DRIVEN OUT BY FLAMES.

Destruction of a Factory and Two Tenement Buildings.

LOSS HALF A MILLION DOLLARS.

Patients of a Hospital Carried Out by Police and Firemen—Dwellers in Neighboring Tenements Driven Out to Prevent Their Being Crushed to Death.

New York, Dec. 29.—Fire which started on the second floor of the seven-story building 211-219 East Thirty-third street, yesterday did $500,000 damage. The fire started near the air shaft and spread with such rapidity that before the first engine arrived almost the entire building was in flames. Four alarms were sent out in quick succession, but the large force of firemen who responded were powerless to stay the progress of the fire in the building in which it originated.

The flames burst from the rear windows of the factory, and licked the walls of the New York Polyclinic on Thirty-fourth street, adjoining the burning structure. In the Polyclinic there were from fifty to sixty patients, some of whom had recently been operated on and others of whom were awaiting the surgeon's knife. Among the latter were thirteen babies. The patients were hastily wrapped in blankets and borne to the Delaware hotel near by. Great excitement prevailed among the helpless sick people, but the police and firemen worked hard and all the occupants of the hospital were gotten out in safety.

Thirteen children were carried out without trouble, but there was more trouble with the adult patients. Several women began to scream, and men who should not have left cots defied their nurses and tried to escape. The worst patients were carried out on stretchers. Several were moved in invalid chairs. One woman upon whom an operation had been performed only a day or two before became unconscious from fright. Not one of the patients will suffer from the change. As soon as possible they were taken to other hospitals.

The west side of the wall of the burning building, on Thirty-third street, fell with a crash about twenty minutes after the fire was discovered, crushing in the adjoining building, No. 209, occupied as an apartment house. The people in the house received timely warning, and rushed out of their homes, carrying with them such personal property as they had time to gather up in their flight. The apartment house was almost completely destroyed by the fire, together with No. 207, a five-story tenement adjoining.

There were twenty-four families living in No. 209. The mothers and fathers watched the firemen indifferently from their windows, while the children played with their Christmas toys. Suddenly the house was filled with police. "Run for your lives," they cried. "The wall is going to fall on you." Mothers picked up their little ones and ran to the street. Others said the police were foolish and refused to leave. Finally the police used force. They shoved the men and women down the stairs and picked the children from the floors and carried them out. Kicking, struggling, shouting youngsters were set down on the cold pavements. Most of them were in their night clothes, and such one had a doll by the leg or was clinging to a toy.

The two buildings in which the fire was raging were tinder boxes, being all of wood, except the outside shells. The lumber in the piano factory helped on the blaze. The roof of the factory building fell within an hour after the fire was discovered, and then there was great danger from the walls. The wall to the west tumbled upon the tenement house. The wall in the east went down upon Schuller's hotel. Half the front wall went crashing into Thirty-third street. The firemen expected the fall and were out of the way. Each fall was accompanied by a loud report and clouds of dust and steam rose hundreds of feet into the air.

On the other side of the burning factory stood a tenement house, No. 221 East Thirty-third street. The people in this house were also driven out by the flames, and the building was badly damaged by fire and water. The floor on which the fire started was occupied by Adolph Linor as a snuff manufactory, the remainder of the building being used by H. E. Kludenberg as a merchandise pipe factory. The factory building was almost totally destroyed.

Body Brothers Will Haug.
SHELBY, Pa., Dec. 28.—The jury in the case of James and John Hoddy, charged with the murder of David Berkey, returned at 9:15 Thursday night, after being out twelve hours, with a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. Their counsel will file a motion for a new trial. The crime for which the Hoddy brothers were convicted was the torturing of David Berkey, an aged farmer, on the night of June 2, for the purpose of robbery, inflicting injuries which caused his death. The case of Richard Jackson, indicted as an accomplice, is still on trial.

Faster Succo Goes Insane.
NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Giovanni Succo, the Italian faster, according to a dispatch from Paris, went mad last Wednesday night, after he had finished a fast, and was taken to a hospital. Succo has gained in Europe considerable fame and made money by his fasting exhibitions, and although considerable skepticism as to the good faith of his exhibition was expressed at the time of his fast in this city in 1890, he never failed to draw crowds on the other side of the water.

I had severe attacks of gravel and kidney trouble; and unable to get a medicine or doctor to cure me until I used Hop Bitters, and they cured me in a short time.—A DISTINGUISHED LAWYER OF WAYNE CO., N. Y.

Colorless and Cold.—A young girl deeply regretted that she was so colorless and cold. Her face was so white, and her hands and feet felt as though the blood did not circulate. After one bottle of Hop Bitters had been taken she was the rosiest and healthiest girl in the town, with a vivacity and cheerfulness of mind gratifying to her friends.

No Cut at Carnegie's.
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 28.—The employees of the vast interests controlled by the Carnegie Steel company will receive the same wages during 1907 as they have the past year. Considering the fact that pig iron and finished products have fallen in price from 10 to 25 per cent since the last scale was signed, this action on the part of the big steel company virtually increases the wages of over 6,000 employees.

Beauty Unrolled

No district in America presents, during the winter season, so many varied attractions as the State of Florida. Besides its delightful climate, which is one escaping from the cold and unhealthy climes of the North seems almost ethereal, it is embellished by a land of sport and pleasure. Along its eleven hundred miles of salt-water coast and in its twelve hundred fresh-water lakes are fish of almost every conceivable variety, from the migratory tribes common to Northern waters to the tarpon, pompano, and others of a more tropical character. Nowhere in all our broad land can the angler find a greater variety of game or better sport.

Here also the most enthusiastic hunter finds satiate. Deer, turkeys, bears, panthers, and wild cats roam at large through the more sparsely settled regions, while birds of all kinds may be found in abundance throughout the State. The more novel sport of alligator and manatee hunting may also be indulged in by the more adventurous tourist.

With its matchless climate, its orange groves, its rivers and lakes, its boating and bathing, its fishing and hunting, and its extensive forests, Florida presents unparalleled attractions for the vacationist, the lover of nature, the sportsman and the explorer.

To this attractive state the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged four personally-conducted tours during the season of 1907, leaving by special train January 20, February 9 and 22, and March 9. The first three tours will admit of a sojourn of two weeks in this delightful land; tickets for the fourth tour will be valid to return until May 31 by regular trains.

Rates for the round trip, $50.00 from New York, $45.00 from Philadelphia, and proportionately from other points.

For tickets, itineraries and other information, apply to ticket agents, special booking offices, or address Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad street station, Philadelphia.

To the admiring gaze of those who have a taste for really fine wall paper is the display of new wall paper varieties we have just received. You can find any color or pattern you want for your hall, bed room, parlor, dining room, kitchen or cafe, from 5c up to $5 per roll. Fine artistic paper a specialty.

CHRISTMAS TRAGEDIES.

Murders and Suicides Mar the Festal Season.

ATTEMPT TO LYNCH A MOTORMAN

He Had Run Over and Killed a Boy in Chicago, and Was Brutally Beaten by a Mob—Saved from Death by a Store-keeper.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—George E. Denmark, 7 years old, was killed by a street car at Throp and Eleventh streets yesterday afternoon. Fred Bernier, motorman, was threatened with lynching for killing the boy, and was with great difficulty rescued from a mob of Bohemians, who, incensed at the terrible accident, surrounded the car and dragged Bernier from the platform, determined to hang him. Patrick Hanley, the conductor, managed to save Bernier from the mob, and then a riot call was sent to the Maxwell street station. The police took charge of the motorman and conductor and locked them up.

After the boy had been killed, Motorman Bernier took refuge in the car, which stood within a few feet of where the boy was killed, and in an instant was beset by angry men. He attempted to keep them out by locking the door on the inside, but they broke it in, kicked him down, and kicked and beat him for a few moments in a shocking manner. He managed, however, to get away from them, and ran to the door of a drug store, where he was handed a pistol and was admitted inside by the proprietor before any further harm befell him.

The crowd surged around the door yelling: "Break it in! Kill him! Kill him!" It looked for a minute as if the store would be razed, but the proprietor, Mr. Kvelke, brought out a Winchester rifle, and pointing it at the door, threatened that the first man who entered would drop dead. The crowd believed what he said and fell back.

In the meantime Mr. Kvelke had phoned his telephone. He called on the Maxwell station first for an ambulance, but by that time matters had got so warm that he requested a patrol wagon. In a few moments the wagon brought the police, and in a short time some degree of quiet had been restored.

Suicide on a Crowded Street.
OMAHA, Dec. 28.—A few minutes after 10 o'clock Thursday night John Kirkman attempted to murder his wife, Stella Kirkman, and then killed himself in Douglas street, between Fourteenth and Thirteenth streets. The woman was struck in the forehead by the bullet, but was not seriously wounded. The couple separated two years ago, the woman obtained her life a number of times. Last night he met her in company with her own son and a woman friend. With but a few words he drew a revolver and shot at her. He then turned the weapon on his own forehead and sent a bullet through his brain. The street was jammed with Christmas shoppers at the time, and the tragedy created a sensation.

Double Murder on Christmas Eve.
CORNING, N. Y., Dec. 28.—A horrible double murder occurred at Rathbunville, fifteen miles west of this city. William Allen, William Herrington and Cloyd Myers quarreled about the possession of a buffalo robe, while in an intoxicated condition. Myers had the robe at his home, and Allen and Herrington drove there at 10 o'clock Thursday night and demanded it. They were met by Myers, who had a shotgun with him. When they demanded the robe Myers shot and killed both of them. Myers is in jail.

Marked on Christmas Morn.
MEMPHIS, Dec. 28.—Christmas morning was ushered in with a horrible murder. Mrs. Frank Watson, 55 years of age, was found dead yesterday morning in her residence on Pearce street, this city. Her husband, a stationary engineer, and who works for the Bobbin Husck law company, is under arrest, but has not confessed to the crime. Watson and his wife have had frequent quarrels of late. A babe a few months old, was found wallowing in its mother's blood, where it had lain all night.

Three Children Roasted to Death.
FRANKLIN, Pa., Dec. 28.—The ignition of a match, which the children of Philip McKim, of Rockland township, were trying to take from the pocket of an oily pair of trousers of their father's, started a fire in which three of the little ones were burned to death and the house destroyed. Mrs. McKim had gone to a neighbor's house, leaving her four children alone. The children were literally roasted.

Murdered Over a Game of Billiards.
BALTIMORE, Dec. 28.—Nicholas White, 49 years old, is locked up at Highlandtown, a suburb of this city, charged with the murder of Conrad Summers, a saloon keeper, aged 41. The men were playing billiards in Summers' place last night and quarreled over some trivial matter. White drew a revolver and sent a bullet crashing through Summers' heart. White is in the Canton jail.

Suicide at Brooklyn's City Hall.
BROOKLYN, Dec. 28.—A well dressed man about 30 years old blew his brains out with a pistol on the steps of the Brooklyn city hall last night. Papers in his pocket indicated that the suicide's name was William W. Morrow.

Cruciated on Christmas Eve.
NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Mrs. Jennie Cadden, wife of John Cadden, a driver in Brooklyn, was burned to death Thursday night in a fire at her home. It is thought that while intoxicated she upset a lamp.

A Valuable Prescription.
Editor Morrison of Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2625 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat or digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. Prices 30 cents and $1.00. Get a bottle at A. Wasley's Drug Store.

Yale's Christmas Football Game.
NASHVILLE, Dec. 28.—About 3,000 people witnessed the good game of football played between the Yale consolidated team and the Nashville Athletic club team at Athletic Park yesterday afternoon. The event was a society occasion, and the boxes and stands were aglow with colors. Yale outclassed their opponents
