The revolutions, therefore, which may take place in the comparative value of gold and silver will be changes in the state of the latter rather than in that of the former." — Alexander Hamilton.

THE CLOSING DAYS.

Four more days and the political coate will have closed. It has been a most extraordinary canvass, in this county as well as the nation. The question of the individuality of the detellidates in the local fight is of supreme importance, while in the national contest for President and members of Congress it is a minor but important considera-. While much has been said by many of our indiscrete party papers against the Demserutic cambidate for President as a man, yet his private character will compare favorable with that of his political opponent. Bryan, Inwever, is without the necessary oxperfence, and the American people can always by trusted to reject an inexperienced man me President, and choose only the agature statesman to golde the ship of state.

We have had no occasion to change our views as to the ultimate outcome of the mational contest. As we have previously stated, the American people can always be fruited to choose the better of the two cambidates, and the conviction is growing that on the amorning of the 4th of November the nows will be liashed over the wross recording the grandest victory yet activeed by the Republican party. GENERAL MACEO'S PROGRESS

The Cuban Issurgent Leader Has Invaded the Havana District.

KEY WEST, Fla., Oct. 29 - Passengers by the Mascotte, from Havana, report that General Antonio Macco, with 2,600 troops, broke through the troohs and is now in the Havana district. He went over Havana. Macoa left General Rica in charge of his troops in the province of Pinar del Ric, with 10,000 men in the insurrent stronghold.

The report that the Spanish troops had cartured his camp was true, but it was the place where the insurgents were awaiting a favorable opportunity to cross the trocha, and after Maceo had brotten camp. General Monez, of the Spanish army, with 1,000 men, made an attack on Antonio Maceo on the hill known as Cacarajicaras. Maceo in the meantime retreated by the rear of his camp with his forces and atters of the trocha.

Macco sent-orders into the town for the women and children to leave before the bombardment, but the Spanish general, Arolas, refused to allow them to leave, saying that they should all perish to but no gother. Mucoo then bomburded the town learned. and passed through the trochatothe province of Havana, where he is now, to meet Gomes. Munez attacked the hill where he thought Macco was, and only found a small letachment of insurgents on the hill to distract the Spanish general's attention white Macco attacked the trochs.

A TEXAS TORNADO.

A Funnyl Shaped Cloud Leaves Destruction to Its Paths.

Situation, Tex., Oct. 3d -Yesterday alternion at 5.45 o'clock a well defined tornado formed in Squirrel Creek bottom, four miles west of the village of Parmington, and about ten miles west of this city. Parties who saw it at its inception say that out of a seething, tumbling mass of inky clouds a funnel shaped column de scended until It touched the earth, and then it began to move northeastward, accompanied by the usual territle crash and roar as it tore through the bottoms, upporting trees and demolishing everything in its path, which for the first mile was thirty or forty yards in whith. first house it is known to have struck was on the George Duke farm, one mile west of Howe, and about five miles from the starting point. No one was hurt at this

From this point until it struck the Jim-Farris farm, two miles south of the city, distance of perhaps two miles, it is sown to have risen and descended several times, and what damage It did has not been ascertained.

Seveni parties have gone to that see tion, but it will be saveral hours before definite information can be had. At the Farris place a tenant but occupied by a family named Hayes was literally torn to pieces, and every member of the family was more or less injured. Hayes is thought to be family hurt.

and a half east of the city, but the cloud-burst which accompanied it was furious in the eastern portion of the city. The houses as fur down as Cleveland avenue are mud bespattered, the same as was the ease during the great storm May 15. After earing down a vacant house east of the Clem Fitch place on the Bonham road about a mile east of College Park suburb, the cloud rose in the air and went a distance of two miles, when it descended, Elopement Results in Marriage.

New York, Oct 23 -It is announced in this city that Mrs. Julia Borland Higginson and James Wheatland Smith have been married in Paris. The marriage is the sequel to an elopment which shook Boston society last November. Mrs. Hig-ginson was the wife of Francis Lee Higinson, one of the most prominent and wealthy bankers of Boston, and a mem-ber of the most exclusive clubs of that city. When she eloped she left four children, one of them a daughter is years old, who had just made her debut in society After they reached Italy she wrote her husband asking him to take her back, but Instead he sent her $100,000, and a divorce case followed.
