Robbed Last Night.

Anthony Weingilowski conducts a saloon at the corner of Coal street and Dear alley. Last night about 12 o'clock he closed his place of business and retired for the night. He arose at 4 o'clock this morning and upon entering the saloon he noticed that thieves had visited the place. The robbers tried to effect an entrance by removing a tin sign in the door, but without success. They next tried a window on the side of the house which was removed and taken to a blacksmith shop nearby. They ransacked the entire first floor and secured 300 cigars. All the whiskies and brandies which adorned the bar, and a overcoat belonging to the proprietor and a quantity of beer and whiskey glasses. They left the place with all the lights burning bright and two half glasses of beer on the counter. The thieves are not known.

STYLES FOR NOVEMBER.

We have just received the very latest and newest patterns of neckwear for November, which we are offering at popular prices. At the U. P. HOTEL, last store, 13 East Centre St.

Keep the Pavement Clear.

The workmen engaged in the completion of the stone foundation for the new church at the corner of Oak and West streets, should be more careful and see that obstructions are removed from the pavement when they quit work. Mrs. Charles Palmer fell over a large stone there, but fortunately she sustained but slight bruises.

Jumped a Board Bill.

William Statkis, of East Raspberry alley, was taken to the Pottsville Jail by Constable Gibson this morning to await trial for jumping a board bill of $12.

FINAL REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Hales Penrose, McCarrel and Brumm to Speak Monday Night.

The Republicans of town and vicinity will hold their final rally on Monday night, next, and the public will have an opportunity to listen to some of the best speakers who have been expounding the cause of Sound Money and Protection in this state.

An invitation is extended to all voters, irrespective of party, to attend the meeting and hear the issues of the campaign intelligently discussed by Hon. Hales Penrose, of Philadelphia; Hon. S. J. McCarrel, of Harrisburg; Hon. Charles N. Brumm, A. B. Keely, Esq., of Philadelphia; W. J. Swoope, Esq., of Clearfield; Hon. H. D. Saylor, of Pottstown, and local speakers.

Great preparations are being made for the event, and the indications point to an immense throng of voters to hear this able array of orators. Senator Penrose is one of the most brilliant orators in the state, and the fact that he is a prominent candidate for United States Senator, to succeed Hon. Cameron, will cause many to be present.

Attend the final rally in Robbins' opera house Monday evening.

Inquire of the first person you meet how our shoes wear. That person will be our customer all right. Everybody is.

The Board Adjourned.

A regular monthly meeting of the Board of Health was called for last evening and in pursuance of the call four of the members, Messrs. Morrison, McHale, Malone and Holman, assembled in the Council Chamber, after Secretary Curtin read the minutes the Board adjourned in accordance with President Spaulding, whose wife died on Thursday. Before the adjournment the following was adopted: "We have been pained to learn of the sad bereavement of our worthy President, Dr. S. C. Spaulding, in the death of his esteemed and loving wife, and take this occasion to express our most earnest condolence with him. As a mark of our further respect, Resolved, That this Board do now adjourn to meet Wednesday, Nov. 4th."

If you want a fine wedding cake, let Otto make it for you.

Accident on the Trolley.

A distressing and probably fatal accident occurred on the Schuylkill Traction Company's line last night, by which John Harick, of Mahanoy Plane, will probably lose his life. The car was in charge of Robert Kleese, motorman, and Frank Flaherty, conductor, and the accident occurred at 10:15 o'clock last night. Harick was lying on the track in a drunken stupor. The car passed over his body, cutting off his right leg at the knee, left leg badly smashed and right side horribly bruised. He was removed to the Miners' hospital, and his recovery is doubtful. Harick is sixty years of age and is a widower.

ENTIRE NEW STOCK.

Refowich, the Clothier, Makes a Big Cleaning Out Deal.

L. Refowich, the proprietor of the One Price Clothing House on South Main street, yesterday made a big deal by which he disposed of the entire old stock of clothing in his place to Marris & Co., the Luzerne county auctioneers. The transaction was the largest bulk sale of clothing ever made in the town and the goods filled 25 large cases. Mr. Refowich was obliged to make the sale in order to make room for a mammoth new stock he had purchased for the fall and winter trade and which is now in the big store. The stock is so large that the many tables evak under the great weight. It embraces all the latest styles in the best make of clothing for men, boys and children and overcoats and suits. Mr. Refowich says he will sell every garment at bottom rock price. The stock includes all sizes, but should anyone difficult to suit be unable to find just what he wants Mr. Refowich can furnish suits to order, being the local agent for Hammersough & Bro. of New York, the greatest merchant tailoring firm in the world. No "barking" is needed at his store, as no competitors resort to it. All goods speak for themselves, and he treats all customers in a gentlemanly manner.

Shoe making and shoe selling is our business. We make them good and sell them cheap.

FACTORY SHOE STORE.

Confirmed to-day.

Isidore, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wolf Levine, was confirmed in the Kehelth Israel synagogue according to the Jewish rites to-day. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Mitnick. Many people from town and throughout the county witnessed the ceremony.

A FEW POINTS

For the People of Shenandoah and Vicinity to Consider.

In buying winter CLOTHING and OVERCOATS it is everybody's interest to do the very best they can for the money. We are the largest and cheapest clothing house in Schuylkill county and can guarantee every purchaser to our store will get perfect satisfaction. Our methods of doing business is to give every customer good value for their money and with them rests the secret of our success. Our new store which now gives us about twice the room we had before is loaded down with this season's Clothing and Overcoats in Blue, Black, Gray, Brown, and almost any color and style to suit the most exacting. Our stock of Nigger head chevrons, plain chevrons, Astrakhan chevrons and hundreds of other styles cannot be surpassed in the county, and our Overcoat Department never countered the assortment that we are showing this season in Blue, Black, Light Brown, Gray, Kersey, Beaver, Melton, Montauk, Cheviot and Ulmilla qualities at prices that were never before offered to the people of Shenandoah, and never will be again. It is not necessary for us to coax the customers from the street into our store as other dealers do to buy, as the bargains we offer are big inducements in themselves. Our stock of Sain Lined, Diagonal and Waxed Dress Suits were never offered at the prices we sell them this season. Our stock of Soft and Crush Hats never were as large as at present. We buy goods by the case and not by the half dozen as other dealers and therefore get bigger inducements of which the customer gets the benefit of this, as well as we do. It will pay you to call on us and inspect our stock before purchasing elsewhere, as we are here to do business.
