The woman who neglects to take proper care of herself and who therefore suffers from weakness and disease of the organs of womanhood cannot be healthy and anniable. Her children will be puny and alling and happiness will pass by on the other side. There is no reason why every woman should not be the healthy, happy mother of robust and playful children if she will take the proper care of herself. Proper care means, first of all, proper medicine for her ailments.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will make any woman strong and well in a womanly way. It cures all weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism. It prepares a woman for motherhood. It insures the health of the baby. It makes parturition easy and nearly painless. Over 20,000 women have testified to its virtues, in writing. Druggists sell it and have no substitute "just as good," The druggist who tries to force something else upon you is not an honest man. He is trifling with your life and happiness for the sake of a greater profit to himself.

WILLIAMS RESIGNATION

Why Consul General Lee's Predecessor Left Havana,

THE SPANISH WERE OFFENSIVE

They Made His Stay Unpleasant, and He Would Have Left Earlier but for Presis posed to be the first essential. dent Cleveland's Urgent Solicitation-He

New York, Dec. 2—Ramon O. Williams, ex-consul general of the United States at Havana, arrived at his home lu Brooklyn yesterday from a trip through England, France and Spain. He consented to talk for the first time concerning the circumstances of his resignation from office last year, which was surrounded by office last year, which was surrounded by some mystery, and the reasons for which have not before been made public. There was talk at the time that Mr. Williams and Secretary of State Gresham differed regarding the policy of this government toward American ditizens, but Goneral Williams declined to discuss that point.

He said that his resignation was given because his activity in the case of Ameri-can citizens under arrest made him persons non grata to the Spanish government, and made his residence in Havana unpleasant. The particular episode in which Mr. Williams incurred the dislike of Spain, he says, was his insistence that Sanguilly, Aguirre and Carillo, who were arreated pest the food whether the Feb. 24, 1895, as insurgents, and court martialed, should be tried in the civil grains of meat or eggs.

"I was guided in this by a recollection of similar cases which had come under my of similar cases which had come that any notice in Cuba. I was a young man em-ployed as elerk in Havana in 1851, when the Crittenden men were shot, regardless of the treaty of 1706. I was a merchant in Havana when the Virginius men were "Again, while I was there, Zeccanea, in American citizen, who had gone, representing certain Spanish elements, to negotiate terms of peace with the insurgents in the eastern department di ing the last insurrection in 1878, was arrested by the Spanish forces, tried by court martial, condemned to death and shot in the fort at Cabanas, where Sanguilly and the Competitor prisoners are now held, regardless of the safeguards of the treaty of 1798 and the safe conduct given to him by the Spanish minister at Washington. The recollection of these cases animated me to make quick and carnest defense of these make quick and earnest defense of these men, and it was this action on my part that gave offense to the Spanish authorities at Cuba.

"I was then in Washington. Acting on the rule that no man of self respect would want to return or to enter any place where he believes he is not welcome, I reselved not to continue longer in the position of consul general, and signified my desire to resign. The circumstances, how-ever, were of such a character that I went back to Havana, resumed charge of the office and continued the defense of Sanguilly until the case was transferred to the civil courts.

"A few weeks before this the case of an "A few weeks before this the case of an American citizen. Mr. Williams said that he returned to Havana only on the urgent solicitation of President Cleveland himself, and added that Secretary Gresham's subsequent illness and death occurred too soon to admit of his personally explaining to the secre tary his views on the matter.

CABINET MAKERS BUSY

Two Men Prominently Mentioned for Secretary of State.

While Another Ex-Minister to Russia Andrew D. White-Senator Sherman Would Obey His Constituents - A California Man Also Montloned for a Cabinet Position.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 2 .- Hon. Mark A. Hanna and his wife went to Canton yes-terday morning and returned in the eventernay morning and returned in the even-ing. The day was quietly spent by Major-McKinley and Mr. Hanna in conference, the last they will have before Mr. Hanna goes to take up his work in Washington, preparatory to the inauguration. Mr. Hanna probably will go to Washington on Friday.

The approaching departure of Chairman Hanns for the capital has renewed the gossip concerning the cabinet appoint-ments of President-elect McKinley. It is ments of President-elect McKinley. It is confidently believed that when he goes to Washington he will bear with him a measage from Mr. McKinley offering the position of secretary of state to Senator Sherman. With respect to the possibility of Senator Sherman accepting the place, Colonel Alian T. Brinsmade, who is a warm friend of Sherman, said today that the senator was willing to bow to the will of his constituents. If they desired him to remain in the senate he would do so, but remain in the senate he would do so, but if they willed otherwise he would acquiesce without murmur.

Today's gossip connected the name of a Callfornia man with a cabinet position. Judgo Wamyer, of San Francisco, who was a member of the advisory committee during the recent campaign, is named by a close friend of the president-elect as the one likely to get such an appointment. He is shred either for secretary of the interior or secretary of agriculture.

EX-MINISTER WHITE ALSO, Said That President McKinley Will Offer

Him the Premiership. Washington, Dec. 2.—For secretary of state, Andrew D. White of New York. That is believed to be Mr. McKinley's choice. Information has been received here to the effect that the actual proffer of the premiership of the next administra-tion had been made to Mr. White, and that he had accepted the portfolio.

There are several members of the diplomatic corps in this city who have received a tip as to Professor White's appointment. It is accepted by them as authentic.

Professor White was formally president.

of Cornell university. He has served as United States minister to Russia and as United States minister to Germany. He is now a member of the Venezuelan commission. He has had much diplomatic experience, and is an authority on inter-national law.

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, re-turned to the city yesterday from Canton, where he visited President-elect McKinley. In an interview he said, concerning reports that he was interested in any place for himself under the new adminis-tration. There is no place in the gift of the president that would tempt me to give up the position of senator from Massachu-seits. The very fact that I went to Can-ton would indicate, it seems to me, that I had no application to file. There is no place I desire other than the one I now occupy." Further than this the senator would not talk concerning his visit.

Fitzsimmons' Narrow Escape. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—The agility and presence of mind of Bob Fitzsimmons restorday prevented the postponement of his fight with Sharkey and probably saved the life of the lanky puglist. Bob was out on the road near Saussilto taking his final run before the fight, when he was overtaken by a runaway horse on a hill-side. The frightened animal was almost on top of the pugilist before he became alarmed by the clatter. Bob jumped for his life and rolled over and over down the bill. The wheels of the trap drawn by the horse littlesed his head by about three inches, but he escaped unhurt.

I had severe attacks of gravel and kidney trouble; and unable to get a medicine or doctor to core me until I used Hop Bitters, three Sizes, 250, 500, and $1.00.

COLORLESS AND COLD,-A young girl deeply regretted that she was so colorless and and celd. Her face was too white, and her hands and feet felt as though the blood did not circulate. After one bottle of Hop litters and been taken she was the resiest and healthiest girl in the town, with a vivacity and cheerfulness of mind gratifying to her friends.

Killed by a Sixteen-Year-Old Boy,

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Fred Matthews, a boring man, was shot and killed last night by Alexander Hochberger, a 18-year-old boy. Matthews had been drink-ing in a saloon kept by Hochberger's father, and became involved in a fight with the elder Hochberger over the price of the drinks. The boy came in while the fight was going on, and taking Matthews for a robber he secured a shorgun and sent a big load of buckshot into Matthews a distance of three feet, killing him at
