

MONOGRAMS

Upon stationary have always been popular, but this season every fashionable woman and many fashionable men have their monograms engraved or illuminated upon every sheet of paper they use. We would be pleased to show samples and quote prices on all kinds of monograms of engraving. Engraved cards a specialty.

GOOD CLOTHES

Cost Less Money in the Long Run. We never could supply as many people with clothes as we do if we didn't have the right kind. We couldn't increase our business right along if we didn't please the people. We do please them not only in clothes, but with satisfactory prices as well. Have you seen our winter overcoats—from $5 up. They will astonish you. In material, style and finish they beat the band. Call at our store and examine the men's suits and boys' clothing. We have suits for boys from $1 and upwards. We are the leaders in the latest styles in hats. New stock every week. We treat you well and give you full value for your money. No misrepresentation. Everything is guaranteed as represented, or money refunded. Give us a call.

Orphan's Court Matters.
Judge Dann disposed of the following matters yesterday: Daniel Heber, guardian of the minor children of Mary Reber, deceased, was authorized to sell a parcel of land belonging to her wards.

In the estate of Sarah Starr, deceased, court dismissed the exceptions and confined the adjudication.

In the case of George Henry, minor, court confirmed the sale.

In the case of John Saul's estate court ordered the administratrix to sell the property for the payment of debts.

Happenings Throughout the Region Chronicled for Hasty Perusal.
Dr. E. C. Laks, formerly of Shenandoah, is now located on Walnut street in Reading. Mine Inspector Davis, of the Hazleton district, finds it necessary to employ a clerk.
The Mt. Carroll Water Company finds it necessary to extend their mains in that thriving town.

Wm. Oaks, of Frankville, has been undergoing treatment at the Miners' hospital for two weeks past.
W. H. Mortimer, of Pottsville, is replacing the dial on the court house clock, broken by the recent heavy gale.

East Centre street below the Reading depot is being put in excellent condition by Supervisor Llewellyn and his force of men.
The Lehigh Valley Company have stopped selling lots in their addition to Mt. Carmel as it may in the future restrict coal operations.
Work on the rebuilding of the Davis properties in the First ward, which were partially destroyed by fire some time ago, is progressing rapidly.

Eisenhower Bros., the new confectioners, on North Main street, yesterday put a handsome new delivery wagon on the road. It is painted in bright and attractive colors.
With the change in the time schedule of trains the P. & E. R. R. have put on a freight train which is to run from Philadelphia to Williamsport, 200 miles, in 9 hours. It will run over the Catawissa branch.

Wedding rings, engagement rings and betrothal rings, the largest stock in the county at Brumm's.

Birthday Party.
The fifth birthday anniversary of Grant Doherty was fittingly celebrated at his home on North Emeric street last evening. The little folks in attendance were: Maul Hitchens, Mabel and Hazel Reese, Viola Baudenbush, May Acker and Harry Major, Clayton Acker, Grant and Frederick Doherty, Daniel Richards, Harold Bamsage, James Morgan, Clyde Delcamp, Harry Smith, John Reese, Raymond Smith and Earl Brown. The little folks enjoyed a very pleasant time.

Revival Meetings Begun.
The beginning of the revival meetings at the M. E. church, Yatesville, last evening, was well attended. The members were assisted by Rev. Alfred Heebner, who preached the sermon, and also many members of the Christian Endeavor society of the M. E. congregation of town. There were several requests for prayer and the meeting was an interesting one. The services will be conducted every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings of each week.

The Re-Organization Movement.
The movement to reorganize and advance the interests of the fire department was begun in earnest last night, when the fire trustees of the several companies and the fire apparatus committee of the Borough Council met. An organization was effected with Councilman R. D. Reese as President and Thomas Wade as secretary. A committee on resolutions was appointed to put the sentiment of the meeting in writing and urge better discipline in the department. The committee consists of Morris Wurn, Thomas Wade, Martin Monaghan and Councilmen Reese and Englert. This committee consists of a member from each fire company and two members of the fire apparatus committee of the Borough Council.

Shoe making and shoe selling is our business. We make them good and sell them cheap.
A Pleasant Gathering.
A social gathering was held at the residence of Miss Lillie Brown at Yatesville last evening and was a most enjoyable affair. Miss Sallie Beddall added to the pleasure of the evening by rendering a couple of cornet solos. An excellent supper was served. Among those present were Frank and William Webster, Thomas Rogers, Walter Rumble, Charles Basore, Harry Master, John Kandier, Henry Walters, Edward Danks, Sallie Beddall, Annie Brown, Mercy Bess, Catherine West, Mary Latham, Jennie Taylor, Minnie Powell, Mattie Llewellyn, Annie Beddall, Carrie First and Mrs. Sarah Davies, of town, and Lillie, Agnes and William Brown, of Yatesville.

The Grim Reaper.
William Lortman, aged 70, of Glenworth, near Cresona, died yesterday morning.
Thomas Chisholm, aged 37 years, who died at his home in Ashland on Saturday evening, was buried this afternoon.
Miss Mary Brown, aged 35 years, died at the home of her father, Michael Brown, at Germantown, near Ashland, on Sunday.
The death is announced of David Llewellyn, Shamokin, which occurred yesterday at noon. Mr. Llewellyn was one of that coterie of men, who are now fast passing away, which did so much to develop the Anthracite coal region. He was for many years associated with the late E. B. Patterson and owned the Big Mountain colliery now operated by the P. & E. R. Co. Mr. Llewellyn retired from the coal business some years ago but was actively interested in Shamokin enterprises and his death is a loss to that town.

Shoes Retailed at Factory Prices.

Bull Dogs $4.00 per Pair.

Strange that we should be selling Bull Dogs, but here is the how of it:
The newest style winter shoe is called the Bull Dog, because the toe of the shoe is supposed to look like a bull dog's nose. Now you would naturally think this a very homely shoe, but it isn't. The sole is very heavy and extension edge, the upper is calfskin, a reddish brown color. It is the most complete shoe you ever had on your foot, and is made so it will not bag out at the side. They are being sold in regular stores all over the country for $5 and $6 a pair, but the Factory price is
