OVERCOATS WILL BE SLAUGHTERED.

The people of Shemandock may expect in the near future the greatest shoughter sale in the near fature the greatest aloughter sale in overcosts ever known here. Last week the great New York clothing firm of Lassers, Beers a Co. failed for 8500,000 and in response to a telegram. L. Refinish, the clothier of town and proprieter of the One Price Cloth-ing House at No. 10 South Main street, went to New York to attend the sale of the firm's great stock by their assignee. It is well known that stock at much sales is sold at less than the cost of manufacture, so that when Mr. Refewich returns he will be able to offer overcoats and suits at prices that will bring the goods within the reach of the poorest. The stock is entirely new and every garment well made, so that the borgains will be rare ones. Mr. Refowich will also dispose of some of the stock at wholesale and dealers will be able to get an advantage of 25 per cent, by calling on him immediately after his return. The purchase will also include a full line of fancy gloves, smoking jackets and other gents' furnishing goods anitable for Christmas presents.

Beld for Trial.

Charles Boyer was committed to prison yesterday by Justice Schlotman, of St. Clair, in default of ball, to answer the charge of desertion, non-support and neglect, pre-ferred by William Rogers and others.

"Excuse me." observed the man in spectacles, 'but I am a surgeon, and that is not where the liver is. "Never you mind where his liver is," retorted the other. If it was in his big toe or his left ear DeWitt's Little Early Risers would reach it and shake it for him. On that you can bet your giglamps." C. H. Hagenbuch.

MR. DAVIES HONORED

Token of Esteem From the Indian Ridge Colliery Employees.

Morgan Duries, until recently made fore-man at Indian Ridge colliery, from which position he resigned on account of 41 health. was a guest of the employes of that collicry at Maurice Morrison's Columbia Hotel Saturday evening and received from them as a token of esteem a valuable and handsome gold-headed cone, which was appropriately pen. We have them, and give a inscribed. The sathering and presentation guarantee with every one we sell. was a surprise to Mr. Davies. He received no intimation of it until a committee called at his house a short time before and requested his presence at the hotel. The pre-sentation was very effectively made by Dis-trict Superintendent John J. Bradigan, who expressed sincers regret in behalf of him self and the employes at the colliery that if realth had obliged Mr. Davies, to resign his position. Mr. Bradigan said that the tions between himself and Mr. Davies had been of the most pleasant character and he detailed a few of the very trying circumstances through which they had passed to decided not to raise prices until we gether. Mr. Davies acknowledged the token see whether the cold winter has briefly and very feelingly and on his behalf Thomas Devlin, brother of District Super-Intendent Davlin, formally accepted the gift in an address that was applauded to the scho. Congratulations followed, after which William Mitchell, master of ceremonies, called successively upon Messrs, John Sneddon, James Foley, Joseph Hinks, Martin Bren-nan, Edward Ratchford, Philip Mader, Patrick Murphy, Moses Davies, Thomas J. Bevlin, Matt. Perkins, David Barry, Thomas E. Edwards, John Burns, Patrick Sweeney, William Delowrey, Martin McGuire, Edward Maifek and William Bradley, each responding with remarks of good will for the guest of with remarks of good will for the goest of the evening. An hour or two was then spent around the festive board arranged by Mine Host Morrison and good humor reigned supreme, Martin Brennan attending to the wants of all present. After ample justice had been done the banquet there was singing by Messrs John H. Jones, John Wells, James McDonald, Edward Ratchford, Matt. Perkins and James Mitchell, and Patrick Sweeney gave a declaration. The gathering dispersed at a late hour and Mr. Davies went to his home carrying with him a memento of one of the most enjoyable occusions of his life. Inquire of the first person you meet how our shoes wear. That person will be our customer all right. Everybody is.
