Jones is a small, insignificant looking man, about five feet five inches high, with a brown beard and mustache and hair a shade darker. He has a buiging forehead and black eyes, pale complexion, and has a furtive, shifty look. He was very nervous while in court, and was constantly pulling his beard. He spoke with a pro-nounced brogue. He delivered his testimony as though in fear of his life, and seemed to be scared of the sound of his voice. In fact, at the close of the proceed-
