TOM WATSON'S LOST LETTER That Long Delayed and Much Discussed

Document.

FINALLY GIVEN TO THE PUBLIC !

It is Supplemented by Four Columns of Editorial Comment, in Which the Georgian Declares That Populist Defection Resulted in McKinley's Election.

ATLANTA, Nov. 12 - The latter of accep-tance written by Tom Watson accepting the Populist nomination for vice presi-dent was yesterday made public. Seven columns of Watson's paper are devoted to it. The letter is supplemented by four columns of advice to Populists to "alt steady in the boat and hold their party togent her.

The editorial tone of the paper is one of fulfilled prophecy. Watson declares that the failure of the Populists to support Bryan in the close states brought about McKinley's closetion. He goes into a long review of the circumstances leading to his nomination at St. Louis, and accepts the vice presidential nomination "because I said I would.

He declares that if the St. Louis Populist convention had nominated a straight Populist ticket it would have been elected. It would, he said, have driven the Hills and Gormans where they belong—into the Republican ranks—and the Bryans and Blands would have joined with the Pop-

He comptains bitterly of the treatment he has received at the hands of the Popu-list leaders and addresses himself particuarly to Sonator Butler in this way: "Sonator, a reform has no right to ex-solution, a poterm has no right house list if it has no valid complaint to make. Populities cannot densunce the sins of the two old parties and yet go into political copartnership with them. The moment we make a treaty the war must cause And when we cause our war upon the old parties we have no longer any excuse for living. Whonever right compromises wrong it is the right which suffers. "The Democratic managers seem to re-

"The Democratic managers seem to re-sent as a strange piece of importinence the fact that the Populists dared to nom-inate a ticket differing at the rear ord from theirs. Coming to them with the 2,000,000 votes they were begging for and pitcously needing. I can say with a perfect assumate of telling the unqualified trath that my arrival in the field of battle was not welcomed as heartily as Bincher was received by Wellington at Waterloo. They want my reinforcements, but they do not want my reinforcements, but they do not want me to lead them. They need Blu-cher's troops, but they draw the line at Blucher. That is hardly fair, either to Blucher or his troops, nor is it the best way to detent Napoleon.

way to defeat Napoleon. "For this attitude upon the part of the Democratic managers I believe that you, senator, are largely responsible. You made no effort to have me recognized. You publicly stated that I would not be notified of my nomination. You went into the fusion pelicy, over my written protest, with all the zead of a man who wanted to elect the Democratic ticker. In this I think you were wrong. As chairwanted to elect the Democratic tickot. In this I think you were wrong: As chair-man of the Populist committee the party certainly expected you to do all you could to elect the Populist licket. "Had you demanded Mr. Sewall's with-drawal from the ticket he would have been withdrawn. I have a letter of yours in which you stated that the Democratic entruiting expected you to that the the democratic to elect the Populist ficket. committee expected you to make the de-mand, but that you did not make it. The Democratic managers seem to prefer Me-Kinleyism to anything which might seem to be partly a Populist triumph
