Happenings Throughout the Region Collected for Hasty Perusal. Thanksgiving turkeys are meeting high. Shenandoah sportsmen report a scarcity of game. There are 97 patients in the Minors' hospital. Yesterday was payday at Ashland and Girardville. There are many defective sidewalks. Let them be repaired. The P. & E. station at New Philadelphia was robbed of $75 last night. The Lyon-Dunn contest court adjourned yesterday until next Tuesday. The Patterson colliery, near Mt. Carmel, will start up again next Monday. The construction of two new bridges at the county's expense were authorized by the Grand Jury yesterday, one across the Little Schuylkill in Jordan borough and the other in Rock township. The bicycle has succeeded because the individual makers and dealers advertised their wares, and the commanding position the silent steed holds to-day is a speaking argument of the value of advertising. Tea Party and Birthday Celebration.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burkhart, on North Main street, was the scene of a gathering of young folks who had accepted an invitation from their daughter, Christie, to celebrate her sixteenth birthday anniversary. A musical program, interspersed with dancing and other amusements, formed a simple amusement for all present. The feature of the evening was a Boston tea party followed by a midnight supper. Miss Burkhart was the recipient of several beautiful presents from her parents and friends. The guests present were: Misses Anne Knithan, Bertha Holderman, Carrie Levine, Bertha Neuhouser, Glen Leslie, Florence Klein, Grace Graham, Annie Burkhart, Maggie Reddall, Ida Williams, Lizzie Graeber, Vera Graeber, Lucy Morrison and Miss Hubbard, of Pottsville, and Messrs. Leon Wasley, Charles Neiswander, Clyde Glover, Burton Davis, Harry Pratt, Robert Morrison, Benjamin Jones, George Yost, Richard Rowse, Jose Thomas and Arthur Levine.

A Fugitive Captured.
This afternoon Detective Amour and Special Officer Joe Anderson arrested William Witchofski, who has been a fugitive ever since he escaped from the pen in No. 1 court room at Pottsville two years ago. He was taken to Pottsville this afternoon. Witchofski was serving a term of 16 months for committing a robbery at the old skating rink buildings on South Main street. He was in the court room to be called as a witness in the robbery case in which Sam Block lost jewelry. Witchofski escaped from the court room by picking the lock of the prisoner's pen and mingling with the spectators. He was caught today after a hot chase. As he walked up to the Knickerbocker cattery pay office, the officers stepped up to arrest him. Witchofski didn't wait for his pay, but made a dash for escape. Anderson chased him over dirt banks and through swamps to St. Nicholas, where the fugitive was captured thoroughly exhausted. He was brought back to town and cuffed. Amour took him to Pottsville.

"Duty Breaks Fetters."

Everybody is welcome.

THE BOARD PLEADS GUILTY.

An Unexpected Development in the Hlythe Township Case. The most interesting case before the court this week was that of the Hlythe Township School Board on the charge of misdemeanor in office. The trial was begun Thursday before Judge Bechtel, and some startling information has been developed. The most interesting witness was Michael Brennan, the former secretary of the Board. He testified that no record of the meetings of the Board was kept, and that himself and the Directors got a divvy out of every order that was issued. In 1904, when orders were drawn for paying the teachers for attending county institute, the Directors put the money in their pockets, the teachers getting nothing. Brennan also testified that out of an order for $174, in favor of Matthew Wheeler, each Director received $10. On August 4, 1904, an order was drawn for $32.50 in favor of the Board for expenses to Pottsville, shortly before this an order was drawn for nearly $200 to pay for preparing plans and superintending the erection of a new school building. Out of this deal, witness said, every member of the Board who had a relative teaching in the district received $5 each, while witness and Kenna, who had no one teaching, received $65 each. Another order was drawn in favor of Bernard Dougherty for $310 for repairing school buildings. Out of this order each Director received $33. Brennan's testimony implicated all the Directors, and when questioned as to whether he had been offered a reward for making his confession, replied: "No, sir; I expect to go to jail with the rest of them."

The case took an unexpected turn yesterday afternoon, when the defendants withdrew the plea of not guilty and entered one of guilty. Mr. Wadlinger asked a suspension of sentence for a reasonable time to give the defendants opportunity to arrange their affairs. District Attorney Bechtel agreed to a suspension until after the case against the auditors was disposed of. Finally it was agreed to suspend sentence until November 30th, each defendant to give $1,000 bail for his appearance at that time. Judge Bechtel and the question of restitution would be considered. The institute money retained from the teachers should be restored to them. The law says it belongs to them and they should receive it. Our 50 cent neckwear cannot be equalled in style or quality. "Now Willing to Live." The Well Known New York Merchant, David Hirsch, Finds Health in Paine's Celery Compound.

With the return of cool weather hosts of men and women who relied on their summer vacation to make them strong and well came home still tired, with poor appetites and depressed by the thought of the months of hard work ahead. Their overworked nerves and bodies to-day demand something more than a mere rest. Their blood needs to be swept of its impurities and the entire nervous organization reinvigorated and built up by a genuine invigorator before good appetite will wait on digestion and health on both. The bracing weather of November, with debilitating summer past, and the severity of winter not yet arrived, is the very best time for recruiting the strength and getting rid of disease. Contrast the healthy, well nourished appearance of persons who have taken Paine's celery compound with their former bloodless, nervous, drooping condition! Men and women getting along in years find a remarkable increase in vigor and a brighter, more cheerful state of mind from the use of this great remedy. Don't mope along and submit to indigestion, liver disorder, continual headaches or rheumatism. Paine's celery compound will make you strong and keep you so. Its nourishing, health-making virtues have been so carefully considered, and so exactly fitted to the needs of the tired, exhausted body, that its work does not have to be done after it. It cures heart palpitation and heart weakness, feeds the nervous organism so sleep becomes natural and refreshing, promotes an increased appetite, and furnishes the nervous force to enable the body to convert the food into solid flesh and blood. Of all the means that medical skill has ever discovered for recruiting the exhausted energy of the worn-out system, Paine's celery compound is far in advance. The pallid face, the pinched features, the growing thinness and the nervous movements that tell the story of badly impoverished nerves and brain—all these foreboding of approaching disease disappear with the profound nourishing that Paine's celery compound always provides throughout the body, even to the minutest nerve filaments and blood capillaries. David Hirsch, the well-known Broadway merchant, New York city, writes as follows to Wells, Richardson & Co: "I am advocating Paine's celery compound among my many friends, because it has done me so much good in a very short space of time. I have been suffering for years from indigestion and all its consequent ills, sleeplessness included. I had lost about 30 pounds in weight, and was getting weaker and more nervous every day. I was unable to stand exertions of any kind, and I used conveyances for every short distance. "After taking two bottles of Paine's celery compound I feel in every respect better, stronger, more cheerful and willing to live. I will certainly never forget the efforts of Paine's celery compound upon my system, and I wish to state that I am now past 68 years of age. I have traveled most all over the world, and now I feel I can keep on doing it and also enjoy it." Paine's celery compound has done as much for thousands of others.
