ENTIRE NEW STOCK.

Refetch, the Clothes, Makes a Big Cleaning Out Deal.

L. Refetch, the proprietor of the One Price Clothing House on South Main street, yesterday made a big deal by which he disposed of the entire stock of clothing in his place to Martin & Co., the Luzerne county auctioneers. The transaction was the largest bulk sale of clothing ever made in the town and the goods filled 25 large cases. Mr. Refetch was obliged to make the sale in order to make room for a mammoth winter stock he had purchased for the fall and winter trade and which is now in the big store. The stock is so large that the many tables under the great weight. It embraces all the latest styles in the best make of clothing for men, boys and children and overcoats and robes. Mr. Refetch says he will sell every garment at bottom rock price. The stock includes all sizes, but should anyone difficult to suit be unable to find just what he wants Mr. Refetch can furnish suits to order, being the local agent for Hammerslough & Co., of New York, the greatest merchant tailoring firm in the world. No "barking" is needed at his store, as some competitors resort to. All goods speak for themselves, and he treats all customers in a gentlemanly manner.

Inquiry of the first person you meet how our shoes wear. That person will be our customer all right. Everybody is.

Impossible to Enforce It.

At the meeting of the Luzerne county school directors, the compulsory education law was decided to be imperative because it was impossible to enforce it under the present restriction. It was decided to ask the Legislature to reform it.

The increased vote put a burden upon the election officers which very few if any, will care to carry again. This was especially the case in the Third, Fourth and Fifth wards, where the ballots actually worked all day and all night. The Fourth ward board posted its returns at about 5 o'clock this morning, the Third followed at 6 and the Fifth at 8 o'clock. The second ward bulletin made its appearance at 11:16 and the first ward figures were posted shortly before 2 a. m. There has never been a morning following an election, previous to today when the winners could not get the entire vote of the borough before going to their work. A great cry has again gone up for more voting precincts.

A FEW POINTS

For the People of Shenandoah and Vicinity to Consider.

In having winter CLOTHING and OVERCOATS it is everybody's interest to do the very best they can for the money. We are the largest and cheapest clothing house in Schuylkill county and our guarantee every purchaser to our store will get perfect satisfaction. Our methods of doing business is to give every customer good value for their money and with them rests the secret of our success. Our store which now gives us about twice the volume we had before is loaded down with this season's clothing and overcoats to Blue, Black, Gray, Brown, and almost any color and style to suit the most skeptical. Our stock of Nigger head chevrons, plain chevrons, Astorians, chevrons and hundreds of other styles cannot be surpassed in the county, and our Overcoat Department never cut back the assortment that we are showing this season in Blue, Black, Light Brown, Gray, Keesey, Beaver, Mutton, Mountain, Chester and Chinchilla qualities at prices that were never before offered to the people of Shenandoah, and never will be again. It isn't necessary for us to coax the customers from the street into our store as other dealers do to buy, as the largest we offer are big inducements in themselves. Our stock of Suits Lined Diagonals and Worsted Dress Suits were never offered at the prices we sell them this season. Our stock of soft and Crisp Hats never were so large as at present.

We buy goods by the case and not by the half dozen as other dealers do, therefore get bigger inducements of which the customer gets the benefit of this as well as we do. It will pay you to call on us and inspect our stock before purchasing elsewhere as we are here to do business.
