SYMPATHY FOR CUBA.

Fig Parade and Mass Meeting in New York City.

New York, Dec. 22.—The demonstration in favor of the Cuban insurgents under the auspices of the Society of American Friends of Cuba last night was a remark-Four thousand men marched able one. Four thousand men marched from East Eighty-seventh street to Cooper Union, ted by Franz Meyer, a survivor of the Virginus massacre. The parade was divided into ten columns. When the marchers mached Cooper Union the great hall was crowded, and few of thom were able to wedge their way in.

Colonel Ethan Alien, president of the Cuban league, called the meeting to order and stated its object. Several times dur-ing Colonel Allen's speech, when Presi-dent Cleveland's mane was mentioned, it was bitterly hissed. There were wild outbreaks when Maceo's name was spoken.

A series of resolutions was read and adopted, declaring that the Cuban republie is cutified to receive from this nation an official recognition of its independence.

Referring to President Claveland the resolutions declare:

"In our judgment he mistakes the iman our judgment he mistakes the impulses which sway the American people when he says. They view with wonder and admiration the cheerful resolution with which vast bodies of men are sent by Spain, across thousands of miles of ocean, that the everyly goon of the Antilles may still hold its place in the Spanish crown. On the contrary, the American people view with horror this energy of demons, whose purpose is to continue the robbery and slaughter of unoffending subjects."

Ringing speaches were made by General Senators Morean, Culloin, Mills, Call and Lodge, Governor Morton, Rev. Heber Newton, Rev. Thomas Dixon and Rev. Rev. Heber Robert S. McArthur.

mond, and Washington.

For the approaching midwinter vacation season the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged another of its annual heliday tears to Old Point Comfort, Richmond, and Washington. The great popularity of these tours in past seasons attests the high estimation in which they are held.

Old Point Comfort as a fashionable winter resert and as a point of historic interest.

Old Point Comfort as a fashionable winter resort, and as a point of historic interest, needs no introduction to the traveling public. Nor does Richmond, the one-time capital of the short-liked Confederacy. Washington, always attractive, will be made peculiarly so by the festivities of the holiday season.

After a delay of four years from the time when he began his policy, the Greek revolt in Europe and the mili-tary success of Boliver and Iturbide in America gave the desired opportunity, and Mouroe sent to congress his celebrated messign of March 8, 1822, recommending the recognition of all the revolted colonies of Spain-Mexico, Colombia, Chile and

"Nevertheless, Monroo's act, which ex-tinguished the last hopes of the hely alliance in America, produced the deepest sensation among European conservatives, and gave to the United States extraordinary consideration. England used it as a weapon at the congress of Verena to threaten the other powers when she decided on intervention in Spain

The report then gives the circumstances under which the Southern Confederacy was recognized by European governments, tracing in detail the diplomatic correspon-

The report then deals at length with the recognition of Texas, and proceeds to discoss the Cuban question, saying in part: The Insurgent Covernment Organized.

"In September, 1895, the Insurgent gov ernment was regularly organized, a constitution adopted, a president elected, and in the due course the various branches of administration set in motion. Since then, so far as we are informed, this governneut has continued to perform its func-tions undisturbed. On the military side, as we officially know, they have organ-ized and equipped in the field sufficient forces to baffle the exertions of 200,000 Spanish soldiers. On the civil side they have organized their system of adminis-tration in every province, for, as we know officially, they roam at will over at least two-thirds of the inland country. "Diplomatically, they have maintained a regularly accredited representative in the United States for the past year, who has never ceased to ask recognition and to offer all possible information. There is no reason to suppose that any portion of the Cuban people would be dissatisfied by our recognizing their representative in this country, or that they disagree in the ear-nest wish for that recognition. The same thing could hardly be said of all the countries recognized by Monvoe in 1822. Greece had no such stability who lit was recognized by England, Russia and France. Beigium had nothing of the sort when she was recognized by all the powers in 1830.

"The only question that properly re-mains for congress to consider is the mode which should be adopted for the step which congress is pledged next to take.
"The government of the United States

entertains none but the friendliest feelings towards Spain. Its most anxious wish is to avoid even the appearance of an unfriendliness which is wholly foreign to its thoughts. In the present instance they are actuated by an earnest wish to avoid the danger of sceming to provoke a

"The practice of Europe in regard to intervention, as in the Instances cited, has been almost invariably barsh and oppressive. The practice of the United States has been almost invariably mild and forbearing. Among the precedents which have been so numerously cited, there can be no doubt as to the choice. The most moderate is the best. Among these, the Monroe in mion drave him to 1822 is the only attitude which can prop orly be regarded as obligatory for a similar situation today. The course pursued by the United States in the recognition of Colombia is the only course which con-gress can consistently adopt."
