PITTSAURO, Nov. 18, 7:30 p. m.-- By perstent efforts on the part of the counsel for Prof. C. D. Bogart, the Commonwealth has at last consented to bring the case to trial. It will be called the first thing to-morrow (Thursday) morning, and the jury will be selected from a full panel of sixty. The connect for the defense will, if necessary take advantage of their constitutional right of challenge. The friends of Prof. Bogart have become dissatisfied with the manner in which the Prof. C. D. The HERALD representative has interclowed a number of the citizens of Knoxville in reference to the charges preferred against Superintendent Begart, and finds the statements of Mesars. Price and Beddall, in their report to the Sheuradoah School Board last July, to be substantiated in every particular. The five members of the School Board of Knoxville are especially emphatic in denial of certain statements made by the other side. Whatever may be the outcome of the trial, it is certain that Messrs, Price and Boddall made a true and impartial statehas fully substantiated by personal inferviews with the parties concerned on both sides.
