irishmen against the English people because of the condition of Dr. Gallagher and Whitehead. The officers of the English prison in which the men were confined were to blame.

Tried to Kill an Officer.
LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 26.—Dick Redmond, a member of a notorious gang of thieves, made a desperate attempt Saturday night to murder Constable John Jacobus. The desperado had been captured at the house of Mary Kirchoff and was being led off to jail handcuffed to one of the officers, when, with his disengaged hand he drew a razor and made a vicious cut at the officer. The blade cut through a heavy watch chain which alone saved Jacobus' life. He then caught the blade in his hand and had two fingers cut. Redmond was then overpowered and locked up.

Charged with Robbing a Warehouse.

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 25.—Frank Samson was arrested here yesterday afternoon on a charge of robbing the tobacco warehouse of H. H. Miller, which adjoins No. 4 engine house of the fire department. He was a frequent visitor of the engine house.
The proprietor of the warehouse was in his office on the night of the robbery, Oct. 14, and heard a noise, but could discover nothing, and did not learn of his loss until the following day. Miller's firemen neighbors helped him to search the building, and they had the active assistance of Samson. The tobacco, amounting in value to several hundred dollars, was recovered from the person to whom Samson sold it.

Safe Crackers Captured.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Oct. 25.—Four of the burglars who blew open the safe in the Northern Central station, at Boaring Branch, Thursday night, were captured Saturday in the mountains near Morris, Tioga county, while playing cards about a fire. As the posse of eight men, in charge of Constable Hart, approached the gang, the robbers started to run. One of the men got tangled in a fallen tree top and was taken at the point of a gun, while another fell on his knees when a gun in the hands of a deputy was pointed in his face from behind a tree. This gun, by the way, was not loaded. Two more of the men fell flat upon the ground when commanded to stop.

Pennsylvania Constables' Fees.

CARLEISLE, Pa., Oct. 25.—In the suit brought by John McCoy, a Carlisle constable, against the county of Cumberland Judge Biddle decided that a constable can only charge fees for one defendant named in the warrant. The opinion also allows the constable a fee for making his quarterly returns and also a ten cent mileage rate for the distance traversed in making said returns.

A SUNDAY NIGHT SHOOTING.

One Man Receives a Pistol Shot Wound in the Side.

SCALP OF ANOTHER LAID OPEN.

The Former Was Removed to the Miness Hospital This Morning. He Got Only One of the Six Shots Fired at Him—It Was a Brawl.

There was a desperate brawl on South Main street, near the Pennsylvania station, last night, in which one man was shot and another victim had his scalp badly torn, although neither was dangerously injured.

The man who was shot is Thomas Lafley, who resides in Toole's row. He received a bullet in the left side and near the arm pit.
Dr. J. Pierce Roberts attended him last night and this morning the patient was removed to the Miness' hospital.

The developments of the case are somewhat peculiar. Shortly after the shots were fired the police appeared upon the scene and arrested two Poles, John Smith, of town, and Anthony Patisius, of Gilberton. They were the only men at the place and no complaint was made at the time that anybody had been shot. The Poles were drunk and were taken to the lockup. Upon a search it was found that each had a revolver on his person. Smith's revolver was fully loaded, but the six barrels of Patisius' weapon were empty. Later in the night the men sobered up and were discharged after paying the costs and borough fines to Chief Burgess Burns. Patisius had a bad scalp wound and Dr. Stein was called to attend him. The doctor put three stitches in the gash and the man started for his home.

Patisius said he sustained the injury in a scuffle with some men on South Main street, but neither he nor his companion could tell a connected story of the affair.

After the men were discharged the police learned that Lafley had been shot in a scuffle with two Poles on South Main street and it then developed that the injury had been sustained in the shooting which, up to that time, had been looked upon as a harmless one. Smith was hunted up, re-arrested and put under bail for a hearing before Justice Cadin this evening. Patisius could not be found, having gone to his home in Gilberton, but it is expected he will be taken into custody in time for the hearing to-night.

The story Lafley tells is that he was, on his way home from Mahanoy Place last night in company with his brother-in-law, Robert Suedden, when they met Smith and Patisius and accidentally jostled them. The latter two were very drunk and precipitated a fight.
Lafley says he picked up a piece of rock to defend himself and Patisius, who had drawn a revolver, was shooting wildly. Suedden says that Patisius fired six shots in all, but was too drunk to aim and it was not known that Lafley only received one of the bullets.

Wreck at Quakake.
A disastrous wreck occurred at Quakake at 1:30 this afternoon. A loaded coal train of the New Jersey Central Railroad dived into the end of a loaded P. & E. coal train. The caboose and a large gondola of the latter were shattered to splinters. The Central engine and tender were badly damaged and nine cars derailed. The road was blocked by the wreckage. The passengers of the afternoon train were transferred from one end of the wreck to the other. The cause of the accident, it is said, was the failure of the P. & E. brakeman to go back far enough to flag the Central train.

To Be Tried at Pittsburg.

Court at Philadelphia, has decided that Harry Rubinski, who was arrested in town several States mails for fraudulent purposes, and rested in Iowa a day or two later on the same charges, must stand trial in the western district of the United States Circuit Court, which means that the cases will be tried at Pittsburg.

Kimmel's Nerve and Revolver Frightened the Highwayman, However.

At about five o'clock Saturday evening when William Kimmel, Jr., of North Jardin street, was driving up the Catawissa side of Lawet mountain on his way home from Shopton, two men suddenly jumped from the bushes at the roadside and exclaimed, "Hold on, young man; hold up a bit." One of the men grabbed the horse's bridle while the other walked towards the buggy. Kimmel promptly whipped out a revolver which he pointed at the man who was approaching and asked, "Well, what do you want?" There was no answer. Both men flung back into the bushes as fast as their legs could carry them and Kimmel continued his journey to town without further molestation.
