ONE PRICE CLOTHING HOUSE, 10 South Main Street L. REFOWICH, Prop. SWINDLING GANG RUN DOWN

They Robbed Large City Merchants of Many Thousands of Dollars.

Pottsvills, Pa., Dec. 3.—By the arrest of Charles Bubinsky yesterday the federal authorities say they have broken up a daring gang of swindlers, who, during the past five years, have obtained goods valued at many thousands of dollars from merchants of New York, Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia and other cities. The ringleaders of the gang are said to have been three brothers, Harry, Abraham and Charles Yarowsky.

The gang operated through stores established under assumed mames in small towns. A good credit would be worked up by buying small lots of goods for cash and then, on the strength of the cash credit, other stores were established. The supposed proprietors secured good commercial ratings, and thus obtained large POTTSVILLE, Pa., Doc. 3 .- By the arrest mercial ratings, and thus obtained large quantities of goods on time. These goods would be ordered sent to certain stores, but upon their arrival the swindlers moved them elsewhere and disposed of them at leisure. Among the places thus established were the following in this state: Catawissa under the name of Con-rad Herring: Lykens, Bernard Wilson: Berwick Harry Miller; Bloomsburg, John H. Schmidt; Nanticoke Charles Sherman: Danville, Bernard Wagner, and Shenandoah, Rubinsky & Friedman and Yarow ky Brothers.

Harry and Charles Yarowsky have also been arrested. Abe Yarowsky and Joe Alpert, another alleged member of the gang, are fugitives from justice, and are said to be in Africa.

In tracing the gang the officers hunted through much of the mountainous coun-try of central Ponnsylvania, and the story of their adventures reads like a romance

Last Night's Performance.

The appearance of "Miss Philadelphia" last night was greeted by a large and enthuisst right was greeted by a large and enthu-siastic audience. The production is largely made up of song and dance, and the spec-ialties introduced were above the average. Willie Collier maintained his reputation as a comedian of much ability, and was well supported. It was unfortunate, however, that the company could not use its own that the company could not use its own special scenery, which is said to be realistic, showing various points of interest in Phila-delphia. The Ladies Symphony Orchestra was a pleasing feature. The performance as a whole, considering the disadvantages under which the company labored, was a very creditable one and those in attendance were well pleased.

Attended the Barnbart Funeral, The funeral of the late Capt. F. H. Barnhart, who died on Saturday on his way to Fiorida, took place at Llewellyn yesterday, and was largely attended. Among those present from town were Mesars, David Morgan, Patrick Dougherty, Daniel Rich-ards and John Danks. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. W. C. Richards, of town.
