LABOTCHERE'S SARCASI

The English Radical Denounces Mrs. Castle's Release.

"THE AMERICAN DOLLAROGRACY,"

Mr. Labourhery Rofers to this Recent Election, and Expresses in Vigorous Language His Views as to the Power of Wealth Rere and in England.

LOXBOX, Nov. 11 .- Mr. Henry Labour LOGICS, New II.—Mr. Henry Labour-chere, in Truth, devotes a page and a half to the case of Mrs. Castle, who was re-leased yeaterday, during which he says: "I learn that a few magistrates favored a heaving the prisoner—Had she been re-leased on the ground of montal infirmity the would not have been the gather for she would not have been the gainer, for she would have been sent to a criminal lunable asylum. The sentence seems to me light, considering the circumstances. I do not believe in kleptomania, for it only exists I am sure that the punishment of every person stealing while suffering therefrom would have a very deterrent effect upon its spreading.

"Mrs. Castle got off cheaply, when told of her imprisonment for three months without hard labor. The effect on her health seems improbable, for I gather she has been traveling in foreign, and, except for the matter of stealing, her health was the same as anyhody else. Probably the regret for what she has done and what has come to her for doing it will weigh on her spirits, but this is precisely the sinte of mind imprisonment is intended to proof mind imprisonment is intended to produce in a prisoner, and if this regret really caused her to be ill she should be transferred to a hospital, where she would be cared for by all connected with it.

"This Castle case is remarkable for the many objects found in the Castles' tranks, stolen in Vienna. How were the custom houses passed on the journey to England? One would have thought that the officers would have been surprised to find such a large number of opera glasses and fans."

Continuing Mr. Labouchers expresses surprise at the fact that Mr. Castle did, not notice the collection of goods in their surprise as the fact that Mr. Castle did, not notice the collection of goods in their rooms at the Hotel Coult and adds:

"The child seems generally to have accompanied the mother whon argod by her peculiar disease to go to a shop in order to pifer. This child saw nothing."

Mr. Labouchero, after a sarcastic reference to the defense and acquittal of another wealthy woman for challing here.

other wealthy woman for stealing hotel candlesticks, observes: "On the morning of Mrs. Castle's sentence a scamstress and a governess were sentenced at the same sessions to nine and six months hard labor for stealing a fin-nocklet, and who had nover previously been convicted. The poverness fainted at the sentence. No medical experts testified that they were kleptomaniacs, no eminent counsel suggested that they would suffer in health by confinement, no one pitted them and no one signed a polition to the

them and no one signed a pellilent to the home secretary to shorten their sentence. "What matters how a poor fainting, friendless governess or a half starved seamstress suffers? Give them hard labor-and plenty of it. What if their health is injured? Let them die. Let Mrs. Casila-out of prison, Sir Matthaw White Ridley. She has moved in the later deals and the She has moved in the best circles and she has had no need to steal; but do not re-duce the sentences of the seamstress and governess by a single day. The best circles know them not. They are poor and helpless, which, in the opinion of all self re-specting persons, is in itself a crime." Commenting on the recent election in the United States, Mr. Labouchers says:

"If Bryan had been wise he would have gone in for bimetallism, if it pleased him, but he could have left the ratio indefinite.
His ratio meant the right to all to repudiate half his obligations without this bet-tering any one in the future. But the victors will do well to realize thus, apara from bimetallism, there is a strong grow-ing feeling in America against huge accumulations of capital in the hands of in-dividuals, obtained by means of the trusts, which are really monopolles and gambling with cogged dice in railroads.

"The greedy plutocracy unsupported by an armed force cannot long hold its own against the rights and well being of all. I am nowise certain that, had I been an American, I should not have voted the Democratic ticket had it not been that I regard all tampering with the coinage of a country as injurious to all, and it does not strike me that Mr. Bryan is up to the presidential mark.

'America's worst product is its dollarocracy, whose members have literally nothing to recommend them. The odds are that either they or their parents acquired huge fortunes by the most questionable means. As a vule they are ignorant and vulgar, building big houses in order to dazzle by estentations entertainments and buying pictures, for which they only care because they have been acquired at high prices, selling their souls to any one who will enable them to holmon with royalwill ename them to nomon with royal-ties, and their daughters to any one who will canfer a favor upon them, despising their own country and institutions, and regarding themselves as in every respect superior to others on account of their dollars. If the United States is not to become a mere plutocratic and oligarchic power these worthles, who have increased and are increasing, must greatly diminish." Other Comments on Mrs. Chatle's Release.

LONDON, Nov. 11 .- The Chronicle, in commenting upon Mrs. Castle's case, does not quarrel with her rolesse, but wishes that the British law were more even handed, and that the same consideration were extended to the poor as to kieptomaniaes. The Dally News says with reference to the same subject that it was foreground to the same subject to the seen, and lesides. "anything to oblige Mr. Bayard." The Standard and Graphic both fully approve of Mrs. Castle's release.

Death of a Noted Physician.

Poromicureur, N. Y., Nov. 11.-Dr. Edward H Packer, a prominent physician, died in this city yesterday. He was 73 years of age. He was the author of the lines, "Lafe's race well won; life's work well done; life's victors won; now cometh rest." The lines were the opening verse of a peem written twenty-five years ago, and they were selected by the whow of James A. Garfield as an inscription for the temperature of the marryred president.
