THE UNFORTUNATE TEXAS.

Slight Repairs at Brooklyn. w Youn, Nov. 10 .- The United States battleship Texas is now at the bottom of the Wallabout channel in Brooklyn, and there is every prospect that it will be ac-eral days before the vessel of war can be raised. She is a deep down in the water as the mail at the cob dock will permit. She is realing coally and is not a wreak, although it will take a great outlay to re-pair the damage done by the water in her-hold and engine room. It is only one of the numerous meetdents that have happened to the Texas since she was launched a few years ago. a low years ago. The Texas' unin injection pipe was re-moved for repairs, and the pipe to son-ward was closed with a blank flange. The yoke through which the valve stem screws in he works it is not a broke under the water pressure from the out-side, and the sea rushed in, filling the starbourd engine room and thence leaked. through the closed water fight doors and gradually filled the portengine room.
