A CUBAN CRISIS.

Senators Cameron and Mills Introduce Important Resolutions.

The Former Urges That the Independence of Cuba be Recognized-Senator Mills Follows With a Resolution Directing the Seisure of the Turbulent Island.

Special to EVENING HERALD. WASHINGTON, Dec. 9, 3 p. m .- The devel opments in the United States Somate this afternoou were of a most sensational character and have caused a stir in all the diplomatic circles, especially in the Spanish circles the headquarters of the army and and navy.

Senator J. Donald Cameron, of Pennsylvanis, arose in his seat and introduced a resolution providing that the independence of Cuba be recognized forthwith.

Immediately after, Senator Mills, of Texas, followed with a joint resolution directing the President of the United States to take ossession of Cuba forthwith and hold it until the inhabitants cau institute such government as they may desire.

The outcome of the introductions is awaited with the greatest interest and impatience and the prevailing belief is that President Cleveland will be forced to bring the Cuban question to a crisis.

Horse Stolen.

A horse belonging to William and Frank Gumbrowicz, grocers on South Main street. was stolen from its stable on Laurel street at two o'clock this morning. Residents of the vicinity saw the animal led away, but did not know it was being stolen. Two locks were broken from the stable door. The horse was a black one and blind on the right side. It was bought about three months ago for $65. R A reward has been offered.

Engineering Wanamaker's Boom For United States Senator.

FAKE "COMBINE" ORGANIZATION

Called, by Courtesy, the Eusiness Men's League, Shows to be a Senatorial Bargain Counter in the Interest of Its Chief and Only Patron, John Wanamaker.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8 .-- The campaigu of hypocrisy and deceit which is being waged in the interest of John Wanamaker for United States senator is gradually being exposed. The bogus business men's committee organized in his interest turns out to be a coterie of self constituted political managers who are striving to serve their own solfish interests. It is interest ing to note the men who are backing Mr. Wanamaker in this present campaign. First and foremost we find Thomas Dolan, one of the millionaires of the Quaker City, who is identified with a score of monopolies which have been oppressing the people for many years and filling the coffers of their selfish stockholders.

Mr. Dolan is one of the principal men in the famous electric light trust, which has a monopoly of electric lighting in Philadelphia, and which, it is said, squeezes a million dollars a year out of the taxpayers of Philadelphia-more than is paid for the same service in other cities is pair for the same same service in also actively identified with the Pennsylvania Heat, Light and Power company, which has just secured an exclusive franchise from the hands of the combine, which controls the city councils of this boss ridden city. the city councils of this boss rinden city He is also conspicuous in the United Gas Improvement company, which has a con-tract with the city, and which is giving the residents of the city the worst gas that has ever been supplied in its long his-tory. His name is also frequently men-tioned in connection with the Malouey Lighting company, which has a monopoly of the contracts for lighting the city sub-urbs with gasoline lamps. In addition to all this, Mr. Dolan is one of the directors and largest stockholders of the Union Traction company, which is generally con-ceded to be the most offensive monopoly of its kind in the United States. It has increased street car fare from five to eight cents and out off all free transfers. The people have held indignation meetings, and have loudly protested at the extortion, but all in vain. The corporation has a monopoly of the street car privilèges of the town, and feel perfectly safe in acquiring public continent. Mr. Dolan is a wave-personal friend of  $M = M^{-1}$  accord the conceded to be a cofore many days, when amaker concater boom is laid bare in its befor s'peritical light, it will collapse as thingmly as in iniquity it was conceived agen fostered.

This aroused the ive of the Democrats and the Mugwumps who were in the scheme. and they wrote an indignant letter, which was published in The Evening which was plan 24, 1887, exposing the whole affair, and revealing Mr. Wana-maker in his true light. The principal signer of this interesting campaign docu-ment was this same Rudolph Blanken-

At the time Mr. Wanamaker was mentioned as a pos-sible condidate for mayor against the Re-publican nomines he gave out an Inter-view, which was published in The Even-ing Telegraph of Jan. 22, 1887. In this interview Mr. Wanamaker made the startling statement that "cash was one of the requirements of a successful public the requirements of a successful political campalien.

entropagen." This interview, published in the paper owned by Mr. Wanamaker's son-in-law, read as follows: Mr. Wanamaker said: "When asked by them (the Democratic and mugwump conference) to state what I shought was involved I said, as nearly as the part of the second second second second the second second thought was involved I said, as nearly as I can recollect, that it appeared to me a union of the Damocratic factions, in order that the full vote of the party would be secured. Second A large number of elit-gens of all parties deeply interested in the success of the movement and ready to work hard for victory; and, third, the ab-solute need of a success semantic front is solute need of a proper campaign fund to defray the logitimate expenses, such as meetings, advertising, music, circulars, tlekets, printing, and fully manning the polls with workers and ticket holders. To To sum up the requirements of a successful political campaign are, after having a pointical campaign are, after having a worthy cause, the three C's-constant work, common sense, and cash." What do Mr. Wanamaker's Sunday school friends think of the three C's? It looks very much as if the morchant prince was to be his own Burchard. In view of this senarchala inversion to inverse the remarkable interview it is no wonder that his man Friday (Blankenburg) should talk so flippantly of "cold cash."

POTTSVILLE, Dec. 9, 3, p. m .- County Commissioner Rents and Commissioner-cleck Meyers held a meeting here to-day to consider appointments to be made for their office and the county prison on January 1st, next. They met in the public house of Joseph Plitch, on Norwegian street. There were present Messrs, Rentz and Meyers, Mr. Rentz's son, Mr. Meyers's brother and Lawyer Berger.

The meeting has just adjourned, but popr of the parties who participated in vetar, give any information, althouse, approximation been learned to justify time Fekert had Messre Provide the School Messre and Bittenbender spoke to him about it, and told Eckert he was in dauger of losing his place unless he was more attentive to his duties as ignitor

On the morning of July 7 Bittenbender met Eckert in the street in Nanticoke and told him there was some work at the school house which must be done at once. and the latter replied, good naturedly, "All right, Fred, I'll go down and do it." Nothing more was seen of Eckert until about 12 o'clock. As Bittenbender and hi father were driving up Main street, Eck ert, who was standing in front of the First National bank, called to Bittenben-der that he wished to speak to him. The latter stopped his horse, and Eckert ap-proached the carriage, saying, "Fred, it seems to me you have a grudge against me." Bittenbender said he was mistaken, " shat all that he wanted of the janitor Dialmenting to look after his duries at the
