AN EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS

Obtain Bufficient Revenue Without Recourse to a Bond Issue-Hanna Bays He is Not After Office.

NEW YORK, Nov. it.—The World says:
Mark Hanna gave The World the following outline of what he understood to be Prostdent-elect McKinley's general policy:

'I have had but comparatively brief conversations with Major McKinley since his election. Next week I expect to mee him at Cleveland, and, as he has had the street of the same street. time to think over matters, I presume he will have more details than I am at present aware of. But this much I know, he ent aware of. But this much I know, he feels that he owes much to the patriotic Democrats who prefer principle to strict party ties. Indiana, for instance, was unquestionably carried against fusion by Democratic votes. He also recognizes the very great service performed by Democratic and independent newspapers during the campulers.

I have inflied with some of the most influential of the did Democratic leaders, and I am glad to say they are in accord with Major McKinley's hopes.

"The first movement he will make will from the girl's system.

would be altogether too dangerous. Business prosperity and stability demand that as soon as possible the government should be on a paying basis. To this end an extra session of congress will be necessary, and President McKinley will undeathfully call one seem after his inauguration.

"Legislation will be required to secure the desired revenue, and Mr. McKinley will do everything in his power to secure it, as well as the legal establishment of a policy which will tend to put everybedy at work. In all this he hopes and expects that he will be backed by patriotic men.

that he will be backed by patriotic mon, regardless of party lines.

Twelve Years for Murderer Elvin.

West Chester, Pa., Nov. 8.—Twelve years imprisonment in the Eastern pententiary is the nunishment which President Judge Waddell imposed upon Thomas D. Elvin, of Phonixville, Just about one year ago the prisoner, while on a drunken debauch, slashed the thronts of two of his children from ear to ear, and then treated himself likewise, permitting the little ones to bleed to death over his own prestrate form. His wife had a few days previously cloped with another man, and the children were murdered in a spirit of revenge. On his first trial a first degree verdict was rendered against the prisoner

No little surprise was occasioned to-day caught in a deerway and the gun was discharged. Simultaneously with the rewhen it became known that Mr. George Scott had assumed personal charge of a part of the discharged. Similianeously with the re-port Hoopes saw a dark figure dashing for the doarway, whereupon he took aim and fired, the fleeing figure falling with a yell. When a light had been procured Hoopes found he had sent a lead of shot through the body of his late employe, Johnson, killing him instantly. The dead thief had pretty theroughly ransacked one room, division under the Philadelphia & Boading Coal & Iron Company benefators under the supervision of Division Separatendent John Skeath, of Mahanov City. The news led to rumors of various kinds; some to the effect that there would be changes in district superintendencies, etc., but they are ap-parently groundless and the only change made is that hereafter Mr. Scott will per-Banger in a Cat's fitte.
