Schooner Wrecked on the Massachusetts Const, and the Crew Rescued After Great Hardships-Three Deaths in New York State Summer Weather in Chicago,

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.-The northwest storm which struck this city about 10 o'clock Tuesday night grow in violence until, at 6 o'clock y parday morning, a howing gale of often fifty miles an hour raged, driving snow through the air with blinding fury and pling it in drifts. The storm, which cannot be called a blic storm, which example be called a bliz-zard because lacking the element of cold, was the worst since 1888. At daylight five inches of snow had failen and was being whirled about by the wind. As the day wors on the wind abated and the snow-cold discipland. At failed the slowwore on the wind abated and the show-fall diminished. At 4 o'clock the sky be-gan to clear and with nightfall the gale disappedred, moving on to scourge New England. About eight inches of snow fell. The lowest temperature reached during the storm was 28 degrees above zero.

In New York and Brooklyn there has In New York and Brooklyn there has been considerable delay. The Broadway cable line in particular experienced trouble, the cars having been stalled at intervals throughout the day. The troi-ley system of Brooklyn suffered even more, causing much inconvenience. There were also several periods of time during which trains on the big bridge were stalled and, as was inevitable, the ferry-boats were subject to more or less delay.

Three deaths due directly or indirectly to the storm have been reported up to this to the storm have been reported up to this time. They are: James Cully, an ele-vated raliway employe, found dead on the track; Louis Bressler, a tailor, found frozen to death in a hall on Pell street; Moriarto Zanano, a laborer, strawk by a Pennsylvania raliway train while work-ing on the track near Waverly, N. J. The same train farable housed Golasone Ca.

same train fatally injured Guiseppe Ca lotto, a fellow laborer. In addition to these William Beckley was found unconscious in a snowdrift in Jersey City so badly frozen that he can-not recover, and George W. Fears was picked up in this city unconscious from the cold, and cannot survive.

The Storm Reaches New England. BOSTON, Dec. 17 .- The first northeast snowstorm of the winter passed over New England yesterday, leaving about six inches of snow, blown into drifts by a forty mile an hour gale. Notwithstanding the timely warnings of the weather bu-reau of the approach of the storm from the south, a number of coasters were caught in the bay, although a large fleet managed to make port before the blinding snow began. Two scrious disasters oc-curred, both on the south shore, but fortunately, through the heroic efforts of the life saving crews, no fatalities were recorded. The storm pushed up the const during the afternoon, and at midnight the weather had cleared.

Summer Cars in Demand in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17 .- In sharp contrast with the snow and sleet accompanying the gale sweeping the eastern coast, the weather in Chicago yesterday was mild and pleasant to almost a record breaking degree. Women shoppers discarded furs degree. Women snoppers discarded furs for the wraps of early fall and open grip cars were much in demand. Cyclers were out in force, and the jam of bicycles, car-ringes and traps on the boulevard was as heavy as on a summer day. The lowest point reached by the mercury was 55 de-crease above zero. grees above zero.

Only a Local Snow Storm. 7364 HARMISBURG, Dec. 17.-The big snow storm that visited Philadelphia Tuesday storm that visited Philadelphia Tuesday night and yesterday did not extend over thirty miles west of that city. At Gap, fifty miles away, there was only a slight sprinkling, and at this place the day was In the Cumberland valley the weather was so pleasant that no overcoats were worn.

Frozen to Death White Sleighing, MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Dec. 17.-Percy Middlebrook, Frank Roe and Patrick Powers, all sons of prominent citizens of Florida, Orange county, took a ride in a sleigh Tuesday night, returning at mid-night. It is and Powers attempted to as-sist Middlebrook from the sleigh, but found that he was dead and frozen stiff.

> Place Your Orders Now. Tours to California.

California has been most fittingly termed the "Italy of America." All the delicious balm, the cloudless sky, and the rich verdure of the great European peninsula are duplicated in this sunny land of the Pacific. Here nature basks in the sunshine of her own Here nature names in the samaline of her own beauty; and here she has established her own sanitarium, where chernal spring in-spires everlasting youth. With the snow-mantled peaks of the Sierras upon the one hand, the calm Pacific with its soft breezes upon the other, and a verifable paradise of flowers, fruits and plauts between, man can find and needs no lovelier land. To visit such a country is a privilege, a blessing.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, ecognizing the need of a more comfortable and pleasant way of crossing the continent, inaugurated a series of annual tours to Cali-fornia, running a through train of Pullman palace cars from New York to the Pacific Cosst, and stopping at the principal points of interest a result. interest en route. The great popularity of these tours demonstrates the wisdom of the movement.

WARMINGTON, Dec. 17. -- Yesterday's sea-Wathiveron, Dec. 17.—Vestering's ses-sion of the senate developed the most eventful and exciting delete that either branch of concress has been in a long time. It brought forward the recognized leaders of the various parties and ele-ments including such conspicuous ligures as Mesers. Sherman, Frye, Teller, Gor-man, Vest, Aldrich, Platt. Mitchell of Oregon, Chandher, Hale and Albin, in notable statements on the leading ques-tions which have engaged the attention tions which have engaged the attention of congress and the country of late. Not only were the lines laid down on tariff and finance, but the debate partook of all the pent up feeling resulting from of all the pent up feeling resulting from the recent rational context. Often it was dramatic in its intensity and at all times absorbingly interactions of a similar Political infrances came in for a fair share of atomion, and the names of Mr. McKinky and Mr. Bryan often were heard. President Claydand also received attention, Mr. Allen declaring that the president was a Republican, who rejoiced with Republicans over their recent mitted victory.

The debate came mexpectedly, when Mr. Vest called up the Allen resolution, in order to make some remarks on it. Mr. Vest was in his usual canstle vein, and his speech termed with those graceful and catchy phrases for which he is noted. He severely arraigned the doctrine of protection, and derided the promise of prosperity held out, he said, by Mr. McKinley which could not be fulfilled by levying more taxes on the people. There were frequent sharp and annusing cross fires between Mr. Since and Messres. Aldrich, Chandler and Frye. The debate advanced to a more acute stage when Mr. Allen, with his usual binntness, began to quostion Mr. Chandler as to the future of the Dingley bill Mr. Sherman, of Ohio, spoke with deep earnestness, declaring that it was a crime for congress not to give the government ample revenue for needful expenditures. He approved Mr. Cleveland's course in is-suing bonds to maintain the gold reserve. Mr. Teller followed, pointing out the futility of arging the Dingley bill. As to future tariff legislation, he reserved his judgment on it until the measure was presented and its morits considered. Mr. Gorman also pointed out the uselessness of urging the Dingley bill, conceding, however, that after March 4 next the Republican sonators would be in sufficient strength to pass a tariff bill. As to the course on the Democratic side he said he anticipated no obstruction to such a measure, beyond an insistence on reasonable debate

Throughout the debate the sentiment had prevailed that the Dingley bill was dead, and to give this final and apparently official sanction Mr. Platt, of the finance committee, announced that no effort would be made to urge the bill to passage effort Thoreupon Mr. Sherman promptly arose and said that in view of what had been said heacquiesced in the general sentiment that no further effort should be made on the Dingley bill. This was regarded as the the Dingley bill. This was regarded as the final disposition of the bill. An attempt to transfer the army and navy hospital at Hot Springs, Ark., to the interior department and abandon it as a hospital consumed practically the whole day in the house, and finally blocked proceedings on a point of order, and thus compelled an adjournment. It was the only provision of the army ap-propriation bill which excited a contest. At the opening of the session Mr. Halley At the opening of the session Mr. Balley introduced a resolution to investigate the construction of the lattleship Texas, which was referred to the naval committee
