Major McKinley Reviewed Several Uniformed Clubs and Delegations from Neighboring Towns, but Made Ne Speeches-Mr. Bayan Non-Committal.

CANTON, C., Nov. 5 .- Major McKinley spent a day of comparative quiet yester-day of his home seeking to recuperate from the strain of the last few days. From the porch he reviewed several uniformed clubs and delogations from neighboring towns, but made no speeches. He has not said a word on the election, and appears determined to reserve his judgment and his views till every vestige of doubt on the result is removed. He sat in the library last night until 10 o'clock smoking, look-ing over late dispatches from wavering sections and chatting with callers. He re-tired at 10-16, and the McKinley cottage was dark earlier last night than it has been in weeks.

It is felt by those about Major McKinley that he ought, in justice to himself and to Mrs. McKinley, to get away from Canton for a few days. After the tre-mendous strain of recent days his friends want him to take a few days' respite, so that normal conditions may in part be

In all close contests it is wise for both sides to watch the returns to grard against the possibility of mistake, intentional and unintentional." In conversation with friends Mr. Bryan freely discussed the probabilities, refer-ring to the closeness of the vote in several of the states. He read all bulletins with interest, but, in reply to questions, said he was not allowing the uncertainty to cause the least degree of worry. He spoke cheerfully to all, but it became evident towards the latter part of the day that he was growing less and less hopeful. He was especially gratified at the result in
