CANTON, O., Nov. 4.—Major McKinley spent yesterday afternoon with Chairman Hanna and his party, who with the local committee was photographed on the Mr Kinley perch, with the autior as the central figure. At $ o'clock Mr. Hanns and his associates left for Cleveland, Mr. Mc Kinley accompanying him to the train Just as the party were leaving the house an Associated Press bulletin brought the first actual returns, those of a Boston pro-cinct, which showed a heavy McKinley majority. Throughout the day and even ing personal telegrams came from al directions showing cheering assurances.

The Major sat at his deak smoking redry eight, listening attentively to each bulletin, but showing no outward concern as to the result. His stenographer Mr. Cooper, read the stendy stream of returns in a loud voice. They came from five sources, and had many duplications of tedions figures. A bunch of dispatches was handed to the Major every half hour some of which he handed to Private See retary Boyle to be read aloud.

The Palmer and Buckner ballot was very light, and out of a total poli of 90,000 is not expected to exceed 5,000. Hamsdell, for governor, ran behind the McKinley ticket.

Republican Gains in Washington.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 4.—The vote in this state is very heavy. Indications point to Republican gains, but the vote will be close. Republicans expect to elect at least one of the two congressmen. The fusion-ists continue to claim everything by large majorities, while the Republicans at state headquarters are confident of carrying the state by a small plurality.
