Great Discontent Over the Affair in San Francisco.

Pitzsimmons Secures an Injunction Restraining the Bank Officials From Paying Sharkey the $10,000 Prize, and Will Make a Legal Pight for it.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—The city is di-vided as to the result of the Fitzsimmons-Sharkey fight, which continues to be the topic of the hour. No one questions that Fitzsimmons had the fight practically won in the eighth round, and many as-sert that he was unjustly deprived of the decision. Sharkey's friends volumently assert that he was knocked out by a foul blow, and is entitled to the honors of victory, including the purse of $10,000. A third class base their opinions solely upon the reports of the physicians in attendance upon Sharkey. The doctors point to the swellen and discolored condition of the sailor's skin in the region of the groin as evidence of a foul blow, and some ar-deat Fitzsimmons advocates reply that this condition was purposely caused by an injection of a drug lumediately after the

A number of physicians and newspaper A number of physicians and newspaper men were present in Sharkey's room when an examination of his injuries were made. All said they were convinced that Shar-key's condition was the result of a foul blow. Many prominent men, however, condemn the decision, and refuse to be lieve that there was any fouling. Such men as Police Commissioner Gunst, Riley Grannan, Major Frank McLaughlin, who was chairman of the Republican state con-tral committee, and others believe that Fitzsimmons should have received the de

It is pointed out that the whole affair has a disagreeable look. The facts are citied that Lunch, Sharkey's backer, refused to consider the name of any one as referse, declined every man suggested by Julian and refused to suggest any man himself, leaving the selection with the few individuals comprising the National club. As soon as the club announced its choice of Wyatt Earp, famous as a horseman from Arlsona but not a ring expert, the odds, which had been 10 to 4 against Sharkey, unaccountably rose to 10 to 6. with more Sharkey money offered than could be well handled. It is recounted that there were whispers

Wednesday afternoon that Sharkey would be favored in the decision, and these ramore reaching Fitzsimmons' cars he requested the club to substitute any one else as referse. Even at the ring side, when both Julian and Fitzsimmons' stated in Earp's presence that they had been told he intended to referee unfairly. Earp stood quietly by and insisted on acting as referee despite the protests.

It is pointed out that Fizzshimmons fought a clean, skillful, scientific and mining battle, white Sharkey's fighting was rough and unfair. For his unfair-ness it is charged that Sharkey was not even reproved by the referee. It is claimed that the upper cut on Sharkey's chin in the eighth round was really a knockout blow, and that no foul blow was delivered by Fitzsimmons, but that Sharkey, when knocked out, alleged the foul blow as an excuse. All these constitute the case of Flizzimmons, by which his attorneys expect to prove the existence of a conspiracy to deprive Flizzimmons of the purse of $10,000. An injunction has been applied for to restrain the Anglo-California bank from easing the check until Fitzsimmons has an opportunity to prove the con-

When Lynch and Referee Earp went to the bank yesterday morning with the check payment was refused by the teller, who referred Lynch to Manager Lilien-thal. The latter stand that he had been that the bank was advised by his attor in the position of an innocent custodian of the money which would be involved in the promised litigation, and that for the protection of the bank he would refuse to pay it. It afterwards developed that the bank was acting on an order from the of-ficials of the National club, who requested that payment of the check should be temporarily deferred. As the check had been certified the right of the bank to refuse payment is questioned, and will form the basis of an attack by Sharkey should be be worsted in the injunction.

Meantime, Sharkey is in bed with three doctors in constant attendance and he is likely to remain where he is for several days, the $10,000 is in the bank and is also likely to remain where it is for some time, and flob Fizzimmons, without mark or bruise and followed by an admiring and cheering crowd, is walking the streets receiving continued ovarious as the real celving continued ovations as the real winner of Wednesday night's encounter.

The doctors made no objection to show ting not only the condition of Sharkey's face, but also of his body. In doing so they called attebtion to the fact that there was nothing to indicate that he had received any particular punishment pre-vious to the striking of the blow which ended the fight. This seemed to be the fact, for there were no discolorations or bruises at all upon Sharkey's body except at the point below the best where the alleged four blow is said to have landed.

Dr. Lee, the man called in to attend Sharkey Wednesday night, in spite of the fact that other physicians offered their services, is not recognized by the regular medical fraternity of this city. It is stated by a prominent physician that the Injuries exhibited by Sharkey could have been caused by a blow on the navel.

Fitzsimmons applied in the superior court yestering for an injunction restrain-ing the Anglo-California bank from paying Sharkey the $10,000 purse. Judge Sanderson grouted the injunction, and the case will soon be tried in court.

MAHANOY CITY, Dec. 4.—This community was shocked this morning on learning of the death of Edmund Paul and the circumstances leading to it. He died at his home on West Pine arcost at 1.30 o'clock this morning after an illness of about three days. Death was due to hydrophobia, supposed to have been contracted from the bits of a dog, or cat. On Tuesday morning, shortly after breakfast, Paul complained of not feeling well. His bones ached, his face was flushed and his limbs became stiff. He took a short walk and returned to the house. short walk and returned to the noise. In the evening he took a warm drink and retired early. During the night he became very restless. Once he jumped out of bed and went straight for the window, but Mrs. Paul caught him. He turned around and stared at her. He said the pains in his head almost drove him cruzy. He returned to bed, but several hours later jumped up and tried to smother his wife with a nillow but she sue. smother his wife with a pillow, but she succeeded in fighting him off. Dr. J. R.
