

Every patriotic American to do his utmost against such efforts. The immigrants come to this country to be made to realize that the Americans, not Anglo-Americans or German-Americans or Irish-Americans, are the real Americans. In these very names lies the key to the country. Remember when, after the killing of the Italian of New Orleans, the Americans met in all parts of the country and petitioned the King of Italy to the death of their countrymen? An ominous sign in itself, No. 1, that every effort must be made to bring various nationalities into one fold, and as a patriot I am doing my best to do this, and shall refuse to let any clubs and associations which keep them apart.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

The Upper Body Will Vote on the Immigration Bill Next Thursday.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The final vote on the immigration bill will be taken in the senate next Thursday at 4 p. m., according to an agreement reached yesterday. Little doubt is entertained as to the passage of the measure, and as it has already passed the house it will be in conference before the holidays. The senate agreed to the house amendments to the copyright bill which passed the latter body last week. The measure now goes to the president for his signature.

Mr. Call, of Florida, renewed attention to the Cuban question by three resolutions, one being a bitter denunciation of the manner in which, it is alleged, General Antonio Maceo had been killed while under a flag of truce. Other resolutions by Mr. Call requested the president to demand the release of United States prisoners at the Spanish penal settlement on the Island of Cebu, and also asked the secretary of state for a list of Americans held in Spanish prisons. The Call resolutions went to the committee on foreign relations.

Beyond agreeing to a resolution for a two weeks' holiday recess, beginning Dec. 22, the proceedings in the house were almost entirely devoid of public interest. Most of the day was spent in a struggle over the bill of Mr. Morse, of Massachusetts, to repeal the laws relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors in the District of Columbia more stringent. The opposition was inclined to filibuster against it, but it was finally passed. The president's veto of a bill to pension Lydia A. Taft, a divorced widow, was sustained by a vote of 95 to 85, two-thirds not voting to override the president's veto. Several minor relief bills were passed.

THE FEDERATION OF LABOR.

President Gompers' Report Tells of the Growth of the Organization.
CINCINNATI, Dec. 15.—At the convention of the American Federation of Labor, which opened here yesterday, President Samuel Gompers' report was the principal event of the day. The report says in part:

"We see our country blossoming forth like a rose through our handiwork, yet countless thousands of our number with but the sting of the thorn for their reward and their consolation enfolded with the wizard like instruments, the result of the struggle of life is most intense and often excruciating. Greed and inhumanity, providing they rise in wealth, are still regarded as human attributes of victory and respectability; masses of the young and the innocent may suffer and decay in the process, but this is of little concern, only that the end, wealth's possession by the few, is attained.

"I would recommend that the representatives of this federation be constantly at the seat of the government during the sessions of congress, to guard and further the legislation which our organization demands in the interests of labor."
The trades unions are the business organizations of the wage earners, to attend to the business of the wage earners. They must contend for the toilers' rights and against the toilers' wrongs of today, and fight for the full enfranchisement of labor, not only at the polls, in the halls of legislation, but far more important than these, in the factory, workshop, mill, mine and field." There are nearly 100,000 more workers allied with the organization than a year ago.

WORKED THE ENVELOPE TRICK.
How a Swindler Secured a $200 Diamond for $5.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 15.—A well dressed stranger entered Hoyer's jewelry store yesterday afternoon and asked to see some diamonds. He purchased one valued at $200. He was short in cash and deposited $5, telling the proprietor to put the diamond in an envelope and he would call later. When he made his second call at the store he said that he was ready to take the diamond. He pulled out a large roll of bills, and the proprietor, thinking he had sufficient funds to pay for the stone, handed him the envelope, which the stranger put in his overcoat pocket.

The would be purchaser, however, had only $125. He offered a check for the balance, which was refused. Then he said he would go out to the bank and get the check cashed. He pulled from his pocket what was supposed to be the envelope containing the diamond and handing it to the jeweler said: "You keep this till I return with the balance of the money." The stranger then put his $125 in his pocket and walked out of the store. Not returning the envelope was opened for the purpose of putting the diamond back in the tray, when it was discovered a swindle had been perpetrated. The envelope left by the stranger contained a paste ring valued at a few cents.

TRENTON, Dec. 15.—The New Jersey Anti-Liquor league held its annual meeting here yesterday afternoon, and elected the following officers: President, A. G. Lawson of Camden; secretary, DeHart Brunen of Belvidere; treasurer, Ross Slack of Trenton. An address was made by Rev. S. Z. Batten, of Morristown. President Lawson in his address called attention to the fact that through the efforts of the league the last legislature had passed a law prohibiting the holding of elections in barrooms. He deplored the fact that two other measures advocated by the organization had been defeated—those providing that license applications should have twelve signers, and that arrests should not be in front of barrooms.
