ENTIRE NEW STOCK.

Refowich, the Clothier, Makes a Big Cleaning Out Deal. L. Refowich, the proprietor of the One Price Clothing House on South Main street, yesterday made a big deal by which he disposed of the entire old stock of clothing in his place to Marcus & Co., the Linnecore county auctioneers. The transaction was the largest bulk sale of clothing ever made in the town and the goods filled 25 large vans. Mr. Refowich was obliged to make the sale in order to make room for a mammoth new stock he had purchased for the fall and winter trade and which is now in the big store. The stock is so large that the many tables crowd under the great weight. It embraces all the latest styles in the best make of clothing for men, boys and children and overcoats and suiters. Mr. Refowich says he will sell every garment at bottom rock price. The stock includes all sizes, but should anyone difficult to suit be unable to find just what he wants Mr. Refowich can furnish suits to order, being the local agent for Hammerlund & Bro., of New York, the greatest merchant tailoring firm in the world. No "hacking" is needed at his store, as some competitors resort to. All goods speak for themselves, and he treats all customers in a gentlemanly manner.

NET DEATH ON THE RAIL.

Edward Hay, of Robinson's, Struck by an Electric Car.

An accident occurred on the Lakeside Railway, on Saturday night, which resulted in the death of Edward Hay, 41 years old, and a resident of Robinson's Park. Hay was on his way home from Mahanoy City, and when near his residence at dawn upon a bridge crossed by the electric road, and it is presumed fell asleep or became drowsy. The car that struck Hay was in charge of Motorman Daniel Walters and Conductor John Thomas, and was the last car that left here Saturday night.

The motorman did not see Hay until after sounding a sharp curve, when the brakes were immediately applied, but too late to save Hay. He was struck on the side when arising from his position and dashed against a pole. He was covered by debris, and died shortly after being removed to his home.

A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of accidental death. Hay is survived by a wife and seven children.

All Captive Sinners. All captives sinners of Shenandoah, who are willing to serve His Majesty, Jehovah, in the royal army of salutes, commanded by the true and honorable Lord Jesus Christ, in Captain Emmanuel Company, let him prepare to the sound of the gospel, or to my headquarters, in the land's end in the city of Zion, where the company now lies, where they are kindly entertained, enter into present pay and free quarters, and the very moment they enlist they shall be adopted into the royal family of heaven, made sons and heirs of his matchless king of glory and shall drink wine and milk without money and without price; shall receive a kingdom which cannot be moved; shall receive new clothing, such as shall never wear out; shall receive army and accoutrements. Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift. Rev. James Walker, of Shamokin, will preach to the company this evening in the P. M. church. The recruiting officers will be in attendance, ready to swear in any new recruits. Strong able-bodied young men and women are wanted, and also the middle aged and the aged. JAMES MOORE, Pastor.

If you want a fine wedding cake, let Otto make it for you.

The Brandonville Races. The bicycle races at Brandonville on Saturday proved very successful. There were 26 entries for the 3-mile handicap, but there were only 19 starters. Alvin Everett, of Ringtown, (40 seconds) won the first prize, a pair of road tires; Patrick Hyland, of Park Place, (45 seconds) second, a bicycle watch; William H. Davis, of Brandonville, (50 seconds) third, a bicycle sweater. Davis is only 17 years of age and did well considering the race was his first and he has been riding a bicycle only since last spring. Howard Burchill, of Mahanoy City, (scratched) took fourth prize, a cyclometer, and George W. Schenker, of Mahanoy City, (50 seconds) fifth prize, a B. & W. saddle. There were five entries for the championship of the valley and the race was won by Daniel McPartly, of Tizard Manor, the prize being a silver trophy.

"Boys will be boys," but you can't afford to lose any of them. Be ready for the green apple season by having DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Cure in the house. C. H. Hagenbuch.

Pretty Babies. The Philadelphia Press is offering a prize of a gold pin to the best baby whose portrait was received before six o'clock last evening, when the contest closes. In yesterday's paper, the Press published several pictures of the contestants, and among the number we notice that the picture of Clarence L.V. Burke, the interesting little son of M. M. Burke, Esq., of town. The successful baby will be announced next Sunday, and may Shenandoah win the prize.

The whole system is drained and undermined by indolent ulcers and open sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve speedily heals them. It is the best pile cure known. C. H. Hagenbuch.

A FEW POINTS

For the People of Shenandoah and Vicinity to Consider.

In buying winter CLOTHING and OVERCOATS it is every body's interest to do the very best they can for the money. We are the largest and cheapest clothing store in Shenandoah county and our guarantee every purchaser to our store will get perfect satisfaction. Our method of doing business is to give every customer good value for their money and we then make the most of our success. Our new stock which now gives us about twice the room as had before is limited down with this season's clothing and overcoats in Blue, Black, Gray, Brown, and almost any color and style to suit the most capricious. Our stock of Nigger head overcoats, plain cloth, Astrakhan clover suits and hundreds of other styles cannot be enumerated in the county and our Overcoat Department never contained the assortment that we are showing this season in Blue, Black, Light Brown, Gray, Keweenaw, Beaver, Melton, Mountsack, Cheviot and Chinilla qualities at prices that were never before offered to the people of Shenandoah, and never will be again. It is necessary for us to coax the customers from the street into our store as other dealers do to buy, as the largeness of our stock is big inducement to the buyers. Our stock of Suits and Dress Suits and Worsted Dress Suits were never offered at the prices we sell them this season. Our stock of Soft and Crush Hats never were as large as at present. We buy goods by the case and not by the half dozen as other dealers and therefore get bigger inducements of which the customer gets the benefit of this as well as we do. It will pay you to call on us and inspect our stock before you purchase elsewhere, as we are here to do business.

MAMMOTH CLOTHING HOUSE, L. GOLDIN, Prop., 9 and 11 South Main St.

MAHANOCY CITY. The funeral of Mrs. Agnes, wife of Dr. S. C. Spalding, of Shenandoah, took place from the residence of the deceased's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Garrett, in this town, at nine o'clock this morning. A large concourse of friends assembled at the residence, including many from Shenandoah and other towns of the county. The cortege proceeded to the St. Catharine Roman Catholic church, where requiem high mass was celebrated at 9:30 o'clock by Revs. McEnroe and McManamin, assisted by Rev. Nelson, of Shenandoah. The funeral sermon by Rev. McManamin was very impressive. He dwelt upon the high character and social standing of the deceased. During the service Miss Kate Maley sang "Bless me, Jesus, to Thy Bosom." Miss Katie Moore rendered "Hope" and Miss Ella Donahoe sang "He Drives the Tear From Every Eye." There were many beautiful floral offerings. A long line of carriages filed from the church to the cemetery on the hill, where the interment was made. The pall bearers were John A. Reilly, H. J. Muldoon and M. M. Burke, Esq., of Shenandoah, Samuel Seifert, Charles O. Smith and Hon. William E. Jones, of Mahanoy City. Among the Shenandoah people in attendance were Mrs. M. J. Whalen, Mrs. Mary Brennan, Mrs. John Cooney, Mrs. Martin Brennan, Mrs. D. J. Langston, Mrs. Michael Monaghan, Mrs. John Canfield, Mrs. William Senger, Mrs. George Senger, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Davis, Misses Katie and Mary Tierney, Katie Maloy, Marie Christopher, Jennie Cooney, Bridget Maher, Julia Geary, Stacia and Mary McDonald, and Messrs. Harry Bradigan, Michael Tierney, John W. Curtin, Lawrence McAvoy, P. J. Monaghan, M. J. Muldoon, P. J. Ferguson, J. B. Monaghan, J. J. Bradigan, C. J. Quinn and Fred. Carl.

Miss Annie Kelly, aged 40 years, died at the home of John Kane at St. Nicholas on Saturday afternoon, and the funeral took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The remains were brought to town and services were held in St. Catharine church. Interment was made on the hill.

John Haughey, while retreating from school at noon today, received a severe cut on the forehead from a stone thrown by a Poleander.

Philip Yedinski Attacked. While Philip Yedinski, of Pottsville, was engaged in conversation with a couple of friends at the corner of Main and Centre streets yesterday afternoon, "Jack" Toole happened along and became engaged in a discussion with him that became hot. Toole finally struck Yedinski behind the right ear with his fist. This is the story as given by one of the eye witnesses. Another eye witness claims no blow was struck. Yedinski returned to Pottsville threatening to prosecute Toole, claiming that he was also assaulted by the latter at Pottsville last Thursday.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day. "Mystic Cure" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits; 75 cents. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch, Druggist, Shenandoah.

FOOT BALL.

Our Local Champions Receive a Severe Drubbing at Shamokin.

With their orange and black colors in their inside pockets our local champions and their admirers returned from Shamokin on Saturday evening, where they were defeated to the tune of 30 to 0. The Shamokin boys were not in it at any stage of the game, many of them remarking before play was called, that defeat stared them in the face. The feature of the game was McGinnick's playing. The attendance was estimated at 1,000. Our boys spoke very highly of the kind treatment received at the hands of the Shamokin team.

While a game of foot ball was in progress at Greenville yesterday Chief Burgess Toll secured a touch-down. The game was between the Tigers, of Mahanoy City, and the Lions, of town, and the attendance was large. The game had proceeded but seventeen minutes when the Burgess appeared upon the scene and stopped further play, with Shamokin on their opponent's five yard line.

Additional Volunteers. The American Volunteers will occupy their new quarters in the Wilkinson building to-morrow evening. On Wednesday Grant Trotman, a new recruit, will leave for Wilkesbarre, where he will enlist under the command of Capt. Peake and wife, Miss Stella Rieker left for Philadelphia to-day for training quarters.

Never Saw Anything Like It. It is always safe to profit by the experience of others, and especially when it concerns life and health. Maud Johnson, Brookside, Pa., writes: "I had diphtheria and catarrh very bad and used a bottle of Thompson's Diphtheria Cure. Never saw anything like it; it took nearly all the mucus out of my throat in one day, and also cured my catarrh." Sold at Kirlin's drug store at 50 cents a bottle. Never failed in a single instance when used according to directions.

Many a day's work is lost by sick headache, caused by indigestion and stomach troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Bitters are the most effective pill for overcoming such difficulties. C. H. Hagenbuch.

Death of Benjamin Cako. Benjamin Cako, a prominent resident of Pottsville, died in the hospital here yesterday morning. The cause of death was typhoid fever. The deceased was 36 years old and leaves no children. His wife died about a year ago. Mr. Cako was prominent in politics and had a large circle of friends throughout the county.
